If you do not read The Observer, why not?

We would like to have you take it, and we know it would be profitable to you to become a subscriber. We send it two years for $2.50; one year $1.50; 12½ cts a month isn't much. Try it. Order by postal card, and pay for it when you can.

Church and Society notices FREE, except when for money making purposes. Such notices at regular rates at the option of the publishers.

We will not be responsible for the neglect of subscribers to notify as of changes in their address. Nor will the notification of a Postmaster that the subscriber has "Removed" settle the bill of a delinquent.

Did it ever occur to you that it costs no more to produce printing that is pleasing to the eye than the other kind? The Observer is equipped with all the modern facilities for doing good work at the very minimum of cost. Try us with an order and if it is not executed to your perfect satisfaction you need not pay for it.

Send for advertising rates.

Mr. Garnegie's income is $25,000,000 per annum; understand, this is no rumor.

No state can anticipate all the foolish things its legislature will do before the winter is ended.

Those Ohio preachers who sold their votes should preach a few sermons on the sin of being found out.

The Ballinger investigation is reported to have cost $13,844; does this mean that the price of whitewash has advanced?

If the year 1911 is marked by the absence of political hysteria the people will rejoice and the country will be greatly benefited.

When the Panama canal is finished Uncle Sam may feel for a day or two as if he is without a job, but he can always find plenty to do.

Adams county, Ohio, is the only community in the United States where the exercise of the franchise has developed into an industry.

President Taft may not be much of a politician, but it must be admitted that his chances for a renomination are better than they were 60 days ago.

Americans who have money invested in Cuba could almost be convinced that Uncle Sam would be performing a patriotic duty by annexing the island.

Carnegie has given away $178,300,000 to Rockefeller's $133,731,000; this is one thing that the oil king will have to give attention to during the current year.

The case of Banker Robin has called the insanity experts from their long rest. It will probably be found that Robin is afflicted with a Santa Claus brainstorm.

Since Tennese became a doubtful state it finds what threatened to be a deficit turned into a surplus; it was Tennyson who said, "there is more faith in honest doubt, believe me, than in half the creeds."

Moro Lodge No., 113, I O O F installed the following officers Saturday evening: A R Kensinger, N. G; Geo Lewellen, V. G; Wm Henrichs, Recording Secy; John Foss, Financial Secy; Otto Peetz, Treasurer.

When the insurgent congressmen get the house rules fixed just to suit them, there ought to be no further delay in legislating, and no more fault found with the character of the legislation; some of these days everything connected with congress is going to be perfect.

Two new overland railroads between Argentina and Chilli will be opened by 1913. Two years later the Panama Canal will be in operation, and the South Americans enjoying a new era in passing from ocean to ocean by water or land.

Hon. H. S. McDanel Surprised.

A few of the many friends of H S McDanel gave him a good surprise on Monday January 9th, when they met at the office of B. F. Peetz and presented him with a beautiful loving cup, to show in a small way their appreciation for the 16½ years of faithful and efficient service in the county clerk's office. Mr J M Parry made a short but appropriate presentation speech that will long be remembered by those present. The cup, a beautiful pure silver piece, rests upon a mahogany pedestal about four feet in height, and is appropriately inscribed. Mr McDanel prizes it very highly and it will no doubt occupy a prominent place in his home wherever it may be. Mr McDanel has occupied a position in the clerk's office since July 5th, 1894. Was deputy clerk from that date until 1900 when he was elected clerk which position he has held continuously ever since. No officer ever quit with a cleaner or more honorable record. Mr McDanel will leave in a few days for Portland where he expects to make his future home. He is president of the Gnu Copy Holder Company of that place.

Wm. Holder Dead.

Wm Holder, three times sheriff of Sherman county, died at his home near Paisley Dec. 31st, Death came in the night as he slept, and was unknown to the family until Mrs H entered the room New Year's morning to announce that he was wanted at the phone. Alas, he had gone where a previous summons called him. He was a native of Benton county, Oregon, aged 56 years. Peace be with him.

To Tillamook in July by Railway.

In an interview recently published C E Lytle, manager of the Pacific Railway and Navigation Co, says that there are 29 miles of steel yet to be laid to complete construction of this railway, and the intention is to have the line finished into Tillamook not later than July 1st, 1911; and Charley generally makes good his estimates.

The grading has been done, but there are several small tunnels and bridges to finish. The tunnel work can be done in six or eight weeks and false work is to be put in place of some of the larger bridges, as the permanent structures cannot be finished before October. Mr Lytle says the company has expended $4,000,000 on the road and it will cost at least $700,000 more.

Why Not Let the Clerks do It?

A petition is being extensively signed in Klamath county asking the assembly for a new law creating the office of tax collector, relieving the sheriffs of the various counties of that work. The argument is advanced that the sheriff has enough to do enforcing the criminal laws without acting as tax collector; and so he has. For 15 years past such extra duties have been piling upon county clerks without compensation, until the burden is too heavy to be carried farther without protest, and this is the time to create the new office, and pay the man selected to fill it decent compensation for his work. Oregon is now too well fixed financially to longer bum off from its citizens.

Worth Preserving.

When anyone is taken ill in the night, and needs a quick application of heat, light a lamp. The chimney will be hot in a moment and will answer until water or a brick can be heated; it may be slipped into a stocking leg and applied at once.

Wearing hat pins with unguarded points has been made a misdemeanor in Kansas city; going to try to keep them out of the public eye.

New Year Resolutions.

Resolved, by everybody, that we will follow E W Lewis' example, and burn all the tumble weeds that lodge in our way. Resolved further, that we will cut and destroy all weeds this year before they ripen and go to seed.

CONCERNING THE MOSCOW COMBINE.

The Following Testimonials Concerning This New Harvester Speak For Themselves.

(Testimonials.)

Moro, Ore., Aug. 10, 1910.

I visited the Moscow Combine when it was in operation on the H C Jorgensen farm, and ran it myself for a time, and can say it is a little wonder; it does the best cleaning of any machine I ever saw, and eight horses is all the power they need on any ground in Sherman county. It is operated as easy as a header, and can cut as low as a header.

If I had one of these machines when I was farming, I could have saved from $500.00 to $1,000.00 each year on my harvest bill. Mr. Jorgensen seems to be well pleased with his machine.

Yours truly,
C R BELSHEE,
Manager Moro Livery Stable.

To whom it may concern:

I visited the Idaho harvester, The Moscow Combine, in operation on the Jorgensen farm, and while I am not a machine man, can say that the machine was doing good work. They had eight common sized horses on it and they did not seem to be working hard at all. I examined the ground after the machine had passed on and found no grain wasted. It seems to me that this is the cheapest way for a farmer to harvest his crop. As to the durable qualities of the machine, I will not attempt to say, as I said before, I am not a machine man.

Yours truly,
G E LEWELLEN,

Moro, Ore., Aug. 10, 1910.

To those who will ask about the Moscow Combine, will say I visited the machine at work on the Jorgensen farm two miles north of Rutledge, and at that time they were harvesting beardless barley going 12 sacks to the acre; some of the horses were on the trot and the machine was doing a first class job in every respect. I examined the ground after the machine had passed on, and I found no grain on the ground or wasted. I have run all kinds of harvesting machinery in this county as well as in other counties, and I know what a good job is when I see it, and the Moscow machine is sure a go getter.

Yours truly,
B F SHULL
Farmer.

To whom it may concern:

I visited the Moscow Combine when it was in operation on the H C Jorgensen farm, and can say it was doing as good threshing as any machine I ever saw, and it didn't seem to pull the eight small horses they had on it any harder than a 14-foot header would. I see no reason why a farmer can not make an average of 15 acres per day with a 7-foot cut, as they were driving this one as fast as we used to drive our header when we would make an average of 30 acres per day.
