FOR many years the Weber wagon has been accepted as the standard of wagon value everywhere. No model of the Weber wagon was ever so good as the 1914 model now on the market.

The Columbus wagon this year is the equal of the Weber wagon in every way; where quality and features are concerned, the Weber and Columbus wagons are twins. One good feature common to both is the International fifth wheel, making these

The Only Fifth Wheel Farm Wagons on the Market

The International fifth wheel prevents the pulling up or pitching of the bolster, and therefore does away forever with bent and broken king pins and circle irons. This one feature is worth a trip to town.

Go to the I H C local dealer who handles Weber or Columbus wagons and ask him to show you the fifth wheel on these wagons. If you don't know who handles them, write to us and we will tell you where you may see them.

DIGESTER TANKAGE

MADE BY THE UNION MEAT CO.
NORTH PORTLAND, ORE.

NOW ON SALE IN MORO

Whether you raise three hogs or three hundred, you cannot afford to overlook this famous hog food. Read what J. M. Fruitts, of Joseph, Oregon says about DIGESTER TANKAGE.

Union Meat Company
North Portland, Ore.
Joseph, Oregon, March 25th, 1914
Dear Sirs:—
In reference to the results obtained from your Digester Tankage, I have found it to be a profitable and satisfactory feed. It has no superior as a feed for brood sows. Its high percentage of protein makes it a great developer for the unborn pigs. It makes strong boned pigs with nice glossy coats. In the show ring it has no equal to my judgment. During the past winter I have fed tankage to my young pigs and have never met with greater success.
Very truly yours,
(signed) J. M. Fruitts.

DIGESTER TANKAGE is made from fresh, wholesome pieces of meat. It develops bone and muscle and makes pigs GROW. Endorsed by all leading Agricultural Experiment Stations and by the best breeders and feeders in every state. It's a meal in form, fed wet or dry, mixed with other foods.
DIGESTER TANKAGE can be purchased in Moro at our Warehouse. We have purchased this famous hog food in a carload lot and can give you the benefit of this saving in freight. If you want your pigs to grow into fat, healthy hogs, send in your order now to

The Observer.

MORO, OREGON.

FRIDAY ....May 29, 1914

Entered as second class matter at the post office at Moro, Oregon, July 25, 1891.

C. L. IRELAND .......Manager.

Send for advertising rates.

If you do not read The Observer, why not?

We would like to have you take it, and we know it would be profitable to you to become a subscriber. We send it two years for $2.50; one year $1.50; 12½ cts a month isn't much. Try it. Order by postal card, and pay for it when you can.

We will not be responsible for the neglect of subscribers to notify us of changes in their address. Nor will the notification of a Postmaster that the subscriber has "Removed" settle the bill of a delinquent.

Church and Society notices FREE, except when for money making purposes. Such notices at regular rates at the option of the publishers.

At any timewhen requested to do so, the paper will be discontinued. But we expect that all arrears will be paid before such request is made. It is easy to ask us for a statement, which will be cheerfully rendered at any time.

The price of The Observer is $1.50 per year, 75 cents for six months, 50 cents for four months—but if paid in advance we accept $2.50 in full for 2 years. Shorter terms than one year 12½ cents per month.

A Blue Mark here will answer an inquery, when entered upon our calendar, giving the date of the paper as the date at which your current subscription expires.

Memorial Day in the Future.

Inevitably, as the years flow by, the solemnity of Memorial Day will be tempered with joy. Time heals all grief but it magnifies our sense of gratitude to the men who gave their lives for their country. The pain of their sacrifice will fade in the light of its beauty and while tears must always flow when we remember the nation's dead they will not quench the grateful smiles with which we think of the heritage they have bequeathed us. It is characteristic of human nature to forget the struggle with all its sorrows and remember only the prize to which it led.

The intervening years since the civil war have burned out all the anger and now we keep Memorial Day. Each year as the beautiful month of May hastens to a close we gather our garlands and far away from the scenes of strife, in grave yards that never heard the roar of hostile cannons, we lay our flowers on the graves of those who fought in the great battle of life; a struggle that is never ending and by many it is a heedless one.

The danger and stress of life's battle field to many is that they have too much of every thing to enjoy much of any thing. We are busy with doing, we lay up treasures on earth, but we leave ourselves little leisure for enjoyment. The world is too much with us, getting and giving, all our powers are spent. The true patriot realizes that no one can live his own life unto himself. This might have been done in the olden time when life was simpler, wants less, and intercourse with one another almost nil; but in the complexity of our modern life and the means of rapid intercourse with each other it is seen that the interests of one is necessarily bound up with the welfare of all.

The last Memorial Service in Moro was May 25th, 1908, under the auspices of W.T.Sherman post number 4 G. A. R. The veterans present on that occasion were
Perry Chandler, 1st Maine cavlry
L. Mowry, 118th Illinois infantry
Geo. Meader, 24th Maine infntry
W. Ratcliffe, 128th Ohio infantry
Isaac Thompson, 121st Illinois inf
J.H.Johnson, 130th Illinois infntry
A. Nish, 95th Illinois infantry
Simon Elcock, 1st Minnesota heavy artillery
J.M.Parry, 1st NewYork light artly
G.F.Wilson, 13th Tennessee cvlry
Walter Stanley, 18th Indiana infty
Of the above, Comrades Stanley and Ratcliffe have answered the last roll call.

The Memorial address was by Rev. Perry Chandler and of this address the Observer said: In his closing remarks, "what of the future," "the writer felt as tho he had come in contact with an electric battery; passing in review the history of the Anglo-Saxon race for the past two thousand years; always fighting for the right, as he saw it; always for liberty; and each conflict brought him nearer to the goal; that the four years of struggle during our civil war was only a part of that same combat and we are still the same militant race, always ready to fight for the right as we may see it."

The Sherman County Field Meet.

The field meet this year was held at Moro and was won by the Wasco school in one, two, three order. This time the cup goes to Wasco as a permanent trophy of how much more competent are pupils of that district in athletics than are the other districts of the county.

The cup is used in the meet as an emblem of victory, copying somewhat after the old Greek fashion of giving a wreath which sooner or late faded away. The Wasco school has been winner of two cups, the first and third, while Grass Valley has won the second.

A special excursion train was run from Wasco in the morning and to Wasco and Grass Valley in the evening; a certain number of tickets being guaranteed by the business men of those places before the railroad would agree to operate the special trains.

Financial returns to the field meet association were very satisfactory, some $300 being realized over and above expense incurred. This is a larger per cent than John D. realizes from his oil investments.

At the oratorical contest in the evening first place in the C division was won by Ruth Bryant of Moro, and second place by Ruth Akers of Wasco; in B division first place was won by Prudence Dingle of Wasco and second place by Thelma Buxton of Moro; in A division first place was won by Elmer Barzee of Moro, and second place by Audrey Medler of Wasco.

Those winning first place in the oratorical contest received a gold medal and those winning second place a silver medal; suitably engraved commemorative of the occasion.

Severe Attack of Colic Cured.

E. E. Cross, who travels in Virginia and other Southern States, was taken suddenly and severely ill with colic. At the first store he came to the merchant recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Two doses of it cured him. No one should leave home on a journey without a bottle of this preparation. For sale by all dealers.—Advertisement.

Good Printing

conveys an idea of success. You may never see the man himself. It's his letter head, his envelope, his business card, circulars or catalogue. You size the man up by these things. What impression of a man and his business do you get if he writes to you on wrapping paper or axle grease stationery? How does yours look? Is it neat, tasty and modern? It is if The Moro Observer Job Department prints it. Better bring in that next job.
