

The Observer

MORO, SHERMAN CO., OREGON:

FRIDAY, JUNE 30, 1911

The price of The Observer is $1.50 per year, 75 cents for six months, 50 cents for four months—but if paid in advance we accept $2.50 in full for 2 years. Shorter terms than one year 12 1/2 cents per month.

A Blue Mark here will answer an inquirer, when entered upon our calendar, giving the date of the paper as the date at which your current subscription expires.

Eureka Lodge No. 121.
A. F. A. M. MORO, OR.
Meets the first and third Thursday evenings of each month. Visiting members cordially invited to meet with us. By order of W. M.
J. M. PARRY, Secretary.

Bethlehem Chapter No. 78 O. E. S.
Regular communication each 2d and 4th Thursday evenings monthly. By order of Mrs. ANNA MOORE, W. M.

Moro Lodge, No. 113, I. O. O. F. MORO, OR.
Meeting every Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Visiting members are cordially invited. Members expected to be present.
A. R. KESSINGER, N. G.
W. M. HENRICHS, Secy.

Wilmer Cooper was in the city Saturday.

Program pencils, new lot at the Observer Book Store.

Mrs W A May of Wasco, was visiting at the home of Mrs McCoy this week.

Mrs J B Wheat left Saturday for Lewiston, Idaho, where she will visit her son, E B Wheat.

Mrs Paul Illingsworth, who has been visiting Mrs H Dohly, returned Sunday to her home in The Dalles.

X-County Commissioner A M Wright woke up Friday to the patter of rain on the shingle roof; as the sound had an unusual zip to it, he drove to Moro, coming through Monkland, to see how real it really was.

Birthday Postal Cards at The Observer Book Store.

Call and see the new goods at The Observer Book Store.

The latest and best legal form of promissory note, at The Observer Book Store.

Mrs Perry Axtell left Monday morning for Eugene to visit friends and relatives.

If you want to be up to date subscribe for The Observer. Get your job printing done here.

Dick Patjens cut his left hand, Wednesday, with an ax, nearly toosing all but the thumb.

Geo W Berrian arrived Saturday night from The Dalles with his new E M F four passenger car.

Mules for Sale: 12 head, perfectly gentle, well broke; call on, or address, A E Moretz, Grass Valley, Oregon.

Miss Mary Taylor left for Eugene Monday where she will attend summer normal school during her vacation.

Inks, Red, Blue-black, Jet-black; Violet, Green, and the best quality fountain pen ink at The Observer Book Store.

Stewart Bros passed through Moro this week with their sheep, headed for their summer range in Hood River valley.

Mrs Geo Warfield and boys were guests last week at the home of Mr Schurer and family at Shaniko, returning Monday.

J M Axtell left this week for Eugene, Portland and other cities; J M says he was in Eugene for the 4th last year, and must repeat.

Alex Hunter has closed the deal by which he sold the Dick Patjens' 640 acre farm to J M Taylor, of Klondike. Mr Taylor bought farm and crop, taking possession after harvesting the crop on the farm he had rented near Klondike.

J H Badger is with his old G A R comrades at Ashland this week.

Sheriff Freeman has killed two blind "pigs" during the last thirty days.

John McPherson of Seattle, was visiting his brother, the county clerk, Monday.

Alex Hunter has purchased a Remington typewriter from the Observer Book Store.

A car of R S nut coal was received by H U Martin at the Tuma-lum Lumber yards on the 19th.

Bring your job printing to The Observer office. Neat, attractive work and reasonable prices guaranteed.

F A Says set out a number of cabbage plants the day after the rain as a mark of appreciation to Jupiter Pluvius.

Mrs A O Anderson is visiting relatives and friends at Kent and this city, enroute to Pendleton from Monmouth.

A Dalles druggist calls his latest medicine "Liquid Vacation." It is highly recommended for snake bites, indigestion and fishing trips.

Mrs E E Barzee arrived home Saturday; and now Elmer has lost his job herding the little chicks while the spuds fry for dinner burns.

Mrs Fred Hennagin returned Saturday from Kent accompanied by her sister who is home from her Walla Walla school work during the summer vacation.

Mrs C J Bright of The Dalles, formerly of Wasco, has been honored with election as supreme representative of the Oregon Pithian grand lodge of Rathbone Sisters.

Miss Lelah Cushman has returned home from school at Portland. Misses Gladry and Audrey Watkins accompanied her for a short visit with their Sherman county relatives.

The greatest enigma of modern life is why a man should select a woman out of the whole world and tie her to him by all the bonds of law and Heaven just in order to get away from her evenings.

Wedding invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Christina, daughter of Mr and Mrs R A Murray, to A R Reiman, of Grass Valley, at the family home near Monkland July 2d.

An Astoria hunter has invented an electric light for globe sight shooting at night. The front sight throws light 125 feet and spreads 20 feet; the rear sight shines on both sights. Both or either are controlled by push buttons on the stock.

Frank White and Rudolf Williams who took a pot shot at Conductor Alexander the night of June 21st as his train was passing the John Day water tank, were held to the grand jury Monday after a preliminary hearing before City Magistrate Johnson.

Because of the hobble skirt craze, which did not require as much cloth as older styles, three thousand are out of employment at the mills in one town in Rhode Island. Those who wish to make jumping jacks of themselves by hobble must hurry as the style is on the toboggan.

Taxpayers of Hermiston district have voted a special tax to buy a tract of land laying near the school grounds that will be used as a farm. Competent instructors in agriculture will be secured and all the work of plowing, planting, irrigating, cultivating and harvesting will be done by pupils under direction of instructors.

The smoky haze hanging over Sherman county last week was caused by a grain and pasture fire on land south and west of The Dalles. It started on the Cooper ranch west of that town and burned its way over the mountains to the vicinity of Mosier. About 1000 acres of farm land was burned over before getting into the timber.

One hundred thousand calls are being mailed announcing the sixth annual session and exposition of the International Dry Farming Congress, meeting at Colorado Springs Oct. 16th to 20th. International divisions of the congress, numbering thousands of members, now are organized in Brazil, British South Africa, Austria, Hungary, India, Mexico, and Canada. The ministers of agriculture from ten countries signed the call.

C J Bright was up from The Dalles on legal business Wednesday.

Miss Georgia McKean left Tuesday with her grand parents for Wasco for a return visit.

Prof. and Mrs F E Fagan returned Monday from a visit with relatives at Dufur and The Dalles.

Call at The Observer Book Store for push pins; just the article you need in decorating the walls or your room.

Thurman Lanphir, farming east of Monkland was in Moro Saturday; he reported a fine heavy rain over his neighborhood.

Wednesday at Beaverton near Portland a heavy frost and ice killed potatoes and other vegetables of small truck farmers.

O C Mortensen Saturday sold a span of horses weighing 2630 to a couple of young men farming near The Dalles; consideration $400.

There should be no occasion to borrow the neighbor's silverware now at the White House in case unexpected guests should drop in for supper.

E W Knapp has a fine field of alfalfa started on his farm in the Gormon neighborhood; he sowed five pounds to the acre and has never irrigated the field.

Simon Elcock has deserted the grocery counter at the Moro Commercial Company and hiked to Ashland to be with his G A R comrades at their annual state encampment.

Dr Sanders and daughter Francis arrived home Thursday. The school Miss Francis was attending has closed for the summer vacation period; most of which she will spend in Moro.

Rev J Hatch and wife who have been visiting their daughter Mrs R C Byers, left Tuesday for Forest Grove to be with their son Bert, who had to undergo an operation to remove his right eye.

Four auto loads of Grass Valley friends were in Moro Friday evening as impromptu guests of Mr and Mrs Geo E Lewellen. When leaving a shower of useful household articles surrounded the newly married couple.

Heppner Times: Another good man who has gone to his final reward was W B McCoy, former sheriff of Sherman county, who died one day last week. He was a brave and efficient officer and an exemplary citizen.

Gospel song service at the M E church next Sunday evening; Miss Gilbert will favor us with some of her excellent solos; there will be quartets, duets, and music by the choir and congregation. All are cordially invited. C L Lowther, Pastor.

Pendleton is trying to interest the state railroad commission in a better local rail service between there and Huntington. Local service is enjoyed on the west, as far as Portland and to the north as far as Walla Walla, but east of there are none but through trains, which stop irregularly.

Removal Notice: Huntington & Wilson, of The Dalles, have opened offices in Portland, Oregon, rooms 805-807 Lewis building. Business sent to them from Sherman county through their offices in The Dalles or direct to their Portland address, will receive prompt attention. Portland phone, Main 7536.

The county fair association have had men employed this week moving the grand stand and fence of the city park to the fair grounds. The city donated this to the association and in the future all athletic stunts in this vicinity will be pulled off at the fair grounds; the city park will revert to the people who have held title while the city has been using and renting the park.

Geo Simon is in San Francisco as a delegate to the International Sunday School convention, from Sherman county. A parade of men, estimated at 8000 in number, each bearing a bible formed the most spectacular feature of the convention. One section of the parade consisted of civil war veterans. It needed two cars to deliver the 25 tons of bibles to the convention. After adjournment the bibles will be distributed to the various hotels, so that each room will have one of the books as a part of its equipment.

P H Buxton has taken the agency of E Peoples' Funeral supplies, at Moro.

Frank Kingdon, who was at St. Vincent hospital for an operation on the glands of the throat, is again in Moro.

Miss Amy Kingdon who has been teaching school at Everett, Washington, is visiting with her sister, Mrs Eugene Amidon, during vacation.

Drs O J and Marie M Goffin arrived home Tuesday from their trip to Denver as delegates from Oregon appointed by Gov West to the international medical association meetings held there last week.

Program DeMoss Springs Celebration.

A fine program will be presented by the Pioneers' picnic at DeMoss Springs, July 4th.

The Moro silver cornet band, the DeMoss orchestra, and the golden chimes will play at intervals during the day, in the fine new band stand which is being erected.

Rev. A J Adams of Moro, will deliver the address of the day.

The oration will be delivered by Mr Geo. Mowry, a young orator of much promise.

Rev. Louthier and Rev. Geizler of Moro and Wasco, will take a part in the program.

The national anthem will be sung by a chorus of 50 adult voices, aided by a chorus of children. There will be recitations, vocal solos, duets, ladies quartette, male quartette, and a violin solo by Master Elbert DeMoss, the 6-year old violinist.

A very attractive feature of the day will be the baby show; two prizes will be given, one for the baby under one year old, and one for the baby over one year old and under two years of age. Each mother entering baby's name for the prize will be presented with a picture of the baby free. For particulars address Mrs Strahl at Moro.

A very interesting base ball game between the Wasco Cougar Cats and the Moro Lions.

The sports will consist of funny clown, foot races, sack races, horse races, hurdle races, climbing greased pole, hoop races, barrel races, jumping, vaulting, automobile races, etc.

There will be a display of fireworks in the evening.

Committees are as follows: Program: Mrs N P Hansen, J P Strahl, Geo DeMoss.

Sports: Geo Berrian, J C Hockman, E A Medler, B F Peetz, Roy King.

Automobile: L Barnum.

Marshal of the day, J C Freeman.

Everybody invited. No admission charged and no collection taken on the ground. Bring your dinner, or get a lunch at the lunch counter.

There will be several amusement concessions on the grounds, the merry-go-round, confectionary stands, hot tomatoes, and Spanish delicacies, and plenty of pure spring water.

There will be a special rate on the railroad of one and one-third fare for the round trip, on any point on the O-W-R & N July 2d, good to return on July 5th. Camping ground free, or good hotel accommodations at Moro or Wasco only 10 or 20 minutes auto ride from DeMoss Springs park.

NIGHTS OF UNREST

No Sleep, No Rest, No Peace for the Sufferer from Kidney Troubles.

No peace for the kidney sufferer—Pain and distress from moria to night. Get up with a lame back, Twinges of backache bother you all day, Dull aching breaks your rest at night, Urinary disorders add to your misery. Get at the cause—cure the kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills are for the kidneys only—

Have made great cures in Moro. P. F. DeMoss, of Moro, Oregon, says: "I am just as willing to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills at this time as I was several years ago when I gave a public statement in their praise. A too frequent desire to pass the kidney secretions, especially at night caused me no end of annoyance and I was very anxious to get relief. When an acquaintance, who had taken Doan's Kidney Pills with benefit, advised me to try them, I did so, procuring my supply at the Moro Pharmacy. This remedy brought prompt relief and corrected the difficulty in a short time. I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills since then and they have always benefited me."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

NOW IS THE TIME

To get that new Insurance Gasoline stove. New stock just arrived. Have them in different style burners.

A COMPLETE STOCK

of Hose, Nozzels, Lawn Mowers, and Garden Tools and Seeds now on hand.

Come in and listen to the new Phonograph Records for May.

MORO HARDWARE & IMP. CO.

MORO BRANCH

TUM A LUM LUMBER CO.

H. U. MARTIN, Manager.

WOOD - COAL - POSTS

Lumber, Cement and Lime, Windows, Doors, Moulding.

Special prices on Wood in car load lots where one or more are buying.

Independent Warehouse & Milling Co

R. H. McKean, Manager, Wasco, Oregon

DEALERS IN

Lime, Plaster, Cement, Builders Supplies, Lumber, Wood, Coal, Cedar Posts, and Hay.

MANUFACTURERS OF

MILL FEED AND FLOUR.

CLOSING OUT BARGAIN SALE

In order to close out my entire stock of goods I am selling everything at and below wholesale cost.

L. W. ROSS, Wasco, Oregon.

GUARANTEED PLUMBING

GEORGE MILLER

The well known workman will attend to all calls direct or by phone for

PLUMBING, STEAM FITTING, ETC.

Now prepared with a complete kit of tools to attend all calls for plumbing, etc. in the country. Have you seen our Steel Watering Troughs? If not take a look and order one.

Shop on Main St. Moro, Oregon.

CLARKE-NEWHOUSE JEWELRY CO.

JEWELERS AND OPTICIANS

The Dalles, Oregon.

Agency For the Kryptok Lens

The most remarkable, recent, eye resting, far and near vision optical lens. No cement to cloud the lens, collect dirt or disfigure appearance. And prices reasonable.

1776 GRAND 1911

CELEBRATION

TWO DAYS, JULY 3 & 4

GRASS VALLEY, OREGON.

Patriotic Music on the Fourth by WASCO CORNET BAND Twenty Talented Musicians

ORATIONS BY POPULAR SPEAKERS

On 3d Sports, Base Ball, Entertainment in Evening

Literary Exercises in a Nice Shady Grove

Band Music, Singing, Recitations, Etc.

On Evening of the 4th There will be an All Night Dance Music By a Good Orchestra.

Base Ball Game on the 3d and 4th Between Moro and Grass Valley for a purse of $160.00.