If you do not read The Observer, why not?

We would like to have you take it, and we know it would be profitable to you to become a subscriber. We send it two years for $2.50; one year $1.50; 12¢ a month isn't much. Try it. Order by postal card, and pay for it when you can.

Church and Society notices FREE, except when for money making purposes. Such notices at regular rates at the option of the publishers.

We will not be responsible for the neglect of subscribers to notify as of changes in their address. Nor will the notification of a Postmaster that the subscriber has "Removed" settle the bill of a delinquent.

Did it ever occur to you that it costs no more to produce printing than it does to the eye than the other kind? The Observer is equipped with all the modern facilities for doing good work at the very minimum of cost. Try us with an order and if it is not executed to your perfect satisfaction you need not pay for it.

What makes the busy little fly Now flit from spot to spot?
Because he knows if he remains Some one is sure to swat.

A wife-to-be made her intended husband get off the water wagon in Portland before she married him. He drives a street sprinkler.

A Missouri editor says "the only thing that keeps him from having an automobile is the fact that we haven't a blame thing to mortgage."

Remember that the hot weather and hard work tax the strength of your wife. She will enjoy going to town with you and the ride home in the evening.

A Gulfport, Mississippi, woman claims the world's record for twins, having given birth to five pairs, a total of ten children within a period of eight years.

A Seattle woman real estate dealer is out $300 as a result of high street car steps and a seam bursting in her stocking bank, scattering gold and currency over the pavement.

The modest little wife often con-fides to her husband that she never could figure out how he came to select her from so many beautiful women, but was down deep in her heart she is certain he made a wise choice.

Gov West has named a commission of prominent men from all parts of Oregon to assist in preparing good roads legislation to come before the people at the next election. H W Strong received the appointment to represent Sherman county.

The harvest season is the most trying of the year. There is so much to be done; so little time to do it, and so few hands for the work. Have a care lest too much is attempted and too great burden placed upon the wife and daughter. Asylums and sanitariums are filled with men and women who are broken from over work.

Husband raffles are the latest in Philadelphia church fairs; two young women each won a hubby June 24th. Neither knew who was up until after the drawing.
One declared, after inspection, she would not marry a man she could get for ten cents. The other found she had 200 pounds of beef to dispose of and she refused the proposition as too heavy; later she reniged and took her winning.

A Pittsburg chemist claims to have discovered the kissing germ, a microbe peculiar to women, particularly. He claims to be able to tell by a microscopic examination of a tiny portion of saliva from a woman's lips whether she has ever been kissed by a man and approximately how often. Any woman who will send in a tea cup that has touched the lips can now ascertain if her husband has been kissing other women.

President E E Lytle, of the railroad building from Hillsboro to Tillamook, has officially set September 1st as the date for opening the road, and the people in that corner of the state will have a big celebration when the first train reaches Tillamook bay from Portland. If it were not for the courage of Mr Lytle Sherman and south Wasco counties would have no rail connections at this time. He built the Columbia Southern on a shoe string, but the resulting business justified the venture and also pioneered the way for what central Oregon now has in railroads.

Washington farmers believe the government wheat crop statistics for Oregon, Washington and Idaho, of 55 million bushels, half coming from Washington, is too low. They claim that Washington will ship five million bushels more than the figures the government gives all three states.
Whitman county, Washington has a better crop now than last year, and for that year the railroad freight sheets show 13,500,000 bushels, which tends to prove the farmers side as nearer correct.

Henry Myers in 1910 traded his Wasco farm property to G F Barrington for city property in Portland; later he traded that for three acres of chicken ranch, without seeing them, located well up toward Mount Hood, many miles from any railroad, and covered by stumpage and a great solitude.
Myers brought suit to recover his city property; winning by getting a court order canceling the last trade.

A crew grading for a side-track at Fargo, near the mouth of Buck Hollow, on the Des Chutes Ry have discovered an old Indian battle ground. Nineteen skulls, a large number of elk teeth, beads buttons, etc, have been picked up.
A spool of thread, with the thread rotted, and a thimble have also been found.

Work on the county fair association grounds has been suspended for this season. A H Barnum and L L Peetz are entitled to much praise for their skillful management of the work, while those who so generously donated time, money and teams are deserving of a vote of thanks from Sherman county.

A new industry has been started near Gresham, where a Japanese woman has a thriving colony of silk worms that she has raised from imported cocoons. The worms are now spinning their silk and will soon develop to the butterfly stage.

News Notes from Gorman Section.

N E Moffet of this neighborhood has sold 16 head of work horses for $3500.

Wm Reid has stopped work on his 95-foot dug well on his homestead and no water.

M D McDonald has two men helping him sink his well deeper; water was getting scarce.

E W Knapp, when weeding his ten acres of alfalfa, found five plants of russian thistle; the first found here. The weed doubtless came with the alfalfa seed.

Frank Shumaker hitched onto his header to cut some hay and his horses were not very moderate so it resulted in a broken header and a trip to town for repairs.

Miss Addie Brownlee has returned home to the McCoy place after spending several days at the rose festival in Portland, and visiting in Goldendale and other places in the valley.

Five hundred acres of fall sown wheat on the Moffet place is more tender than wheat and only a small per cent will pay to cut.
This week they intended to cut some for hay, but that glorious rain stopped them.

Home Wedding Sunday Noon.

A very pretty home wedding took place at the comfortable home of Mr and Mrs R A Murray, thirteen miles north east of Moro, when their daughter Miss Christina Murray became the bride of Mr Arthur R Rebmam of Grass Valley, Sunday July 2d, 1911, at high noon.

Rev. A J Adams of the Moro Presbyterian church performed the ceremony in the presence of immediate relatives and few near friends of the family. The bride was becomingly gowned in white and carried a bouquet of white carnations; the groom was clad in conventional black. After congratulations had been extended an excellent wedding breakfast was served and enjoyed by all.

The young couple will visit at Eugene with relatives of Mr Rebmam before returning to their home near Grass Valley where they will be at home to their many friends after July 15th.

Camping Party at Colling Spring

Wednesday morning a jolly party of young people left Wasco for a fishing and camping visit to Colling Springs. The party include the Misses Mary, Bessie, Frances Tate, Dae and Floye Clodfelter, Edna Stiffel, Moree and Oliver Gollhier, Jeannette and Newton Crossfield. Mrs Geo N Crossfield and Mrs Chas Gollhier accompany them.

What Other Papers Say.

Heat your knife before cutting hard soap.

Wet a cloth with a bit of soda on it to clean up the grease spots on your kitchen floor.

In making cake with fruit in it, beef suet and butter, half and half, is better than all butter.

Glue pieces of felt or pieces of old rubber to the bottom of the chair legs, and there will be no scratched floors and less noise.

Put a few grains of rice into your salt shakers. They will break the lumps, gather the moisture and make the salt come out freely.

An emergency glue may be made of rice. Boil a handful of rice in water until it is a thick fine paste. Very good for pasting white paper.

When a ham or smoked tongue has been boiled, try plunging it in cold water as soon as removed from the fire; this will make the skin come off easily and smoothly.

String beans cut with a pair of sharp scissors, on a slant, instead of straight across, will cook more quickly if one happens to be pressed for time. This may seem a notion, but try it, and you will find the beans will cook quicker than when broken straight across.

To keep moles from a bed, sink a close-mesh wire netting a foot wide into the soil around, allowing it to extend about two inches above the surface. If you have no netting, use boards. Either will prevent the entrance of moles into the bed.

REDUCED RAILROAD FARES

National Educational Association, San Francisco July 8-14.

For parties desiring to attend the above meeting, a special round trip of one and one-third fare has been made by the Oregon-Washington Railroad and Navigation Company from all points on its lines in Oregon, Washington and Idaho. Tickets on sale June 22d, and July 1st and 6th. With going limit July 10th, and final return limit Sept. 15th, 1911. Stopovers allowed at Portland and south thereof within going and returning limits. Choice of routes via steamer from Portland at slightly reduced fares.

For more detailed information, fares, etc, call on any local agent of the O-W-R & N Co.

Birthday Postal Cards at The Observer Book Store.

J H Sherwood purchased a cow Wednesday from C G Huls.

The residence at Mosier which O A Ramsey has under contract is so near completed as to allow his giving this city a short visit last week.

Members of the Eastern Star lodge, last Thursday at the residence of ex-mayor L Barnum, entertained in honor of Mr and Mrs Geo Lewellen.

Howard Belchee is able to be up again after a shake up received when a horse he was riding fell and rolled over him at the Lowe farm east of Moro.

A handy way to remove pies and cakes from a hot oven is to use a common shingle. Cut away the thick end into the shape of a handle, bore a hole in it and keep the shingle hanging behind the stove.

C E Sheets and family, accompanied by C L Montgomery, were visitors at Rufus the 25th where they were treated to a trout dinner at the home of C H Tom.
The party made the trip with Mr Sheets' auto.

MISPLACED AFFECTION.

Tragic Story of a Snake Charmer and Her Pet Reptile.

Miss X., a snake charmer well known among show people, firmly believed that she of her snakes was really fond of her. She could do anything with it—fondle it, kiss and caress it.

She grew so fond of it that at last she even let it sleep on her bed, to the great disgust of the other performers in the show. She would eat her meals with this horrible thing coiled around her neck, and once, in very warm weather, she took it under her coat into the woods with her and let it amuse itself by crawling over the ground. She followed it about and kept a most careful watch over it as a valuable performer, but it showed no disposition to go off into the woods, as she feared it might, but came back to her and coiled round her as usual.

She was warned several times that the reptile was very dangerous, but she grew more and more reckless, and the snake appeared to become more and more attached to her.

And then one day without any warning, directly after a performance when she was caressing it in her own room, the snake suddenly threw back its head, looked at her steadily and with lightning-like swiftness struck her between the eyes, leaving two tiny punctures. She hastily uncotiled it and thrust it into its box, but she died within half an hour.—McClure's Magazine.

A HASTY MARRIAGE.

And the Bride Was Not the One the Wooer Sought.

Oliver Cromwell was so great a man that he dwarfed his surroundings, and it is singular how little the majority of people knew about the family and family life of this "the most typical Englishman of all time." He had three daughters, the youngest of whom was Frances. Her attractions must have been considerable. The young woman had several love affairs, but certainly the one that had a most amazing termination was her flirtation with her father's chaplain, Jerry White.

One day the protector surprised Jerry on his knees in the very act of kissing the lady's hand. Cromwell coldly demanded the meaning of the scene, and Jerry, with a pretty wit, exclaimed that he had long been courting "that young gentlewoman, my lady's woman," although without success. He was now thereby humbly praying her ladyship to intercede for him.

Cromwell turned at once to the waiting woman and requested to be informed why she refused the honor his friend, Mr. White, would do her. The young woman, fully equal to the occasion, replied magnanimously that if Mr. White intended her that honor she would not be so churlish as to deny him. "Call Godwin," returned Cromwell, and the pair were married straightway.

The Doctor—Is your wife a good sleeper, Mr. Stubb?
Stubb—Yes; pretty good.

The Doctor—Does she go to sleep as soon as she touches the pillow?
Stubb—Well—she goes to sleep as soon as she touches my vest pocket.

NIGHTS OF UNREST

No Sleep, No Rest, No Peace for the Sufferer from Kidney Troubles.

No peace for the kidney sufferer—Pain and distress from morn to night.
Get up with a lame back, Twinges of backache bother you all day, Dull aching breaks your rest at night, Urinary disorders add to your misery.
Get at the cause—cure the kidneys.
Doan's Kidney Pills are for the kidneys only—

Have made great cures in Moro.
P. P. DeMoss, of Moro, Oregon, says:
"I am just as willing to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills at this time as I was several years ago when I gave a public statement in their praise. A too frequent desire to pass the kidney secretions, especially at night caused me no end of annoyance and I was very anxious to get relief. When an acquaintance, who had taken Doan's Kidney Pills with benefit, advised me to try them, I did so, procuring my supply at the Moro Pharmacy. This remedy brought prompt relief and corrected the difficulty in a short time. I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills since then and they have always benefited me."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

An Unknown Tongue.

A young man just returned from college was out cycling one day when suddenly he came to a steep gradient.
While he was descending he lost control of his machine and was thrown.

Two men came and found him lying in that predicament. When asked how it happened he replied, "Well, I came down that decline with the greatest velocity and lost my central gravity and was precipitated on the hard macadamized road."

"A way, lad; let him alone," replied one of the men. "He's a foreigner."

Plagiarism.

Nothing is sillier than this charge of plagiarism. There is no sixth commandment in art. The poet dare help himself wherever he lists—wherever he finds material suited to his work. He may even appropriate entire columns with their carved capitals if the temple he thus supports be a beautiful one.
Goethe understood this very well, and so did Shakespeare before him.—Hetirich Helms.
