How many vagabond dogs have paid their license in Moro?

Autos are becoming almost as common in Sherman county as horse-vehicles.

W B Allison was up from Yamhill county last week looking after his farm interests.

Glass, Paints and Wall Paper in any quantity at the new store of M M Hosmer, Meach building.

Lumber for the Experimental Farm Station buildings at Moro, began arriving in carload lots this week.

Roy Axtell has finished painting and papering at Chris Anderson's and resumed similar work at H S McDanel's.

M M Hosmer has finished the Pike cottage decorations. The premises will be occupied by Mr and Mrs Emmet Sells.

Do you want a suit for your boy? Knickerbocker and plain pants? Newest styles and right prices. See them at Moro Com'l Co's store.

The famous Ingersoll watch costs $1. and is guaranteed for one year. Leave your expensive watch at home and carry an Ingersoll in the field. For sale by the Moro Commercial Company.

Ladies' shirt waists in silk, net, and fine lawns, from 65c to $5. Don't fail to see this, the biggest assortment ever shown in Sherman county. A new shipment just received, Moro Commercial Co.

Reports of chinch bugs in the wheat fields of Kansas, and of the Hessian fly in Missouri, created a panic in the pits of the Chicago gamblers in food stuffs Saturday. The churches were almost empty Sunday. Sharp advances was the chief bullish influence and active buying all along the line.

County Clerk H S McDanel and Deputy B F Peetz, returned from a Portland business trip on the 8th said to have been very successful. During their absence the office was manipulated by ID Pike and Miss West. We understand that the patentees has been offered $41,000 for the Gnu Typewriter Copy holder.

Get your supply of summer underwear at Hardin's clearance sale.

A B Walford has all the pigs he wants. That little ad in The Old Reliable did the work.

Dr. Joseph Sanders, Veterinary Surgeon, has moved his office to the Bolton building. See adv.

To the humane person the only place where a dog with a tin can tied to its tail looks funny is in a picture.

Spokane has a woman who is so tender hearted that she blankets the horse radish plants in the back yard every night.

If you are looking for a swell pair of Oxfords or slippers, come to our store, quality and style combined. Moro Com'l Co.

Mrs Roy Belshie is quite elated over her success at hatching chicks with an incubator. From 108 eggs she obtained 102 chicks. The eggs were mixed breeds, and it was her first experience.

Miss Claranna N Huffman and Emmet Sells were married at the home of the brides parents at Walla Walla on the 6th. Their home will be at Moro, in the Pike cottage, Court and First streets.

Mrs J R Morgan and Mrs J W Cochran are leaving on a visit to their parental homes in Sunny Southland. Mrs Motgan goes to North Carolina and Mrs Cochran to Florida. Both expect to return to Moro next fall.

A trio of Moro kids, old enough to know better, broke into the vacant John Coy farm house twice last week, and were caught the last time in the house, by the owner, and sent home with a reprimand. Now the questions uppermost are Who's to blame? and what are you going to do about it? The outlaw ye always have; why?

Avenarius Carbolineum is a germ destroyer. It destroys the cause of decay in posts or timber. The U S Government, the O R & N Co, Multnomah county and the city of Portland, are making general use of it on bridge timbers, etc. The Observer Book Store is distributors of the pure article in Sherman county.

Rose Farm, George E Thompson's new possessions 7 miles east of Moro, is just now a beauty to the eye, with a profusion of lilac, tulips and other bright flowers embellished with the bloom of the fruit trees and products of the garden, besides all of which he has reasonable hope for a crop that will keep the wolf from the door next winter.

The Dufur Dispatch has just heard of a school ma'am introducing a new feature in her school. When one of the girls miss a word the boy who spells it has permission to kiss her. The result is the girls are becoming poor spellers while the boys are improving right along.

Harry Stamm, a 21-year-old Lane county boy, was arrested at Eugene on the 8th for forgery and attempt to cash a $1,700 check. The newspapers say: "he is of good family and this is his first offense," a plea which might not be so thin had the check been different, say $1,700,000, and the boy had got away with the money. Who's to blame for this? The good family, the boy or the bank?

Miss Ida Mowry has returned to her home in this city on a short vacation.

Old type metal makes the best and the cheapest babbling. The Observer has a lot of such material for sale cheap.

Dr Marie M Goffin is spending a few days with Portland friends and relatives, taking a little needed rest and recreation.

City Well No 2 has been refined this week, and is now ready with an abundance of wholesome water for the summer of 1910.

A New York physician argues that the brain is not the seat of reason. Then kindly tell us where doth the brain storm originate?

A reader informs us that the best and most delicious bonbons are made from maple sugar. Perhaps, but where shall the m. s. come from?

Health, honesty, horse-sense and hard work is a combination you cannot down; if your rival has these qualifications form a trust with him.

'Practical men' were quite common, both at Pittsburg and in the New York assembly. They had forgotten that part of the prayer: "Lead us not into temptation," but "Deliver us from evil" is what they are hankering after now.

House cleaning time suggests new Lace Curtains, and we have a large assortment in white and ecru, from 50c to $6.50 per pair. A pair of brass curtain rods free with every pair of curtains, Moro Commercial Company.

Work on the Experiment Farm Station well came to an abrupt termination Saturday, at a depth of 90 feet, and a new hole was begun Wednesday morning. The cause of the trouble was the breaking of a drill which could not be recovered.

Benson & Wells, proprietors of Sherans Bridge hotel, were robbed of $900.00 in cash Saturday. The treasure was kept in a trunk in the house, which must have been known to the thief, as nothing else was molested. No clue.

Dr Cook believes that an Arctic frost has spread all over the earth. Dr Cook is one of those American citizens who cannot live in the United States unless they go abroad. The number is increasing. If it isn't a frost its some other thing that's killing them.

James Mitchell of the local firm of Mitchell & Foss, had an apoplectic stroke of paralysis Tuesday paralyzing the right side of his face and the left side of his body. He was partially unconscious yesterday and Wednesday, but Dr Goffin has hope for the recovery of his patient after a period of rest.

E W Lewis and Mrs Powell had a fine trip and visit north, but the cold raw winds made Spokane disagreeable. Mr Lewis took in Rosalia, and the great Palouse region, including Colfax, one of the worst sufferers from the January and February floods. They come home with the thought uppermost in their minds that there is no better place than home. They attend Easter Services at Arlington.

Some time ago an Italian laborer was tied to a post near the mouth of DesChutes river, and twice shot through the back of the head. He was then cut away and the body was dragged under a fence to the Columbia river beach and thrown into the water, but instead of floating away hugged the shore and sank in the sands, where it was found as the water receded. Papers upon the person, receipts for money remitted to Italy, identified the stranger, but there is no clue as to the murderer.

Four clerks were kept on the jump all day Saturday, at the I P Hardin opening of the mammoth Clearance Sales, and then customers often had to wait. It pays to advertise in The Old Reliable, you don't have to be told, you can see that, unless you are blind. The Sale will be continued, see advertisement today for tomorrow 16th. Every piece of goods offered is a bargain. As Mr Hardin says: We must have more money. Our loss is your gain.

Sheriff J C Freeman returned from the south end of the county Sunday afternoon, where he was on the hunt for undesirable citizens. He found evidences which seem positive proof that five head of McLanes' cattle, thought to have strayed away, had been stolen and at least two of them beheaded. The supposed thief was already in jail, so that no arrest was necessary at the time the evidence was found.
