BRIEF NEWS OF OREGON

September 12, 13 and 14 the farmers of the lower Columbia river held the second annual fair at Gearhart.

The twelfth annual conference of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, of Baker county, was held in Baker.

Asa Carey, who killed Jasper Westfall at Westfall, near Vale, last winter, has been indicted for murder in the first degree.

The county court of Josephine county has called an election on the local option question to be held at the time of the general election in November.

The C. A. Smith lumber and timber interests in Coos county are building a Johnson railroad from Myrtle Point down the south fork of the Coquille river.

The city council of Grants Pass has just enacted an ordinance making radical reductions in the rates that electric light and power companies can charge for service.

Early extension of the Mount Hood division of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company line from Cottrell, which is near the present terminus, to Sandy, is assured.

A bill for expenses and damages of $5261 was presented to the city council of Grants Pass by C. F. Hixby, a photographer, who was shot in the shoulder during a whiskey raid last February.

State Printing Expert R. A. Harris has submitted a lengthy report to Governor West covering the points which he alleges are abuses to the state under the present law governing the state printer.

One hundred and ten bushels of oats to the acre on dry land is the yield that has just been harvested by A. H. Robinson, a farmer living northeast of Wallawa. Much of the grain measured six feet in height.

According to the reports received by Major McIndoe, in charge of the jetty work at the mouth of the Columbia, there were but 87,873 tons of rock deposited in the eighth jetty undertaking during the month of August.

J. C. Brittain, one of the pioneers of Lane county, died suddenly at his home in Springfield. He was a bachelor, aged 85, and was president of the First National Bank of Springfield at the time of his death.

Sixty-one persons were committed to the asylum at Salem during the month of August. During the same period 21 died, 37 were discharged and four escaped, but one having this far been captured. The per capita cost was $13.31.

Crater Lake National Park had a very busy season up to September 1. Stormy weather began about that time and travel has been light. The register kept by Superintendent Grant showed that 3635 people had been in the park up to September 1.

An unidentified man was found dead on the United Electric at Groveland. The stranger had made several attempts to cut his jugular vein, using a jackknife found near the body. Falling in this, the man hanged himself with a piece of baling wire.

The Northwest Electric Light & Power association held its sixth annual convention at the Multnomah hotel September 11, 12 and 13. The association embraces nearly all the public service companies in the Pacific northwest, and is affiliated with the National Electric Light association.

Robert Bishop, the 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Bishop, of Salem, and his second cousin, Henrietta Bishop, the 3-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Mason Bishop, also of Salem, won the grand championship prize for the best boy and girl of any age at the Eugene Show at the state fair.

Governor West has offered a standing reward on behalf of the state of Oregon for the arrest and conviction of persons conducting "blind pigs" or "numbered establishments."

The only condition attached to the reward, other than that there shall be a conviction, is that in no case shall it exceed half the amount of the fine imposed and collected, with $100 as the maximum.

Holding that the recall amendment to the Oregon constitution is self-executing, that it was plainly the intent of the people in passing it to make it self-executing, and that it would be absurd to hold any other way, Judge Galloway has dissolved the temporary restraining order enjoining Secretary Olcott from calling a special election to determine the question of the recall of District Attorney Cameron of Multnomah county.

A report was submitted by Engineer Ralph Modjeski to the Pacific highway bridge committee of the Portland and Vancouver, Wash., commercial clubs, showing that the probable cost of the proposed bridge over the Columbia river from Portland to Vancouver would be $1,987,500, including $180,000 for engineering and contingencies, and $500,000 for the purchase of property and the building of a roadway for the approach to the bridge on the Oregon side. This is considerably under the estimates made when the bridge project was first considered.

JUDGES ARE UNOPPOSED

Three Candidates to Washington Supreme Bench Sure of Election

Seattle, Wash.—A most interesting feature of Tuesday's primary election in this state is the fact that for the first time in the history of Washington three candidates for justice of the supreme court are to be elected without opposition.

Nobody has even discussed the proposition of filling against Justice R. O. Dunbar, who has served on the supreme bench since the state was first organized; Wallace Mount, who came to the supreme court bench from Spokane in 1906, after a term in the lower house, or O. G. Ellis, a Tacoma democrat, whom Governor Hay appointed when Justice Frank Rudkin resigned to accept a place on the federal bench.

Under the Washington primary law these three justices for all practical purposes were elected at the primaries.

End of War in Sight

Vienna.—According to the Constantinople correspondent of the Neue Freie Presse, peace preliminaries have been signed by Italy and Turkey, but will be kept secret until parliament has been elected.

No formal armistice will be concluded, but Italy will refrain from further attacks on the Turkish coasts and islands and Turkey will permit the gradual return of the expelled Italians.

France is Winner of Trophy

Chicago.—France won the world's aviation championship. Jules Vedrine, champion of France, driving a Deperdussin monoplane, took from America the James Gordon Bennett silver trophy without contest.

Not an American aeroplane rose from the ground in defense of the cup, won by this country from England last year.

Vedrine's time for completing the 124.8 miles over the 4.14-mile course was 1 hour, 10 minutes, 56.85 seconds. His average time was 105.5 miles an hour.

PROGRESSIVE VOTERS CHOOSE HODGE

Seattle.—The following is the list of winners in the Progressive primary:

Governor, Robert L. Hodge, Seattle; lieutenant-governor, Govnor Teats, Tacoma.

First congressional district, Dan London, Seattle; second district, Stanton Warburton; third district, F. W. Goodwin.

Secretary of state, W. H. Ford, Earlington.

Treasurer, U. S. Corey, Centralia.

Attorney-general, E. G. Mills, Seattle.

Commissioner of public lands, W. H. Kaufman, Bellingham.

Insurance commissioner, C. N. Hunt, North Yakima.

Auditor, Andrew E. Moberg.

Superintendent of public instruction, C. E. Beach.

The Roosevelt progressive state convention, which met Tuesday in Seattle, had no business to transact except ratification of the nominations made by the progressive primaries.

According to the tact understanding of candidates and new party leaders, the result of the primaries was to be binding on the convention.

The Roosevelt progressive state convention was held in Dreamland dancing hall, and the feature of the convention was an address by Theodore Roosevelt, who arrived from Spokane at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning, addressed the convention in the afternoon and then went to Tacoma for another meeting.

Wilson Assails Smith's Candidacy

Seattle, N. J.—Governor Wilson, democratic presidential nominee, has declared war on James Smith, Jr., a democratic candidate for United States senator from New Jersey.

"Is she a bride?" "An inveterate one."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

OREGON NEWS NOTES OF GENERAL INTEREST

Events Occurring Throughout the State During the Past Week.

La Grande Wreck Kills One La Grande.—One man was killed and three others bruised and cut as a consequence of a collision in the yards here.

Joe Allen of Enterprise was instantly killed when he attempted to jump from a coach on a stock train after a slowly moving freight train had hit the coach on the rear of the train ready to leave. The injured were: L. D. Hewitt, Portland; L. B. Henderson, Calgary; and J. H. Cooper, Hood River.

Fall Fishing Scarcely Justified Astoria.—While it is probable that quite a number of fishermen will put their nets in the water during the first few days of the fall season, as the river is known to be full of fish at the present time, only a few will operate for any length of time. The price of 2 cents a pound fixed is not large enough to warrant using the gear unless large catches can be made.

TOWN STOLEN, IS ALLEGED

Government Sues Copper Company to Have Patent Set Aside

Portland.—A plot to steal an entire town is charged by the United States government against Frank E. Pearce and the Northwest Copper company in a case in which Judge Bean is expected to hand down an opinion in a few days.

The town is Homestead, on the east side of the Snake River in Baker county, 70 miles from Huntington. It lies on a narrow strip of ground about a mile long at the bottom of the Snake river canyon, and is valuable because it controls the inlet to copper deposits in the mountains to the east, and because it affords a suitable site for a railroad terminus and yards, mills, smelters and concentration plants.

The suit is to set aside a patent to the tract, which contains a little more than 73 acres, issued to Pearce February 28, 1907. Pearce took title to the land under the homestead act, by fraudulent means, the government alleges, after a town has actually existed there since long before 1899.

Schnorr Jury Fails to Agree

Oregon City.—After deliberating 12 hours with no apparent chance of reaching a verdict, Circuit Judge Eakin discharged the jury in the case of Gustav Schnorr, republican nominee for representative in the state legislature, indicted on a charge of libeling Chris Schuebel, also a republican nominee for representative.

Deer Hunter Found Dead

Florence.—Flinding deer tracks in the yard, Henry Hills, a foreigner, aged 40, who resides on the north fork of the Stiglaw, started hunting. About one hour after he started out two shots were heard, and after an all-night search his dead body was found with a bullet hole through the chest.

JURY UNABLE TO AGREE

Roseburg Brewery Case Dismissed by Judge

Roseburg.—Unable to agree after a deliberation of 12 hours, the jury empaneled to listen to the evidence in the case of the Roseburg Brewing & Ice company and its five directors, charged with violating the local option laws, was discharged by Judge Hamilton. The jury stood six for conviction and six for acquittal.

Following the dismissal of the jury District Attorney Brown informed the court that he was in readiness to proceed and try the defendants on another indictment. In this he was opposed by Judge Hamilton, who said the remainder of the brewery cases would go over until the regular term of court in November.

In explaining his position Judge Hamilton said the present jury was disqualified to try the remaining brewery cases, which are similar to the one disposed of.

Attendance at State Fair Larger

Salem.—By the narrow margin of 761, the paid admissions at this year's state fair exceeded the paid admissions of last year's fair. This year 31,808 persons paid to see Oregon's big show, as against 31,047 last year.

Albany has $12,500 Fire

Albany.—Fire which broke out in a row of frame buildings in the center of Albany's business district destroyed two stores, causing a total loss of $12,500.

Donkey Boiler Explodes; One Dead

Dallas.—Ernest Olson is dead and G. Reynolds is fatally injured, as the result of an explosion of a donkey boiler at the Spaulding logging camp, eight miles west of Black Rock.

Cause of the Quinest.

"That new cook I secured is certainly quiet," said Mr. Dubbs happily. "One would never know she is about the place."

"She isn't," chimed in Mrs. Dubbs.

"She left this morning!"—Satire.

Easy Victim

"I bought this umbrella on the installment plan."

"Easy terms?"

"Rather! A dollar down and a dollar whenever the collector can catch us."—Boston Transcript.

GENERAL MACARTHUR

General Arthur MacArthur, United States Army, retired, who dropped dead at a reunion in Milwaukee.

WILSON FUND IS $175,000

Campaign Contribution From 12,000 Persons Comes From All Sides

New York.—Twenty thousand persons have contributed thus far to the Wilson campaign fund. The fund at present totals $175,000.

This was stated at democratic national headquarters, which made public a list of contributors, containing, it was stated, the names of all who had contributed the sum of $100 or more.

The largest contributions thus far have been made by Henry Morgenthau, chairman of the national executive committee; F. C. Penfield, a wealthy democrat of Germantown, Pa., and Henry Goldman, a New York banker. Each gave $10,000.

Gross Frauds Charged in California

Los Angeles.—Evidence purporting to show that the members of the Lisner "progressive machine" violated the law in more than 200 precincts in the city and county in carrying out the plan to win the recent primary election was filed with Chief Deputy District Attorney Hanna. Hanna declared that he would place the evidence before the grand jury.

Bryan Heads Advisory Committee

New York.—With William J. Bryan as chairman and all the candidates defeated for the democratic nomination for president as members, the advisory committee of the democratic national committee for the 1912 campaign was announced. Mrs. E. J. Walsh of Tacoma, Wash., is the only woman member. The list contains the names of many prominent democrats.

MAINE RETURNS TO REPUBLICAN RANKS

Portland, Me.—Maine turned back to the Republican party in the state election, William T. Haines, of Waterville, being elected governor over Governor Plaisted, his Democratic opponent, who sought a second term, while the Republicans gained one of the two congressional districts lost to the Democrats two years ago.

Returns for governor from all but 37 small towns give: Haines, Republican, 69,615; Plaisted, Democrat, 66,152. The missing towns in 1910 gave: Republicans, 11,577; Democrats, 994. Haines plurality is estimated at 3840.

These returns show a Republican gain of 9 per cent and a Democratic loss of 3 per cent.

The Democrats went into the campaign on the defensive, having won control of the state government in the election of 1910. They based their campaign almost wholly on national issues, although defending their course in the state administration.

The Republicans used state issues entirely as the weapons of attack, and refused to be drawn into any discussion of national affairs. The Bull Moose element of the Republican party was in full control of party machinery, but with the approval of Colonel Roosevelt a split was averted.

A Lesson in Music

A household much given to music comprised three daughters, who played the piano well and shrewdly. At the regular Sunday afternoon gathering of the musician of retiring manner was present, and after the daughters had indulged for a while he was asked to play.

He chose one or two compositions destined to show the feeling of the pianist rather than the resources of technique. When he had finished one of the young women said: "You play very well. Who was your teacher?"

With a modesty that was almost painful he answered: "My last teacher was the Abbe Liszt."—Chicago Post.

Life and Limb. "I want to insure." "Yes, fire or life?" "Both—I've got a wooden leg."

Punishment. Neighbor—How nice and clean you are, Pepper! I suppose granddaddy is coming to see you today? "Oh, no; but I've been naughty, and I'm always washed for punishment."—Filegunde Blatter.

For goodness of the species, whether increased by violent extension of injury, there is nothing better than Chamberlain's Liniment. This Liniment also relieves rheumatic pains. For sale by all dealers.

Perfectly at Home

"Is your bride timid and backward with your people?" "Not a bit. She has already begun to teach sister how to look stylish and mother how to cook."—Kansas City Journal.

Flattered Out. Herlwayte—I thought of a very funny joke in my sleep last night, but when I woke up somehow it was as flat as a pancake.

Litewayte—No wonder. I suppose you slept on it.

If you are a housewife you cannot reasonably hope to be healthy or beautiful by washing dishes, sweeping and doing housework all day, and crawling into bed dead tired at night. You must get out into the open air and sunlight. If you do this every day you keep your stomach and bowels in good order by taking Chamberlain's Tablets when needed, you should become both healthy and beautiful. For sale by all dealers.
