MORO, OREGON.

Mrs. Sarah Landry has been quite sick this week.

See Mullikin "the harness maker" at Wasco, Oregon.

Miss Mabel Byers is visiting at the home of her sister at Tygh.

O. A. Ramsey has painted his barn a neat shade of tan with white trimming.

Mrs. Sarah Landry is having a neat picket fence built in front of the family residence.

Miss Ruth Christiansen returned Sunday to Portland where she is attending a special school.

Russell W. Nicholson was a visitor from Independence this week at the home of his uncle, J. A.
Nicholson.

Cello canal and locks were tested by the government engineers this week preliminary to active use next month.

Mrs. Grace Bishop of Milwaukee is visiting her sister, Mrs. O. H.
Hadden, before leaving for her future home at Los Angeles.

A delegation of Sherman county citizens met with a party of railway officials Friday noon at Sherman to discuss the building of a wagon road to that station.

Your chickens will soon pay for them selves in increased egg production if you will use a quart can of carbolineum around the chicken house and perches; you can get it at the Observer Store.

Success in farming depends upon proper methods and not too liberal use of credit.

Mrs. Frank Scott of Klondike was a visitor this week at the home of Mrs. F. E. Fortner.

Carbolinum, fresh stock, direct from Germany, now on sale at The Observer Book Store.

Chas. Davis is making the galvanized caves troughs and connections, for the Hansell home.

Word has been received at this place of the death of Mrs. Wm.
Hines at the family home in Hood River.

The Tumalum Lumber Co. has supplied A. C. Thompson with a quantity of fencing material for his Monkland farm.

Mrs. O. C. Mortenson entertained Tuesday evening, at the family home on the Heights, with an old fashioned candy pull.

Special matinee Sunday afternoon at five o'clock at Burnett's Moro theatre. Price of admission reduced to 5c and 10c. Four reel show.

Frank L. Hulery and Harold S.
Chamberlain were baseball fans from Sherman county at the opening game of the season last week in Portland.

Chas. Davis returned Wednesday from the farm of Hugh Shull where he installed a new bathroom equipment, a kitchen sink and an outside wash room.

When in The Dalles try the Hotel Albert special 25c lunch; noon and evening; free auto bus meets all trains; thirty minutes for lunch when going to Portland.

C. W. Moore was a business visitor in Sherman county from The Dalles last Wednesday; attending the quarterly directors meeting of the Citizens bank at Grass Valley.

Twenty five little schoolmates of Lenore Amidon helped her celebrate her seventh birthday Saturday afternoon, April 10th, at her home. Ice cream and cake were served as refreshments.

Mrs. Fred Ottman of Portland, and Mrs. G. C. Vinton of Grass Valley, were visitors Sunday at the home of their sister, Mrs. G. B.
Bourhill. Mrs. Ottman returned to her home at Portland Tuesday.

Mrs. Wm. Henrich fell from the front porch of the family residence Tuesday of this week and suffered a badly sprained wrist.
A jokester has intimated to us that the lady lost her balance at one of Bill's fish stories, but we have not credited that contingency.

The Scotch of our M. E. friend Rev. Robertson was too much for the Observer editor in referring to the Easter offering. It should be stated as seventeen and not seventy dollars as the types were made to say. We are hoping that next time it may be the larger sum.

Harry Walther of the Walther-Williams Auto Co. at The Dalles, was a business visitor in Sherman county this week accompanied by an expert mechanic from Studebaker service department who was helping Studebaker auto owners to a better mechanical understanding of their cars.

A. J. West, more familiarly to old residents known as "Allie," is now working at the Ray Ragsdale farm south west of Grass Valley. Allie was in Moro this week, on his return from Williamette valley; he said he had leased his Lincoln county farm and was preparing to move back to Sherman county.

The management of the Observer has succeeded this week in having moved from the common dumping hole back of this office a mess of filthy rubbish dumped against the back of our building.
We give warning now, without further parley, that if the marshal and city authorities allow such a thing to again happen we will call in the state board of health and close it up by legal process.

The two story annex to the I. O. O. F. building, is finished.
This week all the exterior evidence has been removed, such as surplus lumber, brick, etc., and the surroundings are neater than when the work was begun. The building and lodge halls are creditable to even a larger city than Moro. Among other utilities the lodge hall is supplied with a spacious kitchen, fully equip; room for small dancing parties, and the usual cloak and ante-rooms.

pany, Moro, Oregon.

Clifford Kerr is putting a glossy coat of white with black trimming on the Hansell residence.

Rev. Robertson, of Moro M.E. church, is at Arlington this week attending quarterly conference.

Mrs. G. E. Lewellen was a visitor in Portland this week, during the opera season of which she attended four.

A number of autos were in Moro last Sunday conveying several parties apleasuring over the fine roads of this county.

A child's gold band bracelet has been left at this office by the finder. Owner can have same by identifying it and paying for this notice.

Al Sterling, former Sherman county resident now living at Pacific Grove, Cal., is in the county on his first visit to his farm in seven years.

Sherman county was visited Monday afternoon and evening by another good sized rain storm.
Six tenths of an inch of rain was the record at the experiment farm.

J. M. Axtell was severely hurt at the Commercial store Monday afternoon when the chime of a heavy vinegar barrel caught his leg and pinned him to the wall.
Fortunately no bones were broken in the upset.

The Gilliam county court is having an exhibit building erected at Arlington where grains, fruits, and grasses, indigenous to the county may be displayed to tempt the passing stranger to tarry.

Dr. C. L. Poley accompanied Martin Hansen to Portland Monday where an operation was submitted to by Mr. Hansen the next day, disclosing an abscess at the direct cause of his ill health. Dr.
Poley returned Wednesday with news of expected quick recovery by his patient.

J. A. Rasmussen was in town Saturday, a jovial caller at this office. John gave us an invitation to "come out and run a plow team" if we had a desire to get inoculated with this magnificent spring weather. We sure would accept if we had not a date with a lawn mower evenings after hours, to keep us to him.

Word has been received by friends at Moro of the death of Mrs. George Bunn at the family home in The Dalles. Funeral services were held last Sunday afternoon from the Catholic cathedral at The Dalles. The family were former residents of this county, residing near Wasco where they yet have farm interest.

Easter exercises at Spaulding chapel, Sunday last, were largely attended, quite a number being present from Moro and Boardman. The Sunday School gave an interesting program and afterwards a sumptuous basket dinner was served in the open air. The pastor preached an Easter sermon in the afternoon. Such gatherings in rural communities, where the people have a time of social intercourse, are a source of much pleasure and benefit. During the lunch hour an interested observer noted more than ten automobiles grouped around the church.
