J W Clark of Kent, was in the city Friday. John is nursing a sore thumb, caught under a watering trough he was lifting at his farm.

Miss Neita Martin presented this office with a choice bouquet of roses Saturday; one, a Mission rose, measuring 12 inches in circumference.

The heavy rain June 30th at Wasco and north in this county, reached west and south to the F A Sayers farm in the shape of a small cloud burst.

J P Yates and wife, nee Miss Casha Murray, are at home now in Wasco. They had an enjoyable trip, going to Puget Sound and British Columbia.

Sunday evening Mrs W C Bryant was severely bruised at milking time by the family cow while trying to protect the little boy who had wandered into the stall where the cow was waiting her evening feed.

Attorney W C Bryant was an honored visitor the 3d and 4th at Fall City, Polk county. At a celebration the 3d when that city first put water through the new water-pipes Mr Bryant made the principal address; and at the 4th of July celebration Mr Bryant was the orator of the day.

W S Barzee has sold the Locust Grove farm, five miles west of Wasco, to F G Warner of Portland, Oregon. This tract of land, consisting of 606 acres, is one of the best improved farms in Sherman county. Consideration $25,000. Mr Warner will take possession in October. The deal was negotiated through the office of J R Kaseberg, 305 Lewis building, Portland, Oregon.

Republican: The minstrels, under the management of J M Busby, was here Saturday night and their fine large tent was crowded with people who enjoyed the entertainment. They have a good band and give a clean show. Mr Busby is a gentlemanly fellow and his performers are colored people who behave well out of the tent and their acting in the tent is all that is claimed for it. It is worth the money if you enjoy laughing and who does not? The company will be at Moro Tuesday night, July 11th.

J M Parry has been elected a delegate by the state encampment G A R to the national encampment at Rochester, N Y, August 21 to 26. Mr Parry enlisted at that city October 1861, in battery L. 1st N Y light artillery when that company was organized, and served in the army of Potomac until October 1864. His company hold an annual reunion each year, and it pleases Mr Parry's comrades to send him as national delegate to his boyhood home in time to attend this year's reunion of his company.

A C Crowther of Klondike had a narrow escape from serious injury Friday noon June 30th at the neighboring farm of Will Dingle. Two others besides Mr C. were riding in a hack and at a sharp turn were thrown out; the others managed to get clear but Mr Crowther fell on a slope and rolled under the team and hack, both going over him. One of the lines broke and the other caught, causing the team to circle; as Mr C. was unable to get up because of the bruises received, it was hard for him to roll away from the rig each time they made the turn. After several minutes the team was stopped; repairs made, and Mr C. continued the ride.

The team Frank Peddicord drove to DeMoss from Klondike Tuesday took fright at firecrackers and autos as they finished the drive; one horse jumped and fell, before the harness could be removed it died. The team belonged to W S Deaton.

An exchange says the J M Busby minstrels put up an excellent performance, especially the dancing, while the old time minstrel songs delighted the audience. They carry a fine band and are a tuneful, musical, talented crowd. At Moro Tuesday night, July 11th.

Mrs S A McCoy and family.

Arrested Accused of Horse Thieving.

Sherman county is to be congratulated in having J C Freeman for sheriff. Every time he has been called upon to play detective he has hit the mark. W C Todd has recovered 14 of the 15 head of horses stolen from his pasture and the other is lying dead in Wasco county. Sheriff Freeman has two prisoners, Fred Willis and Albert Hill, who are supposed to know more of the case than they should. They were given a preliminary hearing Monday before Justice Simon, and bound over to appear before the grand jury, bonds being fixed at $1500 for Hill and $2000 for Willis. Hill furnished the necessary bond, Willis being unable to get bond was remanded to jail.

Oregonian, Saturday, June 30: It is alleged that these men have been operating up and down the DesChutes river for several years, but the evidence against them had not been sufficient for their conviction. Settlers in that section are up in arms and seem to have just awakened to the fact that the disappearance of their stock has not been accidental. The accused men are owners of real estate on the DesChutes river.

Basket Meeting at DeMoss Springs.

The Methodist churches of Sherman county will hold a basket picnic at DeMoss Springs, Sunday July 16th.

Dr Granvill Lowther, of North Yakima, will preach at 11 o'clock; the ministers of Wasco, Moro and Grass Valley will take part in the program during the day.

Afternoon services beginning at 1:30. All are cordially invited to attend these services. Bring your dinner and stay all day.

The Fourth at DeMoss.

The reporter for the Observer could only be at one place on the Fourth, which happened to be the DeMoss Pioneers' Picnic.

It was warm, but not too much for the 900 people gathered in the grove to visit with each other and listen to the excellent musical and literary program.

We heard a number of remarks complimentary anent the oration of Attorney Geo Mowry; taking for his theme "The Plain People; what they are; what they do; and how." Those who did not hear the exposition of those pithy remarks missed an inspiration to be even a better citizen.

The baby show was turned over to Ed Merrill of Wasco, W A Raymond and Fred L Derby of Moro as judges who proceeded to show how much bachelors know about babies by awarding first prize for those under twelve months old to Dorance Axtell, the eleven months old youngster of Mr and Mrs Roy Axtell; prize a baby's toilet set. First prize a cup for those under two years and over one year to Majory Dingle, daughter of Mr and Mrs Will Dingle, of Klondike. One of the ladies after the baby show told Mr Raymond that she "never liked bachelors any way" and Will A said that he "agreed with her."

Voting at the last was spirited as to the most popular young lady of Sherman county who should receive the watch offered by the management. Finally Miss Bessie Tate won the honor and prize.

One of the big events of the day was the arrival from Wasco of the Holt Caterpillar and its road wagon train of five wagons carrying a big crowd to the picnic from that city.

At lunch time the grove was one immense leafy banquet hall where all joined in to regale the inner "pusson." Some swiped some one's lunch, but it was not intentional and general good feeling prevailed all the day.

J W Case did an excellent oil painting, during the afternoon of Mt Hood from Lost Lake. It was interesting to watch the transposition of white canyas to finished picture in a short hour.

The DeMoss Pioneers Picnic is more firmly than ever an established annual custom in Sherman county.

Try the Observer $1.50 a year.
