John Hastings was in Moro Tuesday and reported the roads in his charge as being in very good condition. There is now a good road from the Spaulding chapel school house to Moro by way of the Lonerock grade, which the Observer mentioned last week as being put in condition by R. C. Byers who also has made a good road as far as the Boardman school house from the corner where it intersects the Lonerock road.

M. S. Pittman, representing the Monmouth Normal, was in the county this week with a brand new scheme by which tax payers residing in cities could pass the larger part of the school tax burden up to the fellow that lives in the country; and, under his scheme, the schools of a county were all to be managed by a board of five who would have entire management and no school could have any say as to whom their teacher would be unless the county superintendent and board agreed. An effort is to be made to put it over in this county, as we swallow everything. The best friend the Monmouth Normal has is the farming element and it does not set well for the Normal to try to increase their tax burdens.

Local Church Announcements for Sunday, March 15
