Best macilage and brushes at the Observer Book Store.

Tuesday, May 11th, born to Senator and Mrs. W. H. Ragdale, a son.

Abstracts promptly made by the Sherman County Abstract Company, Moro, Oregon.

Mrs. W. F. Jackson is entertaining Mrs. Carlson from The Dalles a former resident of this city.

Fred Haynes was a delegate to the grand lodge I. O. O. F. at Newport this week from Kent lodge.

Martin Hansen and family are now at home in their own domicile recently purchased from Hy Donley.

W. T. McCoy of this city and Miss Opal Rich of Wasco were married Tuesday, May 11th, at The Dalles.

Both the J. N. Landry and the R. T. Morgan horses won places in the harness events at Antelope races last week.

Mrs. A. C. Huff and daughter, Mrs. H. F. Moore, of Spokane, is visiting friends and relatives at Moro and vicinity.

Mrs. W. C. Guyton of the delegate this week from Rebecca lodge at Kent to the grand lodge meeting at Newport.

H. U. Martin left for The Dalles late Tuesday afternoon because of serious illness of Uncle James Martin at the hospital in that city.

The Moro Hardware and Implement Co. has sold Herman Christianson a quantity of paint with which to coat the barn and garage on the farm.

The railroad company has put in a despatcher's phone at the station in Kent and will soon add a local phone. Fred Haynes has been appointed agent.

When in The Dalles try the Hotel Albert special 25c lunch; noon and evening; free auto bus meets all trains; thirty minutes for lunch when going to Portland.

April showers and sunny days mixed with some wind, is the Sherman county weather report of the last two weeks. An inch and a quarter of rain fell in that time.

Contractor O. H. Hadden has the work at the Presbyterian church nicely started. Excavation for the new annex and building is finished and the concrete work is being started.

Moro won the baseball game Sunday from Goldendale by a score of 15 to 4. The run from Goldendale was made in an hour and fifty minutes, fifteen minutes being used on the ferry.

Mrs. Lottie Lee and her Sunday School class from the Presbyterian church took their lunch Saturday and went afield after wild flowers. As a result the pulpit was nicely decorated Sunday with the Indian Camas blooms.

E. E. and J. R. Kaseberg, together with their families, left Portland on the 17th for the big fair at San Francisco. They will tour California by auto for several weeks, returning to Sherman county via Bend the latter part of June.

Don't forget to consult Drs. Lowe & Turner, eye specialists, at Hotel Moro on next Monday and Tuesday, May 24th and 25th, Grass Valley Saturday May 22d, Wasco Wednesday May 26th, at Kent Thursday May 27th until 3 p. m. only.

Graduating exercises of the class of 1915 of the Moro High School will be held at the M. E. church Friday evening, May 28th at eight o'clock. President Ackerman of the Monmouth Normal School will deliver the class address. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Those in charge of the Dorcas hall should see to it when allowing it to be used for parties that a proper restraint be placed upon the young people gathered there. Lately it is more of a pretext to turn loose a bunch of hoodlums which if allowed to continue generally results in a grand jury.

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Mary J. Taylor, a popular Moro school teacher, to Roy P. Hulise, a successful farmer and business man of this vicinity. The ladies of the Dorcas Society gave a shower at the home of Mrs. J. C. McKean Friday of this week in honor of Miss Taylor.

Mrs. Curtis E. Johnson and baby are visiting in Portland at the home of her mother.

A short program was enjoyed by the patrons of Fairview school district 21, Friday-May 14th.

Don't forget that we are going to have some Speed at the county fair race track at Moro on Friday the 28th.

Mrs. J. H. Brown of Portland was a visitor in Moro this week at the home of her brother in law, Sam Brisbin.

D. E. Stephens and sons Edmund and Thomas were fishing at Shearers last Saturday, making the trip by train.

To loan, $1500 to $2000 on first mortgage farm property, interest eight per cent. Sherman County-Abstract Company.

O. L. Belshee and family and J. A. Rasmussen and family left Wednesday by auto for the exhibitions in California.

Miss Ida Belle Urquhart returned Saturday from Lind, Wash., where she has been visiting with relatives and attending school.

The E. E. Lyon farm of 960 acres, located a few miles south of Wasco, was sold on the 15th to Dr. J. R. Morgan, R. H. McKean and J. R. Kaseberg.

D. E. Maxwell is taking down the small building owned by him on Main street, joining the Hotel Moro, and will haul the lumber to his farm east of Moro.

Baseball at Moro, county fair grounds, after the races on the 28th. Portland vs Moro, three days and a game a day. Be sure and come as it will be a humdinger of a base ball series.

Miss Pearl Thompson returned Wednesday from a twenty day stay with Mrs. John Hastings at the family home east of Moro, where Mrs. Hastings has been seriously ill with pneumonia under the care of Dr. Morse. The patient is now well on the road to recovery, being able to sit up Tuesday for the first time.

Miss Vesta Morrison is visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. M. G. Snider. Miss Morrison is from San Diego, Cal., where a second world's fair and exposition is being held this year in California. The San Diego exposition is not so well advertised, therefore not so generally known, as the San Francisco fair, but it is the most unique and attractive of all world fairs held in recent years.

Hayden Brisbine, E. B. Miller, George Frantz and H. M. Benson were a party of four successful fishermen who last week remembered the Observer editor. They brought home eight salmon and a number of trout as a result of the outing. The salmon are so plentiful that the quicker way to catch them is to wade into the water and seize them with the hands as they swim past.

May 28th is a big day for sport in Moro. Speed program on the county fair track begins at 1:30 and the same afternoon, at the fair grounds, baseball between the Moro team and a team from Portland. Moro business men have signed a cash guarantee to induce outside horses to compete. The two following days the Portland team will finish a three game series with our local team.

The Hotel Vinton at Grass Valley shows evidence of progressive management, under the capable supervision of Lottie A. Vinton. The most important part of any hotel is the kitchen and that part of the Hotel Vinton has just been remodeled and done over in white. The entire hotel property has been thoroughly renovated in preparation for the coming season and the dining room will be re-papered before the work will be finished.

Friday, the 14th, about fifteen ladies of Moro gathered at the home of Mrs. M. H. Rust, south of Moro, in honor of her 80th birthday. The visit, while not exactly a surprise, was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Several useful gifts were presented Mrs. Rust as a memento of the occasion, she being a great reader and very active for her years. Refreshments were served, consisting of strawberries and cake. Among the older neighbors present were Mrs. E. J. Powell, Mrs. John Johnson, Mrs. Jas. Woods, and Mrs. A. C. Huff and daughter, Mrs. H. F. Moore, from Spokane.

Carbolinum, fresh stock, direct from Germany, now on sale at The Observer Book Store.

Special matinee Sunday afternoon at five o'clock at Burnetts Moro theatre. Price of admission reduced to 5c and 10c. Four reel show.
