Worrells Sample Suit and Cloak Store

The Busiest Store in Portland.
"There is a Reason."

There was a time when poor old dad
Dug up the yard, hopeful and glad;
When from his work he'd daily tote
Seed catalogues, and learn by rote
How to grow everything just right
And beat his neighbors out of sight.
And when the seeds began to grow,
How dad would scrape and dig and hoe,
To keep the weeds from crowding out
The big fat spuds he bragged about!
And how he groaned and raised the chickens
To see his work spoiled by chickens!
But now poor dad is very quiet;
For all day long from morn to night,
Frank, Tom and Jerry, Fanny, too,
Delve in the garden contest. Whew!
Poor dad should worry! I guess niti!
He wisely smiles. Kids go to it!

Special sale on ladies neck wear at Freemans store.

D.M.C. embroidery and crochet cotton all colors and sizes, at Freemans store.

Carbolium, fresh stock, direct from Germany, now on sale at The Observer Book Store.

Our local Nasby, J. M. Parry, is now at home on Main street in the residence recently purchased by him.

At a city election last week Arlington voted bonds with which to install an electric light system to cost about $5000.

The famous and only O-Cedar mop, very highly recommended by those who use it, is for sale at the Moro H. & L. Co.

Cooper Bros., at Grass Valley, are offering a new selection in ladies three quarter length silk gloves; they also have a good line of ladies tie and silk hose.

Robert Morrison is visiting at the home of his brother Wm. and family. Mr. M. is on his way to Umatilla county where he has farming interests, his home is now in Portland.

N.J. Kantas, formerly in charge of the Moro railroad section and now a progressive farmer of Kent neighborhood, had the misfortune to strain his right ankle last week when alighting from a horse he was riding. Nick expects to be as well as ever in a couple of weeks.

Levi Clark, father of Mrs. W.O. Hadley and Fred W. Clark, former residents of Moro, was found dead in his bed April 23d at the home of his family at Hood River. He went to bed the previous evening seemingly in his usual health, but it is supposed that he succumbed to heart failure at near the midnight hour.

Judge John Fulton was a visitor Friday at Moro with his new "little" six Franklin. This car received quite a bit of attention from autoists of Moro and vicinity who were in the city while Mr. Fulton's party were in town. It is an exceptionally fine car and undoubtedly the classiest auto now in Sherman county.

The Kent section of Sherman county and as far as a mile north of Grass Valley was visited with a snow storm Tuesday that lasted nearly all day. The snow melted as fast as it came into contact with the earth, but it was a welcome visitor. At Shaniko possibly six inches fell, three inches was reported at 9 a. m.

In the preliminary try out for places in the oratorical contest to be held at Grass Valley this month the judges decided that Telva Martin will represent Moro in the B grade and Thelma Buxton in the C grade. Because of absence of some of the contestants for the A grade at the Oregon City Sunday school convention that will be decided later.

We had the pleasure of accompanying Senator Ragsdale in his new 1913 Cadillac to Kent Tuesday. If a fellow has the auto purchase bug, he had better stay out of Mr. Ragsdale's car until he has made his purchase. That is if he has only medium ambition to own a car; for ease of guiding, manipulating, and riding there can be but few cars superior.

Sheriff J. C. McKean collected taxes amounting to $103.66 last week from Ewen McLenen. Mr. McLenen has been ranging sheep in Sherman county for some years, but this is the first time he has paid taxes on them into this county treasury as the sheep were generally moved from the county before the tax was delinquent. This year Sheriff McKean caught the sheep on the move.

Local Church Appointments

There will be preaching at the Methodist Episcopal church next Sunday morning and evening by the district superintendent, Rev. H.O. Perry, who will also preach at Spaulding chapel at 3 p. m. Sunday School at Spaulding chapel at 2 p. m.

Services in Presbyterian Church Sunday next at 11 a. m. and 7:45 p. m. Services at Monkland at 2:30 p. m. A. J. Adams, pastor.

The installation of Rev. A. J. Adams as permanent pastor of Moro Presbyterian church will be a public affair. Arrangements have been made to hold the exercises the evening of Tuesday, May 13th, at which time three ministers from this Presbytery will be present Rev. I. I. Gorby, Ph. D., will preach the sermon; Rev. J. V. Milligan D. D. will deliver the charge to the people, and Rev. W. L. VanNuy will deliver the charge to the pastor. The public are cordially invited.

Cough Medicine for Children. Too much care cannot be used in selecting a cough medicine for children. It should be pleasant to take, contain no harmful substance and be most effective. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy meets these requirements and is a favorite with the mothers of young children everywhere. For sale by all Dealers.—Advertisement.

The Grain Growers Conveniences

Are not alone confined to Rural Free Delivery of mail and the Telephone. There is another convenience which all farmers should have — and many do have — a checking account with a good bank. The possessor of such an account avoids the risk of having his money on his person or about his home where it is in danger of fire and thieves.

His bills paid by check are not only a valid receipt, but also a convenience in his home transactions where very often the necessary change for concluding settlement is not at hand. Don't stop to think this over, but start an account now with
