Robert Hunter was in the city on business Saturday.

Dr. Marie M. Goffin has returned from her Portland visit.

W. A. Kentner has a sale two miles south of Kent, tomorrow afternoon.

W. B. McCoy arrived home on Sunday from The Dalles, bringing a new auto with him.

When warm and thirsty visit Rudolph Confectionery and get a dish of Ice Cream, or an Ice Cream Soda.

Fred Guinther and his little son Leo, the boy who broke his leg in Vancouver, were early business visitors in Moro Monday.

If you are looking for a swell pair of Oxfords or slippers, come to our store, quality and style combined. Moro Com'l Co.

Oh, but the county looks fine; Paradise was no comparison to it. Wheat is growing as it was never before known to grow in this region in April.

R. C. Atwood, one of the leading merchants and bankers of this county, was attending to business in Moro on the 15th. At one time Roy was a resident of this city.

Auto owners will tell you that there's nothing like it for the making of good roads. The teamster with horses and wagon says "Nay, the auto is worse than a badger for digging holes." Which is right?

C. H. Belchee and wife were called to Portland Saturday hearing that the physical condition of Grandpa Sink showed unfavorable they decided to start home earlier than they had expected in order to remain with Grandpa as long as possible.

Married. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Watson, sister of the bride in The Dalles, at 7:30 p. m. April 12th, J. A. Nickelson, of Boyd and Miss Maie Rust, of this city. Rev. M. T. Wire officiating. The wedding was a quiet one, only relatives and a few friends being present. Both parties are well and favorably known both here and in Wasco county. They will reside at the home farm of the groom, south of Moro.

C. F. French at Grass Valley, is now the owner of the handsome little runabout auto, recently sold him by Judge Wm Rudolf of this city. Mr. Rudolf has too many irons in the fire to enjoy the luxuries of an auto this summer. Business before pleasure is his maxim, though he was one of the first to build a private garage in Moro.

Speaking about Old La Grippe Ben F. Peetz says the Moro article isn't a circumstance along side of what Portland carries for its visitors. Ben ought to know, for he has wrestled both of them this season.

The dynamiters wrecked Cooper Brothers office, as well as the safe, which they robbed of about $80 at Grass Valley on the morning of the 15th. Officers gave chase and found out where the robbers had prepared the dope, but so far they have evaded arrest.

Avenarius Carbolinum is the best chicken lice destroyer on the market, and will sweeten and preserve a water trough, pig pen, stable, etc., and keep away flies. It is a guaranteed article. The Observer Book Store is distributors of the pure article in Sherman county.

How Halley's comet lost its tail is told by an eastern comet enthusiast, who accounts for the loss by frictions of the old thing with Sol. Nearing the sun the action of that body caused the tail to unwind and it could never be recovered. Another guy says the tail is there, at least 50,000,000 miles of it is in fact.

Rev. Cook, former pastor of Moro M. E. Church, arrived here Tuesday, expecting to hold meeting and organize an anti-Saloon club, but no notice of his intention having been given, he proceeded to Wasco. People always come out for a good cause in this little city when they are properly invited, and it is a libel on the community to say that they do not.

Henry Myers was a Moro visitor Saturday.

Ice Cream Jello at the Merchants Hotel Sunday.

Want a good housekeeper? See adv and address this office.

Send The Observer to your absent friends. It gives all the local news, and is better than a letter. Mailed four months for 50c.

Do you want a suit for your boy Knickerbocker and plain pants? Newest styles and right prices. See them at Moro Com'l Co's store.

Mrs. Jas. Tomlin has had Mr. Hosmer do a nice job of papering and now to make things correspond will have the outside of the house painted.

No sermon is necessary to give emphasis to the truth that the booze and gambling habit is a losing proposition all around as an asset for the business man.

A man named Shankland, down at St. Johns, says the pneumatic tire must go. He has invented a seat cushion which takes its place, at $6. per cushion against $70 per pneumatic per auto.

Ladies' shirt waists in silk, net and fine lawns, from 65c to $5. Don't fail to see this, the biggest assortment ever shown in Sherman county. A new shipment just received, Moro Commercial Co.

Frank Sayres has done a splendid job of work amongst the trees and shrubbery at the cemetery. It is astonishing the amount of old junk that had accumulated in the sacred place through carelessness of the people. He hauled away two full wagon loads of rusty cans broken glass jars, bottles, etc.

Halley's comet, which was missing, has turned up again on the old cinder track and is expected to keep its ringside appointment with the earth next month. Those who have reported seeing the comet with the naked eye, and noting the absence of its tail, simply are mistaken. They have been gazing upon Venus.
