Meeting every Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Visiting members are cordially invited. Members expected to be present.
ROY BENSON, N. G. WM. HENRICH, Secy.

P. H. Buxton has taken the agency of E. Peoples' Funeral supplies, at Moro.

Big crops or poor crops, Crosfield has stuck right at his post. Rush in your orders for extras.

Mr and Mrs Howard Conlee are visiting friends and relatives in Portland and other points in the valley.

They call an eastern resort Passaconaway. What an ideal place to pass the time away and also pass the coin away.

Don't fail to see the Blue Bell Cream Harvester made by the McCormack Co. for sale by Geo N Crosfield, Wasco.

L. L. Peetz has a full blood Jersey Bull at Pleasant Grove Farm, one of the Ladd herd, that tips the scales at 1,700 pounds.

The premium list of the Oregon State Fair for 1912 is now ready. For a copy of it address the secretary, at Salem.

Just received, a full line of extras for McCormack headers and binders; extras for all kinds of machinery secured on short notice. Ginn & Coleman, Moro.

John Scott Mills, special writer for the publicity department of the OWR & N Co, stopped over a day in Moro on his return trip from Central Oregon.

J. O. Thompson bought a very handsome filly of fine color, out of the Durbin band of horses passing through this city for The Dalles last week.

Court week has brought the folks of Sherman county together at Moro in numbers; that, and the fact that spring work is about all done up, and the rains gave us fully good roads.

A romance of real life: The average fish story.

Birthday Postal Cards at The Observer Book Store.

McCormack Header Drapers and extras. See Crosfield, Wasco.

Charley Dickman skidded through the county from Culver in an auto last week.

Mrs Thorne of Portland is a guest of her granddaughter, in this city, Mrs LaDru Barnum.

A man may not be hungry, but big fat strawberries and whipped cream will often tempt him to the festive board.

What has become of the old-fashioned strawberry that suffered from elephantiasis, about three of which filled a dish?

Mr and Mrs W. H. Moore made a very pleasant visit in Sherman county with relatives and friends guests of Mr and Mrs E. A. Cushman this week.

Readers will find our advertisers up to date this week; in looking them over do not overlook what Ginn & Coleman have to say concerning machinery and autos.

Notice what the Newberg real estate firm of W. E. White & Co have to say to you in another column. J. W. Dunahoo is one of the firm, he and E. W. were pioneers in Sherman county.

J. A. McNeil is with us again to help out the biggest harvest of 13 years. Mack wintered in Tulare county, California, with the wild geese and other game birds of the Oregon country.

When a nation of over 90,000,000 goes into committee of the whole on stamping out flies and mosquitoes the insect world will discover that this country is beginning to think in trillions.

Why don't you send in your Holt extras orders? Crosfield is ready for you.

Hyd's harness shop has the agency for an elastic coating to be applied to metal roofing, shingles, pipes, gutters, or any iron or tin you wish to protect from the weather; prevents rust, and will not crack.

The government has joined in the crusade against loan sharks that is being waged in a number of the states. A bill aimed at them has passed both houses of congress and is now the subject of consideration in conference committee with certainty of enactment and approval by President Taft.

Martin Hansen and L. L. Peetz took two car loads of fat hogs to Portland last week, which sold at eight at the top-notch price $8.40 per cwt. The hogs were the product of Pleasant Grove Farm and Hansen's Stock and Grain Farm, and were far above the average of fat hogs to reach Portland markets fine, fat, healthy porkers.

Al Merchie, once owner of our Little Short Line, the C S Ry, was in Moro Saturday with his family, trying his new 1912 auto which is a self starter, carries electric lights and other modern equipments. Al is one of the substantial farmers of Good Old Sherman county and is richly deserving of all he has of the goods of this world.

W. H. Moore, of Portland, has appointed Ginn & Coleman agents in Sherman county for sales of the now famous Cole auto, 4-passenger, 5-passenger and roadsters. See adv. The Cole has all modern equipment and is so quiet that it never attracts the dog nuisance by its everlasting chug and noise. Call and see about the Cole before buying a car.

L. R. Alderman, superintendent of public instruction, has addressed a letter to the boys and girls of the state who have decided to grow garden produce, etc, for exhibition at the fall fairs, reminding them that the schools are closing, that a hot and tempting summer is approaching, but that the rewards, in both prizes and good-habit-cultivation will continue as big as they are now, though the number of contestants to claim them may grow smaller.

The man who writes sentences for circus posters is beyond dispute more gifted than all others in the employment of superlatives. He is so well equipped that he never falls back on commonplace descriptions for the ring-tailed baboon after glorifying the pachyderm, which is menagerie talk for elephant, with eight-syllable grandiloquence.

Col. C. A. Buckley Visits the Farm.

Col. C. A. Buckley was a Moro visitor yesterday, coming down from Grass Valley with Attorney Baker, who was attending court. While here Col Buckley visited the Experiment Farm, made the acquaintance of Supt Stephens and was greatly pleased at what was to be seen there; being thoroughly practical, and himself progressive, it would be impossible for him to not be gratified with his observations there. The Observer acknowledges a pleasant call, and admonished the Colonel to come more frequently and stay longer.

Rain Making.

The Observer Editor took his bi-annual dinner with Mr and Mrs Nicholson and Grandma Rust, in the country south of this city, on the 19th, and the customary heavy rainstorm attended, leaving us to make the first track in the highway, two years ago going out, this trip coming in. We'll need some more rain next month, and so have arranged for another dinner and visit in June; this beats Hatfield. Last year our annual visit to Clackamas county was the cause of a "shower" that beat everything of the Jupiter Pluvius kind in Mexico, according to W. H. Moore continuing without let-up from the 24th day of June to July 6th, destroying all the cherries at Apple Crest. We don't go there this year until September, after the season of small fruits and berries. O, if it's rain you want, just send for The O. Man.
