One of the hardest jobs a sense of humor has, is to counteract the doleful influences of a liver that isn't working right.

When a sausage maker begins to kick somebody's hind' around' the canine may well think the worst is yet to come.

Dr Anna Shaw objects to the sea law which says women and children first. Dr Shaw is a suffragist, not a clinging vine.

Geo Simon has an arch over his farm front gate upon which he intends to paint the name of his farm in the Rutledge settlement.

If science is not wrong the female mosquito is deadlier than the male, does all the biting and sings as it goes about seeking whom it may devour.

Roads are fine now.

Songbirds are on the increase; fortunately is the feathered kind.

W H Burris has one of the Best combine harvesters for sale or trade. See adv.

To miss none of the beauties of the world one must get up with the sun these mornings.

The quality of mercy may not be strained, but sometimes its dispensation is badly twisted.

Miss Eliza Morrison has the thanks of The Observer family for an elegant bouquet of flowers.

No matter what a man's life may have been, there are many things he is never prepared for—triplets.

The worst thing about reading a good novel is that you feel as if you had lost an old friend when it is finished.

The Ladies Aid of Moro M E Church spent Thursday with Mrs Walter Ruggles at her home in the country.

Hoodriver boy scouts knew just what to do in a drowning case and saved the lives of two comrades last week.

Mrs M H Rust returned from Boyd and Dufur Saturday and is reported much improved under Dr Dodds' treatment for cancer.

Indiscriminate sale of firearms to epileptics, insane and other irresponsibles has again shown what a menace to society it really is.

If you are thinking of repapering your house, don't fail to see that fine line of wall paper samples just received at Case's paint store.

Eastern board of health says suck a lemon after kissing a girl. But tell us what should a young man do when he finds he has kissed the lemon?

A Kansas farmer advertises for a good milker who will not swear at the cows. We must accept this as still further evidence that the world is growing better.

Sheriff J C Freeman was a visitor Saturday, we call him such because his business calls him from home so much; and The O. Man took pleasure in showing him about the city.

Now that Moro has lots of water to spare for locomotives, tanks, lawns, etc., why not fix up the street sprinkler and lay the dust? Just think over it and pull the old wagon out.

If we didn't have dark and gloomy days occasionally we couldn't fully appreciate the beautiful sunshine. A man who has been everlastingly broke appreciates a dollar more than a rich man does a hundred.

Elwood Thompson is probably crippled for life, because of an accident throwing him off a high trestle near his Trout Lake farm home where he was assisting in the work of reconstructing a bridge.

W F Spencer and T B Lawrence, farming the Evening Shades Farm, pitted several hundred bushels of potatoes last fall which comes in handy now to relieve the spud famine and aid their bank account.

LaDru Barnum has received some genuine maple sugar, direct from Burlington, Vermont, by the courtesy of the Burlington Trust Co., and from our acquaintance with the sweetness from sap to sugar we pronounce it 100 per cent pure. Thanks to Mrs Barnum for samples of it.

"Do not overlook the county fairs. They form the pivot in the development of the northwestern states agriculturally. They are the great clearing houses for the big land products and live stock shows as well as all state fairs." This is the keynote which Louis W Hill, president of the Great Northern railway has sounded and which will be taken up with a vim when the northwest development league meets at Seattle in June.

Any one wanting good dairy animals, either cows, bulls, or young stock in Holstein, Jersey, or Shorthorn, should communicate with A Rose, agent O-W-R & N Co at Moro. The railroad company has been advised that private parties are to ship in some registered and grade stock from the east and want to find people who wish an animal or two so they can make earload shipments.

The railroad company has no other interest in this matter; if you have, see A Rose before May 25th, at least.

If you want a good 2d hand combine see R W Pinkerton.

A. C. Sanford's Opal Park Place.

Metolius E. O.: A C Sanford, formerly engaged in merchandising at Madras, is now residing on his farm 10 miles south of Metolius. Mr S is the owner of a number of highly productive farms but is now engaged in the poultry business, and plans for increasing his flocks steadily, and devoting his entire time to the industry. After much investigation he decided upon R I Reds and Black Langshans as the best breeds of chickens; he has erected extensive poultry houses on his Opal Prairie Farm, and is getting things into shape to handle the venture on a large scale, and to the best possible advantage. Mr Sanford bought the farm about two years ago and says it is especially adapted to the raising of poultry and fruit; he is no novice in the poultry business, and will no doubt make a success of the undertaking; there is an orchard on the place with apple, peach and plum trees in bearing, the peach trees last year yielding heavily.

Don't be surprised if you have an attack of rheumatism this spring. Just rub the affected parts freely with Chamberlain's Liniment and it will soon disappear. Sold by all dealers.
