

The Observer.

MORO CITY OFFICIAL PAPER.
FRIDAY PAPER OF SHERMAN CO
MORO, OREGON.

Entered as second class matter at the post office at Moro, Oregon, July 25, 1891.

D. C. IRELAND, Editor.
C. L. IRELAND, Manager.

FRIDAY, June 28, 1912

If you do not read The Observer, why not? We would like to have you take it, and we know it would be profitable to you to become a subscriber. We send it two years for $2.50; one year $1.50; 12 1/2 cts a month isn't much. Try it. Order by postal card, and pay for it when you can.

Church and Society notices FREE, except when for money making purposes. Such notices at regular rates at the option of the publishers.

We will not be responsible for the neglect of subscribers to notify at changes in their address. Nor will the notification of a Postmaster that the subscriber has "Removed" settle the bill of a delinquent.

Did it ever occur to you that it costs no more to produce printing than it does to produce the paper? The Observer is equipped with all the modern facilities for doing good work at the very minimum of cost. Try us with an order and if it is not executed to your perfect satisfaction you need not pay for it. Send for advertising rates.

Apparently Old Sol feels that he must make the best of the time when Jupiter Pluvius is not at his work.

The days are getting shorter now and grim winter will be poking its nose into our business affairs again soon.

Now that the longest day of the year has come and summer has officially arrived, let's chuck our winter suits and forget it.

This will be a great year for public speakers at the county fairs; election follows and the stump orators will be so thick that it will be difficult to date them all.

Some of the dead head advertising received daily at this shack is on sheets not fit for copy paper, and the weather is so hot we do not need it for the heating stove.

E W Wright of Vancouver, has a peculiar pet, which is kept in the window of his office and there subsists entirely on flies. It is a horned toad, from Sherman county. Wright is training the little animal to eat from his hand, and it performs several tricks for its master.

A dust storm at Walla Walla June 20th did irreparable damages to trees, the most valuable asset of our sister city, the pride of Washington. The storm extended over the Palouse country, to Spokane, and on to Coeur d'Alene and beyond; several lives are thought to be lost.

Nux vomica: The Rose city has "thrown up" the Alaska trade, and now refuses its quota of 200 tons to the steamers, preferring her old-time adaptitude of the fat duck sitting along the pearly edges of prosperity. With the decision of the shippers to make no further effort to meet the requirements to hold the service, the entire plan falls to the ground.

Four years ago the Oregonian and a paper printed at Burns, insisted that the republican party was dead. A pretty live corpse it seems to us. Roosevelt isn't the first person to quit with a groch. Some time ago the Observer said amen when LaFollette charmed Teddy. The G O P is equipped to fight its own battles without such as would ruin unless they rule.

An extensive "seeing" Oregon trip from Portland will be the excursion to Lakeview in August, going by autos, covering a round of about 2,000 miles; alternating routes going and coming so that a small area of the state will be traversed. Secretary C. C. Chapman, of the Oregon development league, is making plans for the trip, and those who go will have a better knowledge of a part of The Inland Empire, even though it be its frayed mountain edges, than they now have. Sherman county does not appear in it; although we have hundreds of miles of the best roads in the state in this Little Gem of Oregon.

What Will Sherman County Do?

Have we a development league? if yes, now is the time to show up, and act on the proposition of C C Chapman, secretary of the state league, who has determined that Oregon shall be well represented at various expositions in the east next winter.

He has taken steps to collect a good showing of grains, grasses, fruits and vegetables, from various counties for exhibition. He asks the co-operation of all districts in order to do this, and emphasizes the value that this sort of advertising will do every section that falls in with the plans to be seen at the local office of the Ea Or Ld Co, in this city.

A Scriptural Truth all the Same.

And it came to pass, after he had advertised his goods there came unto him a great multitude from all the region round about and did buy of him.

When his competitors saw it they marvelled, and held communion among themselves. "How be it that this man is busy while we loaf around our doors?" and he spake unto them, saying:

"Verily, verily, I say unto you, in this age of push and rustle it is easier for a camel to enter through the eye of a needle than for a business man to flourish without advertising."

Sam P. Brisbine Married.

At Hillsboro, Oregon, Wednesday, June 19th, 1912, at the residence of the bride, Mrs Agnes Campbell, and Mr Sam P Brisbine of this city, were united in marriage. The happy couple arrived at home in Moro Sunday evening June 25th, and were warmly greeted by a large number of old-time and well known associates and friends of the groom, attended by the Moro Cornet Band.

After the greeting, at the door of the new home, Mayor O J Goffin, in a tactful and becoming address, in behalf of numerous friends, presented a well-filled purse, with the compliments of those interested, as a starter for the newlyweds in transforming the hospitable bachelor quarters of the groom into a domicile worthy of the bride, the same being a wedding gift, a free will offering of the gladly surprised army of friends who had least suspected the motif actuating Brother Sam when he so innocently left us, about a week before, to have a chat with the pioneers at Portland, accompanied by Dr Joseph Sanders, who proved to be the groom's best man at the Hillsboro event.

Mr and Mrs Brisbine have had a long acquaintance, dating back over a period of time covering more than 40 years. July 4th '71, 39 years ago, they attended a ball in Yamhill county together. Both married and raised families; both lost their companions by death and now both, by mutual consent, have agreed to journey through life together until life doth part them. A picture filled of beautiful thought. All who knew or know them rejoice in their happiness, and wishers are unanimous that they may live many years to bless this union.

It was a surprise alike on both sides, Sunday, and from the hearts of many of those surprised here at home came the liberal gifts that also surprised the bride and groom.

This little sketch of this interesting affair would be incomplete, if we omitted mentioning that "Uncle Sam" was never more surprised in his life, and none could ever feel more grateful than Mr and Mrs Brisbine do, at the generous finale of this happy marriage.

A Beautiful Decline.

Ollie James, the gigantic and genial congressman and senator-elect from Kentucky, was in conversation the other day with a Washingtonian, when the latter made certain inquiries with reference to a mutual friend whom he had not seen for a number of years.

"And how does Col Prescott spend his declining years?" he asked.

"Beautifully, sir; beautifully," answered James: "he has a fine farm, sir; and a string of trotters, sir; and a barrel of whisky sixteen years old, and a wife of the same age, sir."

Buy it now. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is almost certain to be needed before the summer is over. Buy it now and be prepared for such an emergency. For sale by all dealers.

CIRCUS, WILD WEST SHOW AND MENAGERIE COMING.

Grass Valley, Friday, July 5th, 1912.
Wasco, Monday, July 8th.

The world famous Kit Carson's Buffalo Ranch Wild West Shows, the one whose phenomenal success during the past 14 years is well deserved. Not only do they present all they advertise, but much more. Coming on their own special trains of double-length cars, they carry everything needed to make their attraction rank as the world's foremost amusement enterprise.

Their cow boys and girls are from the very best riders and ropers of all the ranches in America. The Cossacks were imported from Russia, and are without doubt the most expert horsemen in all the universe.

During the course of the performance animal acts of all description are presented. This, with the fancy riding, roping, and other traits of expert horsemanship, displayed by the cowboys, cowgirls, Cossacks and Mexican vaqueros constitute but a part of the two hours of solid amusement.

A dozen clowns are continually at play and it will be a hard matter to stop watching the antics long enough to view some of the novelty acts of every description.

The performances end with a spectacular, historical fantasy, the "Battle of Wounded Knee," in which over 200 Indians, soldiers, trappers, cowboys, scouts, take active part. Many of the Indians were actually present at this famous battle, and it is reproduced exactly as they describe it.

Don't forget the dates, Grass Valley, July 5th; Wasco July 8th.

A Wise Rule to Adopt.

If you have to raise some money
So's to meet a pressing debt;
If you want to pay a mortgage
And the cash is hard to get;
If you don't know how to get it
Here's a way on which to bet:
Keep a hog.

For a hog's a sort of jack-screw
When it comes to raising cash;
It can do the trick so simply
With a fair supply of mash
You can raise a good big mortgage
And never fear a crash
When you have the hog.

Keep a hog that's really worthy
Of the honored name of pig;
One that's willing, ever willing
To root around and dig;
He's the kind to raise the profits
To lambaste that mortgage big.
Keep a hog.

Keep a hog; yes, keep a hog, sir;
Or a dozen, or a score;
And when you find them worthy,
Keep more, and more and more;
If you treat them as you ought to
They will raise a lot of ore;
Keep as many as you can
But keep a hog.

For Battling the Lice.

During this warm weather lice and mites are busiest; be careful they do not get the best of you; give the little chicks a good dusting with the right insect powder and paint or spray the roosts of the older fowls with carbolegium, we have the genuine article now in stock, for sale at The Observer Book Store. It is not a bad plan to paint the coops of the little chicks at the same time.
