A. E. Hammond, a prominent figure in the construction of our Little Short Line (The Columbia Southern Ry), paid us a cheerful visit this week. With the exception of his white hairs Mr Hammond looks the same as when we first became acquainted. About his cruise this week, more anon.

The last meeting of Moro W C T U at Mrs Wallan's, was a very interesting and profitable one. The next will be held at Mrs McKean's May 13th. Thursday next Mrs Unruh will conduct three meetings in Moro, for the purpose of organizing Sherman county. We should like to give more complete details, but data for this reaches us at the eleventh hour. Everybody invited. Location not named.

Dr. O. J. Goffin spent Monday with his auto taking Messrs G M Weisler and J S Mills over the county as artist and writer of illustrated literature for Sherman county, upon orders of the O R & N Co, on its contract with our development league. The next day L Barnum went with them in his new locomobile. They were very successful, both days, in securing data and views for illustrations for the forthcoming book.

While there was not as many people in attendance at Grass Valley as there were two years ago in Moro, at the Odd Fellows Anniversary Celebration, it was a grand affair. All lodges in the county, including the Camp, Canton and D of R, were represented, and the address by Judge R R Butler was one of the best ever yet delivered in Oregon, say some Ancient Odd Fellows who have often "been there."

Shipping Inland Empire grain up the Wallamet 12 miles just to export it, will no longer be necessary. The North Bank Ry Co, is to spend $2,000,000 for building docks, grain elevators, spurs and trackage along the Columbia river below Vancouver, and if possible will handle the crop of 1910. The Columbia has a depth of 30 feet or more where the grain will be loaded into deep sea ships for the export trade.

One advantage of life in an apartment house is the absence of the festive lawnmower.

The concrete foundation for the main building at the Experiment Farm Station, has been laid this week.

Don't be less backward about helping yourself than you would be if it were a case of helping a politician.

R C Atwood is building in Shaniko, preparatory to opening a general merchandising business at the C S Ry terminii.

Wheat, flour, butter and eggs, all slid down the scale of prices simultaneously last week in the Portland markets, which affects the local market.

Send The Observer to your absent friends. It gives all the local news, and is better than a letter. Mailed four months for 50c.

Vancouver dogs are shipped to Hoodriver as food for poultry and the private fish hatchery of A P Friday. A fine system for the spread of tuberculosis.

The zero weather of last week cost the Middle West $30,000,000 at least. The New West will be called upon to supply the losses in ruined fruit and vegetables.

Mr and Mrs James Braden of Dallas, left for home last week after a very pleasant visit with relatives in Moro and vicinity. Mrs B. is a daughter of Mr and Mrs N W Silvers.

Ladies' shirt waists in silk, net, and fine lawns, from 65c to $5 Don't fail to see this, the biggest assortment ever shown in Sherman county. A new shipment just received, Moro Commercial Co.

A G Boesen has finished planting 50 acres of potatoes on the Ragsdale farm, Moro, using a four horse planter purchased of the Moro Hardware and Implement Company.

With his reservoir, wind mill, enduring water supply, new home and modern surroundings, Mr and Mrs Chris Anderson now have about everything needed on this earth for comfort.

The work of taking the census is progressing better than it was thought it could. Enumerators report that many people have answers prepared for them and others have the information ready for them. There will be but few if any overlooked in Sherman county.

According to a Portland paper those celebrated tailors who traveled all the way from London to sell clothing at popular prices in The Rose City, and whose portraits took up so much advertising space in the newspapers, are but myths. The concern is really operated by a Seattle Jew.

Avenarius Carbolineum is a germ destroyer. It destroys the cause of decay in posts or timber. The U S Government, the O R & N Co, Multnomah county and the city of Portland, are making general use of it on bridge timbers, etc. The Observer Book Store is distributors of the pure article in Sherman county.

Oregon now has 44 counties; after the next general election it will have 37. The people are asked to create three more counties at that time—and of course they'll do it.

Sunday was another very warm day here, but the latter part of Monday entertained a nasty, dirty cold western gale, making fires in office and library heating stoves a means of comfort.

Hans Thompson's recent trip to his old home in Denmark furnish him many topics for interesting conversation. He enjoyed every moment of time he was away excepting his stop in London.

Bill Hanley passed up the C S R in a hot, stuffy car on the 17th, in such great hurry to get somewhere that he didn't stop to eat a bite at Shaniko, but just stepped from the train to an auto and was whisked out of sight in a jiffey. Great are the surmises.

Portland is calculating upon enforcement of rules for a safe and sane Fourth of July celebration in spite of the mercenary brigade who care not for death and conflagration so long as they may be able to reap profits from sales of their un-American foreign import of the devilish and destructive fire works. etc.

Goldendale don't want any good roads, Frank; what 're you givin' 'em? They stand now just as The Dalles stood for years; forninst anything but stage coaches and the poor devil of a freighter in the direction of Central and South Eastern Oregon, Baker city and Boise. Those good old moss back days.

A friend who lives in the North End reports that some time ago he got up early to see the comet but was side tracked by an aurora borealis, which started an opposition show earlier in the evening. Thinking he had seen the comet he retired, and now he'd like to know how to proceed to get out an injunction to keep the aurora from butting in? Let the enumerator do it.

Such of our readers as receive alluring invitations to purchase stock in gold mining schemes are referred to 133 Mo. App., in The Journal Co pltff, vs. Nelson, in which the court says: "The evident purpose of its organization was not to mine for gold in the state of Colorado, but to sell stock in the state of Missouri. It was not to be an industrial, but a commercial enterprise."
