The GREEPING GRIP

Uncle Peter DeMoss is visiting with friends and relatives in the vicinity of Moro and DeMoss. Uncle Peter is a two times Oregon pioneer having crossed the plains by ox-team and also made a round trip by way of the isthmus of Panama in the yellow fever days of the gold excitement; he has been a resident of Sherman county for several years, but is now located at Barton in Clackamas county.

At the special request of Lewis Persinger, one of the most noted violinist of the age, Elbert DeMoss has remained at Colorado Springs with his mother to spend the summer studying the violin under Mr. Persinger personal direction, who has been so taken with the young boys ability that he wants to take him to Germany with him this winter for study at Leipsac University. George G. DeMoss, the boys father, hardly knows whether to agree to the proposition or not.

Cole Hupmobile Ford THE BIG THREE

The annual reunion of the Cooper family was held this year at Shearer bridge commemoration of the fiftieth anniversary of their crossing at that place after their trip by ox-team across the plains. At that time not even a ferry was on the river and immigrants had to construct boats from their wagon boxes and swim the stock to which was attached the crude, clumsy and unwieldy boats. Three of the Cooper brothers are in business in this county at Grass Valley, another resides near The Dalles, and others are residents of the Willamette valley.

Portland to Hood River Auto Road.

The delay in the construction of the scenic highway along the Columbia river from Portland to Hood River was removed last week when the Hood River county commissioners signed a contract between that county and the O.-W.R. & N. covering encroachments of the auto road on the railroad right of way.

It is now possible to begin construction at once, and as the contract gives but three years in which to complete the road, construction will be rushed. Camps for the prisoners who are to work on the road have already been established.

The Grain Growers Convenience
Are not alone confined to Rural Free Delivery of mail and the Telephone. There is another convenience which all farmers should have — and many do have — a checking account with a good bank. The possessor of such an account avoids the risk of having his money on his person or about his home where it is in danger of fire and thieves. His bills paid by check are not only a valid receipt, but also a convenience in his home transactions where very often the necessary change for concluding settlement is not at hand. Don't stop to think this over, but start an account now with
