

KENWOOD CLOTHES
Absolutely guaranteed by ourselves and the makers

The Style of Tomorrow.
Quality Today and Every Day.

WOULD you purchase a watch which was not guaranteed; or put your money in a bank which was not absolutely safe; or go to sea in a leaky boat?

Don't take a chance when you buy clothes. It is not necessary; we will be glad to sell you clothes which have both a service and style guarantee; clothes which don't blare or blaze, but which "get there" gracefully and positively. They are tailored by specialists who make only a distinct part of a garment, even then they cost you no more than a cheaper made clothing

SUITS FROM $15 TO $30

A. M. WILLIAMS & CO
THE DALLES, OREGON.

The Observer

MORO, SHERMAN CO., OREGON:

FRIDAY... February 28, 1913

The price of The Observer is $1.50 per year, 75 cents for six months, 50 cents for four months—but if paid in advance we accept $2.50 in full for 2 years. Shorter terms than one year 12 1/2 cents per month.

A Blue Mark here will answer an inquiry, when entered upon our calendar, giving the date of the paper as the date at which your current subscription expires.

Eureka Lodge No. 121.
A. P. A. M. MORO, OR.
Meets the first and third Thursday evenings of each month. Visiting members cordially invited to meet with us. By order of W. M.
J. M. PARRY, Secretary.

Bethlehem Chapter No. 78 O. E. S.
Regular communication each 2d and 4th Thursday evenings monthly.
F. E. FORTNER, Secretary.

Moro Lodge, No. 113, I. O. O. F. MORO, OR.
Meeting every Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Visiting members are cordially invited. Members expected to be present.
F. A. SAYRS, Noble Grand, A. R. KESINGER, Secy.

J. D. Pomerene
LAWYER

Office over W.W.M.Co. bank
Moro, Oregon.

Prepared to practice in all the courts of the state.

W. C. Bryant
Lawyer

MORO - OREGON

R. R. Butler
Attorney-at-law
Masonic Building

The Dalles Oregon.

Dr. Walter C. Nason
Physician and Surgeon

Successor to Dr. O. J. Goffin
Moro, Oregon.

J. R. Morgan
Dentist

MORO, - OREGON
1st to 15th of each month.
Office opposite Drs. Goffin

WASCO, - OREGON
16th to 30th of each month.
Office opp. McCoy, Atwood Co

James Stewart

Address: MORO, OREGON.

Stock Inspector
Sherman County,
Oregon.

Deputy Stock Inspector
Louis Schadewitz, Ken Oregon

An exceptionally strong line of shoes at Freemans.

Granville Phillips was a visitor this week from Kent.

The Oregon state fair will open at Salem September 29th.

Wilber Helyer of Kent was a visitor at Moro Wednesday.

Robert Kaseberg of Wasco, was a visitor in town Wednesday.

Wool Challies with the border, fine for spring dresses, at Freemans store.

Hugh Schull is the latest Sherman county farmer to purchase a Holt caterpillar engine.

John Hastings shipped this week another lot of thirteen head of dressed hogs to the market at The Dalles.

J. M. Parry has purchased the A. E. Cousins property on Main street and will have it repaired for residence purposes.

G. N. Crosfield is now taking orders for his fourth car of Pittsburgh fencing. His first car ordered is now at Wasco.

County School Superintendent F.E. Fagan left Tuesday evening for an official visit with the school at Kent and Grass Valley.

Just arrived at the Meloy Mercantile Co., a shipment of whipcord pants with coat to match. They sell at $1.50 to $2 a garment.

Geo. N. Crosfield is certainly getting orders for wire fencing; he is now making up his fourth "direct from the factory" car for this spring.

Mrs. S. D. Montgomery has received notice of the death of her sister, Mrs. James Boughton, who died at Watonga, Okla., February 17th after a lingering illness.

The Wasco high school pupils will entertain their home town people the evening of Saturday, March 1st, and Moro the following Saturday night, with a drama.

Chas. E. Poole has accepted a position with Geo. N. Crosfield as field agent. The family home will now be at Wasco, Mrs. Poole and children leaving Moro last week for their new home.

At the Minstrel Show Saturday night in the Coon Creek Courtship the troubles of a bashful young coon and an eager fairylake wench are depicted. But the popper is drawn out and the poor coon has to suffer the "quensecones." Tickets on sale at Heim & Landrys.

Traffic on the Shaniko branch was again demoralized Thursday by the freight train getting off the track at the Erskineville switch, breaking the rail and delaying the passenger train. The wrecking train from The Dalles passed through Moro at one o'clock. Several of the passengers walked from the wreck to Moro for dinner and waited for the train to continue their journey.

M. E. Church Notices.

Sundayschool at 10 a.m. Preaching at 11 a.m. Epworth League at 6:30 p. m. Preaching at 7:30 p. m. Chas. W. Johnson, Pastor.

For Sale Cheap

1 new 14 hoe drill
2 cream separators
1 Gasoline Engine
1 2nd hand 12 inch Gang plow

GINN & COLEMAN MORO, ORE.

Call and see the new suitings at Freemans.

Albert Miller was in from Monkland Friday.

Always in stock, beautiful Birth Day Postal Cards, at the Observer Book Store.

Mrs. A. M. Hicks of Wasco, is a guest this week of Mrs. G. W. McClelland.

One car of cattle and three of hogs left Moro for the Portland market last week.

A carload of shingles and also a carload of lumber is in transient for Tumalum Lumber Company.

W. A. Morgan returned from Wasco Tuesday with 440 rods of Pittsburgh fencing purchased from Crosfield.

J. C. Carl is very sick since his return from Burlington, Wash., where he attended the funeral of his father.

C. L. Montgomery leaves Saturday for a visit with relatives at Rufus. He will be accompanied by his niece, Miss Ida Montgomery.

The ladies are requested to attend a millinery opening of Easter styles Saturday, March 8th, at the Moro millinery parlors of Mrs. F. E. Fagan.

L. W. Ross delivered last Saturday to the Methodist church at Moro the Nisley piano which that organization recently purchased; it is a fine instrument, contained in a Colonial style oak case.

Gasoline is used to such an extent in this county that Crosfield has decided to buy it in car lots. Two cars arrived at Wasco this week and others will be ordered as needed.

Mrs. Alex Hunter died very suddenly Wednesday night at one o'clock from heart trouble; interment will be at Moro. Services will probably be held Saturday, depending upon arrival of relatives.

Quite a number Observer Store patrons were disappointed because our stock of Valentine post cards did not hold until they came to purchase. Our Easter and Saint Patrick cards now on display.

W.A. Raymond began work this week on the new house being built by the E. O. L. Co. for Myles E. Martin to replace the one burned last fall. The building material was supplied by the Moro Tumalum Company.

The high school boys are working hard this week polishing up their parts in the Minstrel Show for Saturday evening. They have a good supply of local jokes and takeoffs that will surely interest all. Tickets on sale at Heim & Landrys.

The city of Shaniko has under way a deal by which for $3000 they will purchase the water system of the town from the townsite company. The system originally cost $18,000 and includes mains, reservoir, pumping station and residence of the engineer in charge.

Mrs. Clay Belshe and children left Saturday for Alderside, Alberta, for a months visit with her parents. This will be the first time Mrs. Belshe has been in Alberta and also the first time she has had a visit with her parents since her marriage, they moving to Alberta five years ago.

The horse advertised in The Observer as an estray to be sold according to law, by W.A. Ruggles belonged to Ed. McMillin. Mr. McMillin had an idea it had been stolen and was on his way into Wasco county where he thought it was when he heard where the colt was located.

Attorney W. C. Bryant returned home Sunday, leaving his mother very much improved in health and with good prospects of recovery. His mother was removed from the home of his sister in Portland to the home of another sister at Fall City, the old family home. The removal seemed to break up an attack of home sickness which was retarding recovery.

C. L. Smith, agriculturist for the O. W. R. & N. Co., has returned from Washington, D. C., where he attended a conference of field agents of the department of agriculture. Mr. Smith is always a booster first and he took advantage of the opportunity to inform Secretary Wilson and other officials of the work in Oregon that the O. W. R. & N. Co., is doing to aid in the agricultural development of the territory to its lines.

Try the famous Sunday dinner at the Hotel Moro.

Mrs. James Woods returned Tuesday morning from a visit with relatives at Kent.

First class cedar posts, 2500 of them, are in stock at the Moro yard of the Tumalum Lumber Company.

L. H. Martin purchased a fine buggy and robe this week at the Moro Hardware and Implement Company.

The Moro branch of the Tumalum Lumber Company has just finished unloading another car of Rock Springs coal.

The home of J. E. Burdett, former district attorney for this district, was visited last Monday by the stork who left a baby boy at their Arlington home.

Wm Burris received his new 1913 Reo car Sunday that he had recently purchased from Crosfield. This is one of the nicest appointed cars that has been brought to Sherman county.

County Commissioner E. D. McKee has placed his order with Geo. N. Crosfield for a 1913 Mitchell six. Mr. McKee is a connoisseur as to what constitutes a good car and his judgment is to be commended.

J. H. Carter died February 23rd at the home of his daughter Mrs. E. M. Meach, near Vancouver, Wash., from an attack of pleurisy aged 72 years. Mr. Carter was at one time a resident of Moro, and was a cabinet worker by trade.

J. T. Whalley was a visitor this week from Portland. He is interested in the purchase of a farm for a client and after viewing several parcels of land left Tuesday for home and will return shortly to close one of the deals offered.

Omer Sayrs took out to his farm last week a new horse power feed grinder purchased from the Moro Hardware and Implement Co. Omer says that in a year it will pay for itself and he will have over several days time that would be spent on the road hauling feed either to the mill or back home.

Chas. Tom reports that a few of the farmers in the northern part of Sherman county are plowing. Around Moro the ground is still frozen about two inches. About an inch of snow fell upon Moro Wednesday morning, taking the frost from the ground and providing plenty of azote towards the next crop.

Miss Olive Case of Portland, arrived in our city Monday and will have charge of the trimming at the Mrs. Fagan millinery parlors. This is Miss Case first season in Moro and it is hoped by Mrs. Fagan that all ladies will call early so that the trimming will more nearly approach each ones individual taste.

Mrs. Mattie Forbes left Saturday for Hood River where she will join Mr. Forbes and her daughter, Mrs. Graham. Mrs. Forbes took a pair of Angora goats with her as a present to her daughters family. The goats were quite small and attracted considerable attention, lying down in a coal oil case, in which they were shipped.

A New York woman tried to send her baby by parcel post to her sister in California. It was sick and the mother expected it to die if she kept it with her so made a parcel of it and passed it in the window. When she saw how the clerks handled it she cried and investigation disclosed the rest. She did not know where California was.

Robbers the last few weeks in Portland have pilfered money and valuables from the desk of the officer in charge belonging to their prisoners. Efforts of the entire detective force and lectures on stealing by the chief did not deter the thieves. As a desperate resort all valuables are now in sole charge of one officer, at the Portland police station.

Collins Hot Springs hotel was sold at sheriff sale February 19th to satisfy a mortgage held by the Eastern Oregon Banking Co. of Shaniko, who bid it in subject to a first mortgage of $2000. Mayor Barnum, as an officer of the bank, was present at the sale. Collins is a resort on the northern side of the Columbia, below Hood River. The first efforts to develop the place was by Moro people.

Negro politics is depicted as never before, in the Booster Club at the minstrel show Saturday evening, and affairs prosper exceedingly well under direction of Hotfoot, the janitor, who believes thoroughly in having a good start when you run for office. Tickets on sale at Heim & Landrys.

W. W. Finley was tried in the justice court Monday before Judge F. E. Fortner on a charge of assault upon his daughter, the charge being preferred by the district attorneys office. Mr. Finley was bound over to appear before the grand jury under $500 bonds, which he was not able to obtain. Mrs. Finley is sick and not able to properly care for the children and the county court was convened Tuesday to determine what disposition to make of the children while the charge is pending.

Philomath, three miles from Corvallis, has been chosen as the site for the proposed federated college of the conferences of the United Evangelical, Evangelical Association and the United Brethren, by commissioners of the conferences who met last week in Portland. It is proposed that the standardized federated college be opened next September. Philomath gives the new federated college, as a bonus for locating there, $35,085 in cash and also the buildings now used by the United Brethren College.

There was quite a large attendance at the local meeting of the farmers union at Moro last Saturday. R. C. Byers and W. L. Dilling joined the union and other applications for admission were presented. Geo. N. Crosfield was an interested member of the out-er house, during the meeting, as bids had been canvassed by the union on the wire orders for the members. In the matter of wire purchase it was decided to call a county meeting and submit all the different prices and grades to the membership and then unite on ordering as much as needed.

Cured of Liver Complaint.
"I was suffering with liver complaint," says Iva Smith of Point Blank, Texas, "and decided to try a 25c. box of Chamberlain's Tablets, and am happy to say that I am completely cured and can recommend them to every one." For sale by all dealers.—Advertisement.

Irrigated Land for Rent or Sale

I have several irrigated ranches or rent to responsible parties, on reasonable terms. I also have irrigated land for sale at 10% of purchase price down, balance at easy terms, 6% interest, write me.
L. E. SMITH,
164-4t-58m21 Redmond, Ore

Seed Oats for Sale

White Russian variety at the Kerr Gifford warehouse at Moro see Warfield.
C. E. MATTHEWS
164-3t-28m14 Moro, Oregon.

Seed Potatoes for Sale

The "full blooded" Burbank variety; large ones, the kind the cooks like. For particulars phone or write.
OMER G. SAYRS.
(3t-28m14) Moro, Oregon.

Draft Horses for Sale

Ten head of good draft horses from three to seven year old. For particulars phone or write.
F. W. MATHIAS.
(2t-21-28-164) Klondike, Ore.

Eggs for Hatching

Full blood S. C. Rhode Island Reds $1 per setting of fifteen; incubator lots $5 per hundred. A good hatch guaranteed or will replace at half price.
GEO. O. WARFIELD,
(3m-12m16-163) Moro, Oregon.

Work Horses for Sale

One horse, one mare, both coming two years old; one good brood work mare; for particulars see me at my farm two miles south of Moro.
HADEN BRISBINE
3t-3j31 Moro, Oregon.

Travelers at Biggs

Should try our famous chicken plate dinners; all kinds of nice sandwich, pie, cake, good coffee.
WOLFARD LUNCH COUNTER

C. G. HULS

Public Auctioneer.

For information as to terms and open dates address the Sherman County Observer at MORO, OREGON.

Moro Hardware & Implt Co

Pipe Fittings and Supplies.
Wrenches and Tools of all kinds.
Bolts, Taps, Washers, etc.

Extras for the Dutchman, Oliver, Syracuse, and John Deere Plows

Every Thing a Farmer needs in the Furniture and Hardware line can be supplied here.

L. W. Ross, Moro, Oregon

The Sherman County Jeweler.

agent for THE NISLEY PIANO, the instrument that has proven to be satisfactory every where and for quality and price can not be equaled.

Another shipment of Nisley Pianos, with stands and benches, just received.

R. J. GINN J. E. COLEMAN

GINN & COLEMAN

DEALERS IN
Glass, Paints, and Oils. Bone and Alfalfa Meal.

AGENTS FOR
Canton Plows, Superior and Peoria Drills.

EXTRAS
For all kinds of machinery carried in stock or procured on short notice.

MORO BRANCH

TUM A LUM LUMBER CO.

H. U. MARTIN, Manager.

WOOD - COAL - POSTS

Lumber, Cement and Lime,
Windows, Doors, Moulding.

Special prices on Wood in car load lots where one or more are buying.

Our Stock is Complete and Seasonable
Dress Goods, Underwear,
Shoes, Rubbers, Artics,
Groceries, Canned Goods, Dried Fruits.

You are respectfully invited to call.

COOPER BROS.
GRASS VALLEY, OREGON.

DO A LITTLE MISSIONARY WORK IN YOUR

Idle days by telling your neighbors of the good qualities of The Observer. If you can't get their subscriptions, send us their addresses and we will send them sample copies. We pay for all soliciting you do. Subscribe for The Observer. Best Weekly published in the Inland Empire. Everyone reads it.