AN INTERPRETATION

BY REV. A. J. ADAMS

How big is president Huerta, pa,
That Mexico should think him great;
What's the girth of this outlaw,
Who dares direct the helm of state?

Is he as big as Uncle Sam,
Or Johnson Jack, or Jeffrey Jim,
That we should fear his weak attack,
Or tremble at his every whim?

I've seen his picture on the map, He's not a monster, all allow,
What reason then that this Satrap, Should dare our "Sam" to start the row?

But that's not all I wish to know;
On what meat doth this Caesar feed,
To challenge our Bryan and Woodrow,
Now honor bright, will he succeed?

My boy your questions are opportune,
And I shall answer like a man.
Should my reply appear jejune,
Ask the omniscient Oregonian.

We measure not this Mexican,
By girth of body or length of limb;
In this regard he's not the man,
Of Johnson, black, or California Jim.

Where he so tall, to reach the pole,
Or mete the ocean with a span,
He must be measured by his soul,
The mind's the standard of the man.

Sure that is the standard my boy,
To estimate the genus, man;
Then make allowance for base alloy,
That's the standard of this Mex-i-can.

Your question too in regard to feed,
Of this great modern Caesar,
Of information you have no need,
His meat is that of any "Greaser."

The savory dish in Mexico,
For breakfast and luncheon too,
Is the precious game—Madero;
For dinner they have a Diaz stew.

Millinery Announcement

are offered on special sale at Home Market the Best

The Portland market is today paying better net returns to shippers of live stock than any other stockyard market in the country.
There has been an increasing movement of supplies to that point this year, while practically all other stockyards of the country show a very serious decrease. This condition is due to the fact that not only are prices higher there but smaller freight charges from the interior together with the smaller amount of shrinkage in transit made for larger profits.
Both of these are big items to the producer.

Successful Dorcas Social

About forty five members and guests attended the Dorcas social Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. D. Wallan.
Only one "mere man" had the temerity to put in an appearance and despite a strenuous effort to capture him for the afternoon, James Wood had to go to the depot to see the train arrive.

A guessing game occupied the larger part of the afternoon at which Mesdames C. E. Sheets, C. L. Ireland, M. A. Bull, L. W.
Ross and J. C. Hockman tied for perfect score; the tie being won by Mrs. Sheets who guessed the exact page at which a mark had been placed in a book.

Refreshments consisting of sandwiches, cake, and coffee were served, and dues to the amount of $6.50 received.

Day Postal Cards, at the Observer
Book Store.

The Grain Growers Conveniences

Are not alone confined to Rural Free Delivery of mail and the Telephone. There is another convenience which all farmers should have — and many do have — a checking account with a good bank. The possessor of such an account avoids the risk of having his money on his person or about his home where it is in danger of fire and thieves.

His bills paid by check are not only a valid receipt, but also a convenience in his home transactions where very often the necessary change for concluding settlement is not at hand Don't stop to think this over, but start an account now with
