MORO CITY OFFICIAL PAPER. SPECIAL PAPER OF SHERMAN TO MORO, OREGON.

D. C. IRELAND, Editor. C. L. IRELAND, MANAGER. FRIDAY, JAN. 7, 1910

Church and Society notices FREE, except when for money making purposes.

We will not be responsible for the neglect of subscribers to notify us of changes in their address.

Nothing makes a person so hot as to catch cold.

The lone paper has pulled up and moved over to Echo, where it adopted another name for certain death.

Feeling charitable is such a fad with some people that they never are able to get beyond the feeling stage.

Even with the cost of living as high as it is, Mrs. Harriman will probably be able to inch along on her reduced fortune of $50,000,000.

A Spokane woman named Dance has sued her husband for divorce.

The retiring president of the American Association for the Advancement of Science has given assurances that the earth will not collide with anything in 1910.

A phone message from Vale to the Harney county News, says that 150 barrel oil flow is a fake!

Dr. Osler is now of opinion that a diet of sour milk is conducive to vigor and usefulness in old age.

The post office at Ostrander, Washington, was recently robbed of money order blanks numbered from 622 to 640.

"Little Tim" Sullivan, the Bowery political leader, left an estate of $500,000.

Prof. Moore, chief of the United States Weather Bureau, stopped at a book stall in one of the big department stores in Chicago.

Having discovered the pole, Peary might round out his fame now by personally conducting an expedition in search of the lost Dr. Cook.

Mr. Johnston, pastor of the Washington Heights Baptist church, New York, has solved the problem of where the pennies go to.

A skilled female cook having arrived in Boston from abroad, the immigration authorities decided that she was not "self-supporting."

Harry C. Osterman, the prodigal fool who dazzled Walla Walla with his wastefulness last summer, was called to account by his corporate partners at Pullman just before Christmas.

Boston, the home of fads, has a new idea. This one in the interest of a type foundry perhaps, declare that as at present constituted the alphabetical characters retard rather than facilitate the reading of a printed page.

Any person or persons having horses, cattle, houses, lots or household goods for sale, exchange, or parties desiring to buy such property, will find THE OBSERVER a good medium for advertising and securing a customer.

PLAIN MILLIONAIRES.

A retired merchant who died unnoticed in New York city last March, turns out to have left an estate of $6,449,466.

No one need blush for ignorance. Millionaires are too common.

John Smith of Oshkosh, or William Jones of Kankakee, packs a million or two in his grip, goes to New York and is amazed that he attracts no attention.

Wonderful, indeed, as it may seem, the boosting movement in Oregon is even extending its scope to include the printing offices.

The petition for funds, by the Development League, to be used by and with the railroad in advertising this county, was presented to the County court at this term.

The only thing wrong with Phil Miller in 1758 when he introduced the chrysanthemum in England, was his failure to put more letters into its name.

May 18th is the day fixed for the first brush of Halley's Comet with mother earth.

Mr. Johnston, pastor of the Washington Heights Baptist church, New York, has solved the problem of where the pennies go to.

Contention has been set up that the sale of a baseball player by one club to another is a form of slavery, and thus unconstitutional.

The County court levied a tax of 8 1/2 mills on the assessment roll. The 1/2 mill is to meet the raise of state tax, about $3,300, fixed by the equalization board.

The National Woman Suffrage association officially brands all men who oppose their cause as TYRANTS. Ladies, ladies, compose yourselves. That is unkind, and inconsistent, too.

Uncle Sam has quit rushing munitions of war to Nicaragua, and is now up to his ears in the labor of feeding the starving and relieving the distress there.

Dr. Osler, he of the 40-year limit fame, is said to have given his indorsement to the theory that drinking sour milk tends to ward off the progress of age.

The door of death seemed ready to open for M. W. Ayers, of Transi Bridge, N. Y., when his life was wonderfully saved.

The maiden dropped her lovely eyes. Later she cast her eyes far down the rocky slopes of the mountain side.

To endure the itching, painful distress of piles, there's no need to listen.

"We shall need," said the officer who was arranging for the government expedition, "food supplies for six men and a boy."

Everywhere life is being made more safer through the work of Dr. King's New Life Pills in constipation, biliousness, dyspepsia, indigestion, liver trouble, kidney disease and bowel disorders.

He-You owe me ten kisses. Pay up. She-Explain, sir. He-I won them. You know very well I wagered a dozen gloves against ten kisses and won.

Japanese horses wear sandals of straw, bundles of which are tied to the saddle for removal when needed.

Lost from my place about Nov. 1, 1909, one light brown mare, rather old, 4 white feet, stripe in face, branded F M on left stifle, brand on left shoulder.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Undue Familiarity. "Did you strike this old man?" the coroner asked English.

A Wild Blizzard Raging. Brings danger, suffering, often death, to thousands, who take colds, coughs and grippe, that terror of winter grippe.

She Sighed. Hubby-The old saying is true, "It is only fools who get married."

Saved at Death's Door. The door of death seemed ready to open for M. W. Ayers, of Transi Bridge, N. Y., when his life was wonderfully saved.

A Wretched Mistake. To endure the itching, painful distress of piles, there's no need to listen.

Taught by Experience. "We shall need," said the officer who was arranging for the government expedition, "food supplies for six men and a boy."
