When all men are what they pretend to be, jails will be turned down, churches turned into store houses, and policemen become car drivers.

A state inspector for hen houses will next be in order. Tubercular hens have been discovered. Does the egg get into the germ, or does the germ get into the egg?

Mrs Wm Henrichs leaves today for Eugene, where she will be joined by Mrs G E James of Medford, and together they will proceed to Grand Lodge, as representatives of Moro Rebecca degree.

Longfellow's blacksmith of the "spreading chestnut tree" has just died again, though he has been buried a number of times. He is becoming a rival in this way, of the last survivor of the charge of the Six Hundred.

Some of the applicants for space in The Observer columns to dead head private get rich quick schemes are very modest, indeed. One of them this week sent us 'copy' for an article four columns long, and five others aggregated 10 columns. Some of our weakly contents regularly slice the stuff and serve it as editorials.

Several residents of this city and vicinity have seen the comet several mornings of late, rather early we should say, with the naked eye, between Venus and the point of sunrise, several degrees above the horizon. Those who desire to see the display on schedule time should preserve the calendar which will be found in another column of The Observer today.

A billiard sharp down at Rudolfs the other day took The O Man's left lappel in his right hand and said: "I was talking with a friend the other night who said that Halley's comet had a reverse English on it and that if it ever hit the earth it would carom off and make a billiard on Mars." "You talk as if old man Halley was a billiard sharp," I said, and he replied that maybe he was, as he made a star shot.

Spotted fever threatens Yakima towns, on account of an invasion of sage ticks.

Another battleship cruise around the world is planned by Taft. Cut it out. Better spend the money building more fighters.

Another summer drink is called base ball: Half a glass of pop and half a glass of lemonade, mix; garnish with pea nut shells and serve with a palm leaf fan.

Arthur Phillips was up from the John Day river, attending county court and receiving pointers for the benefit of the roads connecting Sherman and Gilliam counties.

Mrs Stiles, Worthy Grand Matron of the O E S, A F A M, paid the fraternity of this city an official visit yesterday. While here Mrs S was the guest of Mrs L Barnum.

Mr and Mrs J F Belshie were in attendance at the organization of the county W C T U last week and incidentally of course, liked around to see that dear little new grandson at Mr and Mrs Roy Benson's.

A Portland student of comets advances the idea that Comet A, 1910 is a fragment of Halley's, cast off in crashing collision with some ethereal body unknown, which accounts for its dimness on the present trip.

Having run short of wheat the flour mills of Salem will have to shut down and go to repairing for the next fall "after harvest" grind. The decline of grain growing in the Willamette valley has put the mills out of business.

Did you ever notice that one important difference between the man who succeeds in business and the man who fails lies in the fact that one man improves every opportunity of letting people know what he has to sell, while the other lets people find out for themselves: if they can?

Avenarius Carbolineum is a germ destroyer. It destroys the cause of decay in posts or timber. The U S Government, the O R & N Co, Multnomah county and the city of Portland, are making general use of it on bridge timbers, etc. The Observer Book Store is distributors of the pure article in Sherman county.

The council of alive and prosperous Eugene has passed an ordinance prohibiting dogs of any kind from running at large on the streets of that city, and fixing a penalty of from $2.50 to $10 for violation of the ordinance. Transients with dogs are exempt from the penalty on the first offense, giving them time to learn about its provisions.

The Moro city council have given official notice to all whom it concerns, that the side walks of the city must be kept in repair at the expense of the property adjoining. Sidewalks that are neglected by the property owners who are thus made responsible for them will be repaired by the city and the expense of the same will be charged against such property owners.

The originals announce that two of their pet schemes at mutilation of popular government in Oregon in the interest of a monstrous, imbecile political ring, viz: the state cabinet and the county commission "form of law;" will not be voted upon at the Nov. election. In withdrawing the obnoxious measures the authors intimate the fear that these would jeopardise some less conspicuous but none the less outrageous measures proposed.

That Yakima valley is at any time in danger of being invaded by an army of sage ticks, bearing spotted fever, and the hookworm disease, is the warning issued by Dr Frank, county health officer, who is conducting an investigation with government officials, into the origin and prevalence of the mite in that section. Specimens of the tick have been forwarded to the authorities at Washington, its identity revealed, and now the health officers are after other specimens for conducting further experiment. The presence of the hookworm disease has been discovered at the Parker bottom, near North Yakima.

The Woodland, Cal., creamery in which our former fellow townsman, C H Belshie is an interested party, last year paid out $447,000 to the farmers for cream. April 14th the Yolo Mail says the creamery turned out 2,338 lbs of butter, surpassing the one day high record of last year by 26 lbs.

Some of us personally may not feel inclined to fall into each others fond embrace, but if we exercise as much business sense as God gives to a newly born gosling, we will pull together in all things calculated to benefit our homes. Let it be understood that Sherman county has passed the mossback and school boy period, and that so long as we, as members of a community, are destined to live together, we should use good sense and labor together for the common welfare.
