The publishers of The Youths Companion will present to every subscriber whose subscription, $2, is paid for 1913, a beautiful souvenir. This year it takes the unique form of a window transparency, to be hung in the window, or in front of a lighted lamp. Through it the light shines as through the stained glass of a cathedral window softly illuminating the design, a figure of autumn laden with fruits, and all around wreathed in purple clusters of grapes and green foliage is the circle of the months. It is the most attractive gift ever sent to Companion readers.

Dr O J Goffin has succeeded most admirably in suppressing the threatened outbreak of small pox in this community. Walter H Moore was discharged from the hospital on the 9th, John H Heim was able to be out working around his home, on McCoy avenue and Fifth street, Tuesday, and will be able to attend to business in a few days. Miss Francis Rutledge, who seems to have had the worse fate, is getting along nicely and may be released from the hospital this week. It has been trying on the nerves of Dr Goffin, but his resolute way of doing things which he considers right, checked the mass of chronic kickers at bay, and instead of 300 cases, as Moro once had under different conditions, he has had but three—Moro owes Dr Goffin a testimonial to be handed to him in a gold and silver loving cup, before he quits the city.

The Brave in Defeat We Need.

Here's to the men who laugh in the face of grim despair; Who gather the tares and chaff, But sow with a cheerful air.

Here's to the smiling men, Who, giving can take a blow And rise to the fight again When others have laid them low.

Here's to the men who grin When plans that they build go wrong, And straightway new plans begin With courage and purpose strong.

Here's to the glad brave men Who, battling, expect a bruise, And rise to the fight again Undaunted by fights they lose.

Here's to the men who smile With faith in the morning light, And bravely await the while Till victory crowns their fight.

Here's to the fighting men That always need not succeed, To rise to the fight again— The brave in defeat we need.

In Memoriam.

John Christiansen was born near Copenhagen, Denmark, April 1st 1865, and died at his farm home in Sherman county, Oregon, November 6th, 1912, aged 47 years, 7 months and 6 days. He came to Oregon in the fall of 1885, and has ever since made his home in this county.

He was married to Miss Daisy Hennagin March 28th, 1895, and to this union was born three sons, and two daughters, four of whom survive him. He was a loving father and husband, and a friend to all who knew him. Funeral services took place at his farm residence November 8th, 1912, and was attended by a large number of relatives and friends; the Masonic order of Moro, of which body he was an honored member, attended and took charge at the grave, carrying out the solemn observance of their ritual on such occasions. The grave was elaborately decorated with flowers, and the congregation dismissed. Mrs Christiansen and family have the universal sympathy of their neighbors and friends in their sad bereavement.

Mrs John Christiansen and family desire us to thus publicly thank all kind neighbors and friends for aid and sympathy expressed in their recent affliction.
