FRIDAY...DECEMBER 9, 1910

If you do not read The Observer, why not?

We would like to have you take it, and we know it would be profitable to you to become a subscriber. We send it two years for $2.50; one year $1.50; 12¢ a month isn't much. Try it. Order by postal card, and pay for it when you can.

Church and Society notices FREE, except when for money making purposes. Such notices at regular rates at the option of the publishers.

We will not be responsible for the neglect of subscribers to notify as of changes in their address. Nor will the notification of a Postmaster that the subscriber has "Removed" settle the bill of a delinquent.

Did it ever occur to you that it costs no more to produce printing that is pleasing to the eye than the other kind? The Observer is equipped with all the modern facilities for doing good work at the very minimum of cost. Try us with an order and if it is not executed to your perfect satisfaction you need not pay for it.

Send for advertising rates.

So far as heard from, the initiative in Missouri was not permitted to imitate.

If alive today John W. Forney would classify Teddy Roosevelt a dead duck.

Fortune telling has been prohibited in greater New York, but fortune hunting still has the sanction of the law.

The Dalles apple exhibit at the Rose City show last week took the cash prize of $250 offered by Lewis W. Hill.

Mrs Mary Eddy, discoverer and founder of Christian Science, died at her home in Boston, Saturday night; calmly and peacefully.

Swindlers who depend upon Uncle Sam's postal facilities as the basis of their operations are apt to discover that the bottom has suddenly fallen out.

It may be taken for granted that as long as Diaz is president no rebels will build batteries under the guns of a Mexican fort without smelling powder.

Oregon is scratching its pate now in an effort to find out what it put into the constitution when it voted for the judicial amendment 31 days ago. Keep on thinking.

The democratic majority in the house will not oppose the strengthening of the American navy. In fact, the majority party will need some heavy equipment to cope with Uncle Joe Cannon.

A criminal in Portland acquitted of murder on the plea of insanity, has now been declared sane. A pointer for Cook—whom The Observer denounced with Peary, imposters anent the alleged discovery of the north pole.

Richard Croker don't think a republican tariff is responsible for the high cost of living. The people have so much more today of everything that makes comfort, that even an old Tammany Lion admits the proofs of republican prosperity.

The town of Stanfield is being foreclosed on mortgages for about $50,000. Defendants in the suits are about 80 purchasers of town lots from the Columbia Land Co., of which Dr. H. W. Coe of Portland is the moving spirit. Rufus is still on the map.

Two years hence imitatum and refundum, and other urinal measures in this state, may be investigated more closely than they were one month ago yesterday. The past 30 days shows that the second sober thought is hovering about in many unusual places.

The Dalles Chronicle is now under the management of Messrs Miller, Hopkins and Lithpin; all practical young men, with experience to keep The Chronicle in line with the advancements being made in the pioneer city of the Great Inland Empire of Oregon.

Martin-Deatsman Wedding.

A very pretty wedding took place Sunday, December 4th, at 1.30 p. m., at the farm residence of Mr and Mrs L H Martin, near this city, when their son, Myles Elroy Martin and Miss Hortense Deatsman, of Hicksville, Ohio, were united in marriage by Rev A J Adams. The bride wore a beautiful gown of Crepe deChene, and carried an arm bouquet of white Marguerite Carnations. Her attendant, the bridegroom's sister, Miss Lola Martin, wore pink nuns veiling, and carried pink carnations. The bridegroom was attended by his friend Mr Oscar Franklin of Portland.

The ceremony was performed under a canopy formed of evergreens in the center of which hung a beautiful white bell, trimmed in white chrysanthemums. The room was beautifully decorated in green and white, and pink carnations adorned the drawing room. The wedding march, a selection from Mozart, was played by the bridegroom's cousin, Miss Claudina Martin of Walla Walla. After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served to about 40 friends and relatives. A large number of valuable presents were received. Mr and Mrs Martin will be at home to their friends in Moro after December 25th.

Following is a partial list of the remembrances:

Mr and Mrs BF Morgan, silver knives and forks.
Mr Oscar Franklin, silver desert spoons.

Miss Mildred Coe, silver tea spoons, and flowers and evergreens.

Miss Frances Rutledge, silver cream ladle.

Miss Jessie Norcross, silver cold meat fork.

Miss Lucile Smith, silver souvenir coffee spoon.

Mr and Mrs Joseph Newton silver berry spoon.

Mrs E Coe, silver berry spoon, and gold bowl.

Mr C F Coe, silver pie knife.

Mr and Mrs L Smith, silver souvenir coffee spoon.

Mr and Mrs Roy Benson, silver fruit knives.

Mr and Mrs W J Martin and family, linen table cloth, napkins, and hand-drawn doilies.

Mrs Ellen Buchanan, linen hand embroidered center piece.

Mr and Mrs J Spencer, sugar bowl and creamer, with tray.

Verne Coe, rug; Dell Benson, rug.

Netah and Telva Martin, China cake plate.

Mr and Mrs H U Martin, China salad set.

Mr and Mrs B F Peetz and Mr and Mrs Wm A Norcross, China cake plate and hf doz small China cake plates.

Mr and Mrs Joseph Hendricks, Mission rocker.

Mr and Mrs Harry Benson, framed M Certificate.

Mr and Mrs J M Dunahoo and family, carnations.

Mr and Mrs L H Martin, heater, set of dishes, lace curtains, and bed room furnished.

Miss Lola Martin, hf doz Mission dining chairs.

Mr and Mrs Wallace Jackson, of Hicksville, Ohio, cream ladle.

Mr and Mrs D B Rose, Hicksville, Ohio, sugar shell.

Mr and Mrs Greenawalt, Hicksville, Ohio, gravy ladle.

Mr Short and Miss Pearl Montgomery, Portland, silver berry spoon.

G W Berrian, Mrs Curtis' Cook Book.

Mr and Mrs J R Martin, $5.

That white and black map of the United States, published by the democratic press as an index of the political status of the union is a base fabrication, and does an injustice to Oregon. Little need be said concerning the election in this state. The republican candidates for congress were elected; so also were the Supreme court judges, and the legislative assembly is largely republican. Oregon has deflected from straight republicanism less than most of the states, and is still solidly in the republican column.

So far as President Taft is concerned there will be no extra session of congress after the 4th day of March, 1911. Notwithstanding the threat that the majority in the present house, by holding up the appropriation bills will force an extra session. The business world will not have to wait long for this sort of democratic statesmanship.
