The O A C graduated 132 men and women this month; 106 were from Oregon, the others represented eleven states and one foreign country.

Dr James Withycombe, director of the U S experiment station at Corvallis has estimated that Oregon will harvest crops of all kinds this year to a total value of 125 million dollars.

The board of directors of the Panama Pacific international exposition which is to be held in San Francisco in 1915, is now wrestling with the tedious work of selecting a site for the great affair.

Oregon state officials will be compelled to issue warrants for $750,000 this year for which there are no funds to pay them. Nearly all this goes to Eugene, Corvallis and Monmouth for "new buildings." Symptoms for higher tax next year.

More intensive farming is necessary and less waste of soil should be one of the farmers mottoes. The time is no more when the farmer, who has destroyed the life of a farm, can afford to go to another section or state and begin anew on fresh soil.

William Randolph Hearst, publisher of newspapers in five of the largest American cities, has decided to establish a daily paper in Portland and, according to an announcement made just prior to leaving for Europe, publication will begin in either September or October.

The new Mexican government has discovered by test that the old Diaz government possessed cartridges in which the powder supply was not sufficient to drive the bullet but half the distance it was figured it should. Diaz friends lost by grafting the wrong government department.

There are people who are mean enough to say Madras has been built on wind; but here is the first proof: The city of Madras is in drilling for water struck an air crevice at the depth of 90 feet that lets the water run in the wrong direction. Another well will be started in a different location.

The way to make money on the farm is not to buy what you do not absolutely need, either for cash or credit. Which is a statement that will bear repeating time and time again and prove itself by the success of your neighbor who follows that principle. Don't get jealous, economize.

A farmer of Danbury, Ill., loved a girl; thought she loved him; blew in $11,812 on kisses in six years at sums ranging from $50 to $600 each. And did not wake up until the girl when asked to name "the day" told him to "go to California; read the Bible continuously; and marry a widow." He sued the girl and her brother, a lawyer, for his money which a jury returned to him.

The railroads, state agricultural college and the business interests are united on a plan to aid Sherman, Gilliam, and Morrow counties in agricultural advancement. A demonstration train will be operated next fall through this section and experts from the state college will explain the possibilities of diversified farming and stock raising in order to build up the soil, although there is no intention to do away with wheat as the principal crop. It is believed, however, that improved methods will conserve moisture in the soil and by growing other things than the single grain as at present, two crops can be had in three years instead of two in four years as at present. Seed will be distributed from the train and prizes offered for the best results obtained by farmers.

The Wells Fargo Express company has froze out and bought up the Pacific Express company's business which had as its head George Gould and which was earning $5,000,000 a year.

Fifteen thousand men, each carrying a bible, are to parade at San Francisco this week. But, of course, most of the bibles are owned outside of that city.

Chicago is now advocating air baths. They are less trouble and don't require so much time as the old fashioned Saturday night kind.

It is a mistake to believe that good little trusts die young, like the small boy we used to read about in Sunday school fiction.

Just because Col. Hofer was not there, North Carolina's fervent prayers for rain were followed by a heavy downpour in Boston.

The fighting spirit of a woman never becomes thoroughly manifest until she engages in a mad effort to swat an elusive fly.

One trouble is that when an old statesman writes his recollections he leaves out a lot of interesting things he wants to forget.

The mosquito has its own peculiarities. It is the only man eater that sings while attending to business.

Many people can remember their first lie, but they have forgotten hundreds they have told since.

Trout are bitin' everything from an angleworm to a piece of red yarn; so it is reported.

Work is the least expensive pastime we have ever found.

A bald headed man can shine anywhere.

Went in Once Too Often.

Dallas Observer: Mayor Simon, like many other smart men of history, went into the game once too often; he couldn't come back.

Protests Makes for Purification.

Evening Journal: It was a good thing for a strong opposition to have been raised against Rushlight. It was good for Mr Rushlight, and good for Portland. Protest always makes for purification. It throws on the spotlight and lights up the paths in which there is danger. It gives the public and officials a view of conditions from all angles.

DeMoss Correspondence.

Ed Larkin is hauling hay for A Hunter.

G W Davis of Kent, visited with A Hunter Sunday.

W C Rees had his new team and buggy out for a spin Sunday.

Crops are suffering for want of rain and farmers are afraid rain is not coming this year in time.

A Hunter was in Gilliam county this week, looking over land with a party from Portland.

Dishonest Eastern Farmers Cinched.

Trade Journal: Three thousand and five hundred "bushel" baskets were burned recently by the commissioner of weights and measures at Wallabout, Market Square, in Brooklyn. Of that number 1,172 were seized by the city, from Long Island farmers and speculators, for failure to contain a full bushel; the baskets were tested at the time of the raid with white beans, and a large number fell as many as ten quarts short of requirements.

It was said by many who watched the blaze that the farmers were only waiting for the city to destroy their property in order to start a suit for recovery of the money they have lost. The commissioner said his department was fully protected by law and backed by the Mayor in the matter. He had given the farmers ample warning.

Hartley-Wall Marriage.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents at Early, Oregon, in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends, when Mr Alford E Hartley and Miss Charlotte E Wall were united in marriage by Rev. S L Clark, of Echo.

The bride is a well known school teacher of Eastern Oregon, who has just completed a successful term at Alder slope. She is the daughter of Geo. Wall, proprietor of a water, power pumping plant and flour mill at Early.

After the ceremony and a sumptuous breakfast, the happy couple boarded the train for Enterprise, where they are to make their future home, the groom being a successful farmer of Wallowa county.

Mr and Mrs Hartley are entering into their new home under the most favorable prospects, and they have the hearty congratulations of their many friends and best wishes for their future happiness and success.

Success is Certain with a Moderate Oven and Crescent (Egg-Phosphate) Baking Powder

Crescent Egg Phosphate Baking Powder raises slowly and evenly and when raised stays in suspension and never falls. The reason of this is because the Phosphate prolongs the action of leavening until the moisture has been absorbed, and the Egg-Albumen sustains the dough. Risen foods made with Crescent Baking Powder do not have to be rushed into the oven. Neither do they require a terrifically hot oven or an oven "doctored" up to the right temperature. On the contrary if a moderately slow oven is used the result is a most delicious, light, digestible and successful baking.
Try a can and see for yourself what a pleasure it is to work with Crescent Baking Powder. Remember that every can is guaranteed to be absolutely pure and wholesome, and to comply with all pure food laws. Order a can from your grocer today at 25c per pound. Made and guaranteed by the Crescent Mfg. Co., Seattle, makers of Mapline, the new flavor.
