MARTIN-KUNSMAN WEDDING.

Two Well Known Moro Young People Embark Upon Life's Journey.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the Moro Methodist Episcopal church Sunday, March 3d, 1912, at one o'clock when Miss Lola Beatrice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Martin, and Mr. Irvin Elwood Kunsman were joined in the bonds of matrimony by Rev. A. J. Adams of the First Presbyterian church in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

Immediately preceding the ceremony Mrs. Don Wheat sang in charming voice a selection entitled "If I had a thousand lives to live I would live each one for you." As the last echoes of the solo were growing faint Mrs. G. E. Lewellen began the wedding march and the bridal party entered the body of the church from the class room adjoining. The bride, leaning on the arm of her father, and attended by her maid of honor advancing by the right aisle while the groom attended by his best man and preceded by the officiating minister proceeded by the left aisle to the altar. The church decorations were of smilax; a large white bell being suspended directly over the wedding party.

The bride was becomingly gowned in an over dress of white crepe de chine over cream silk; her veil being held in place by a beautiful wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white carnations and lilies of the valley.

The maid of honor, Miss Allie Huls, carried pink carnations and was gowned in pink albatross.

The groom wore the conventional black, relieved by a boutonniere of orange blossoms, and was accompanied by his brother Mr. Roy Kunsman.

After the ceremony dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents.

The happy couple will be at home, during the summer, to their many friends at the farm home east of Moro.

MAY PROVE FATAL

When Will Moro People Learn The Importance of It?

Backache is only a simple thing at first; But when you know 'tis from the kidneys:

That serious kidney troubles follow; That diabetes, Bright's disease may be the fatal end.

You will gladly profit by the following experience.

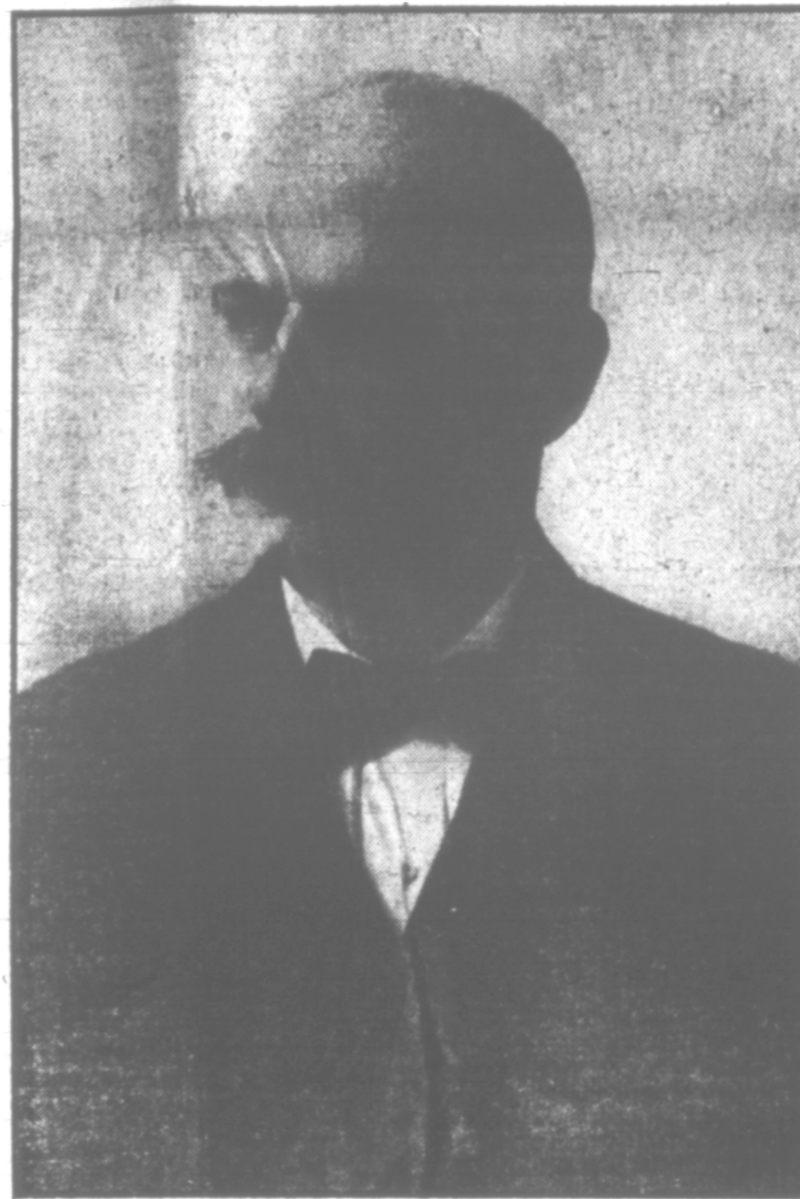

The statement of a Moro citizen.
F. P. DeMoss of Moro, Oregon, says: "I am just as willing to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills at this time as I was several years ago when I gave a public statement in their favor. A too frequent desire to pass the kidney secretions, especially at night, caused me no end of annoyance and I was very anxious to get relief. When an acquaintance who had taken Doan's Kidney Pills with benefit advised me to try them, I did so, procuring my supply at Moro Pharmacy. This remedy brought prompt relief and corrected the difficulty in a short time. I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills since then and they have always benefited me."
