Eugene, are visiting at the home of her sister Mrs. Howard Conlee.

F. E. Fagan is having material delivered at his residence for a concrete wall fence soon to be built.

The Tomlin Weeder is rapidly proving itself to be the one best weeder made. Ginn, Coleman & Co. sell them.

G. W. Hansell, N. W. Thompson, Dayton Henrichs and wife are on a fishing trip to Badger creek, near Wamic.

Ivy Kingdon, who has been visiting with her aunt, Mrs. Amidon, and attending school, left Saturday for her home near Seattle.

Two Tomlin weeders are being used on Col. C. A. Buckley's large farm west of Grass Valley; as is also two by Starr Ruggles west of Monkland.

Omar Sayrs and family with their Overland, and C. G. Silver with their Studebaker, expect to leave Monday on a fishing trip to the Big Meadows.

Those desiring to obtain concessions at Demoss Park during the celebration this year should apply to George Demoss and put in their bids not later than 21st.

Carroll Sayrs accidentally shot himself in the foot Friday noon at the farm west of Moro. He was brought to town the next day and is now able to be about town on crutches.

Chester Titus, manager of the Jone ball team, desires thro the Observer to thank the Moro team management and people for the courteous treatment accorded the visitors from Jone.

Sticks poked through cracks of the Demoss warehouse has provided good hog feed during the winter, but when the day of reckoning came the price came near being mighty expensive.

Miss Grace Lindahl and brother A. J. Lindahl, of Woodburn, are visitors in Moro at the home of their sister, Mrs. F. E. Dunton. Mr.
Lindahl is helping with the construction of the new residence his brother in law is building, on Court street.

Elvin Fuller, son of A. K. Fuller was drowned Sunday evening near their new home at Castle Rock, Wash. A number of Sherman county friends of the family joined in sending a floral offering in an anchor design for the funeral on Tuesday the 8th.

Try the famous Sunday dinner at the Hotel Moro.

have been visiting with their son, J. C., at Wasco, returned to their home in the valley Thursday.

Mrs. C. L. Dunton, who was visiting at the home of her son, Prof. F. E. Dunton, returned by Wednesday train to her home at Molalla.

Ira K. Axtell lost his family driving horse last week. It is thot it hurt its head during the night, being found dead in its stall one morning.

Cards have been received announcing the graduation from the Portland Academy of Miss Jeannette A. Grosfield of Wasco, this Friday evening.

Signers of the Demoss Pioneer Picnic Association charter fund are being requested to send their $1 to the secretary, C. L. Ireland at Moro, so that the celebration plan can go ahead.

Since the arrival of a baby at the Dunton home the Prof. seems to have lost a part of his interest in the residence. He is building on Court street. Mr. Dunton says he is waiting for lumber.

Miss Mary J. Taylor and R. P.
Hulse were married Wednesday at the home of the parents of the bride in Portland. Mr. and Mrs.
Hulse will be at home, on the farm east of Moro, after the 14th.

I. E. Wilson had six horses stolen from his pasture, located in Wasco county west of Kent. After search they were found in a field six miles from home. A colt also missing from the same field has not been found.

The first Oregon grown peaches for this season were shipped into Portland June 11th from the Fleck Orchard Company at Rufus. This is the fourth year that this company has been the first to ship the market Oregon grown peaches.

A Sunday School picnic will be held at Ritchey's grove, near the Hay Canyon school house, on Friday, June 18th. Baseball will be played between the Boardman and Hay Canyon nines. Every body is invited. Come and bring your basket. A good time is anticipated.

J. M. Eddy wants to serve warning to reckless drivers of autos, particularly those using the Lone Rock grade and a better observance of the rules of the road. If this warning does not remedy the trouble he will complain to the secretary of state who will see to it that the sheriff keep offending drivers and machines off all the county roads for a year.

We hear of a number of progressive Sherman county farmers who are using the Tomlin weeder on their farms. In the Rutledge district Clarence Whitman and Arthur Smith have found it the best machine for the purpose. A little to the north of them it can be seen at work on the farms of M. C. Davis and G. A. Simon. In the Boardman neighborhood, it is being used by Chas. Kinney and Wolfgang Belshee.
