Wednesday on his way home to Kent. He said the rain had stopt combine work near Wasco.

A. G. Anderson, who has been suffering from an irritating form of diabetes for some time, left Tuesday for the state hospital at Pendleton.

Sherman county experienced a general rainfall this week that has retarded harvest to some extent but which will benefit the late sown grains.

Mrs. Clifford Dannels, niece of Chas. Bullard, left Tuesday for her home at Vancouver. Mr.
Dannels remains to make a hand in the harvest.

There will be a meeting at the Demoss Grove next Sunday afternoon, July 18, at 3 o'clock. Rev.
U. S. Crowder of Wasco will preach. All are invited.

the Hay Canyon picnic June 18th at Ritchey's grove. Finder please leave at the Observer office or return to Wesley Dillinger, Monk-land.

O. W. Axtell was a visitor this week from Eugene, on his way home from Rochester, New York where he attended the Presbyterian general assembly as a delegate from Oregon.

Your chickens will soon pay for them selves in increased egg production if you will use a quart can of carbolinum around the chicken house and perches; you can get it at the Observer Store.

S. D. and C. L. Montgomery have received word that their sister Mrs. Charles B. Parkhurst, is very ill in a hospital at Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, with no hope of recovery. She is afflicted with that rare disease, Pelegria.

O. B. Messinger and wife were auto guests Sunday of George Kaseberg and family, attending the dedicatory services of the Christian church at Wasco in the morning and enjoying the basket lunch possibilities after the service.

Church Dedication at Wasco.

The dedicatory exercises of the Christian church at Wasco last Sunday were most instructive, several attending from Moro and Kent. After the sermon by Rev.
Meldrum an offering and subscription of several hundred dollars was received, to apply on the debt remaining. The church building is a fine, roomy edifice with ample space under the main auditorium floor for class rooms, a furnace now installed, and meeting and work room for church society affairs.

One party from Moro, in two autos, were C. L. Ireland and wife, Mrs. Laura Moore, visiting from Portland, Mrs. A. J. Adams, J. F.
Foss and family, and E. H. Moore and family; taking their lunch with them and accepting an invitation to make use of the accommodations provided. Another party, in five machines from Kent, were the Wilson brothers, their father, mother and families, R. J. Harbin and Ben Sias and families, who also had lunch after the service.

That Grape Smash sold by L. W.
Ross is a fine drink.

been visiting with relatives and friends at and near Moro, left Wednesday for Grass Valley for a short visit there, before returning to her home at Portland.

Geo. Kaseberg has bought a Dodge car, to fit in with his farm recently bought, located west of Wasco. The place now being farmed by Mr. Kaseberg, north of Wasco, after October will be in charge of C. H. Howell.

One of the most entertaining lecture talks presented to a Moro audience for some time was that of Prof. J. B. Horner, of Oregon Agricultural College, last Sunday evening at the M. E. church. Mr.
Horner is a very entertaining and able speaker, illustrating his lecture with stereopticon views secured by himself when in Egypt.

Miss Ida Montgomery entertained at supper Wednesday evening in honor of her friends, the Misses Annabel and Alice Wood, of Everett, Wash. Others present were Misses Vivien Strong and Ruth McClelland, of Moro; Miss Inez McMillen of Wasco, and Miss Vesta Morrison of San Diego California. The Misses Wood will leave next week for their new home at Nappa, Cal.

Moro Hardware & Implmt Co

A Meritorious Institution

Established as a Bank in 1896 by Moore Bros. with a capital of $10,000; capital increased in 1903 to $20,000; changed to a State Bank in 1907 with a capital of $25,000; TODAY with a capital and surplus of $34,000 and total resources of $102,000 we are BETTER, BIGGER,
AND
STRONGER than ever.

During the 19 years of our existence, our aim has been to extend our patrons the best possible service. Our steady growth is evidence that the banking institution, which throws the greatest safeguards around its business in order to protect its depositors, merits the confidence of the public. If you are not a customer of this Bank let this be your invitation to become one; our relations will be mutually profitable.
