Playground Apparatus

DESIGNED BY

Tum-A-Lum Lumber Co.
(ENGINEERING DEPARTMENT)

In this scheme of playground apparatus we furnish all lumber millwork including the teeter boards and swinging ladder and the cement

At $22.40

The above scheme shows (reading from left to right) a teeter board, a swinging ladder, two swings, a trapeze, a pair of rings, climbing rope, climbing ladder, sliding rods, horizontal bar, giant stride and basket ball stops. Playground apparatus has been found to be the greatest asset to the school grounds in promoting good wholesome play and exercise.

For a very small expense the school ground can be equipped with this modern playground apparatus. We furnish FREE COMPLETE PLANS showing how to install this work. Let us tell you about the lost cost of the material.

WELCOME NEWS FOR

LOCAL PEOPLE

People in this town will be glad to hear that the mixture of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., known as Adier-kia, can be obtained at our store. This simple remedy became famous by curing appendicitis and it has been found that JUST A SINGLE DOSE relieves sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation INSTANTLY because it draws off such surprising amount of old foul matter from the body.

R. D. Jackson, druggist.

Mrs. O. A. Ramsey was a Wasco visitor this week.

See Mullikin "the harness maker" at Wasco, Oregon.

Just received a shipment of fresh candies. L. W. ROSS.

Abstracts promptly made by the Sherman County Abstract Company, Moro, Oregon.

Mrs. A. P. Altematt and Mrs. Fowle, of Rufus, expect to leave this week for a visit at the San Francisco Exposition.

Mrs. M. V. Hennagin and daughter Maggie were visitors in Sherman county last week from McMinnville.

A. H. Barnum shipped one of his prize winning Hereford bulls Sunday evening to A. J. Holt at Kent.

L. B. Payne is building a 14x20 addition, to be used as a kitchen, onto the farm residence of Alex McNab, eight miles from Rufus.

Lee S. Hines has bought the Rich & Fields meat market at Wasco and is prepared to buy your livestock any time you want to sell.

While working in the lunch room of W. T. McCoy fair week George Hansen cut the index finger of his right hand to and along the bone.

Judge Fred Krasow left his car by the roadside Saturday as he was coming to the Sherman county fair. A broken steering knuckle was the cause.

W. J. Martin, jr., of Dixie, Wash., was a recent visitor at the home of his aunt and uncle, L. H. Martin, on his way home from Portland.

Ralph P. Brisbine and Miss Havie Stella Hansen were married Wednesday evening, October 6th, at the M. E. parsonage, Rev. Robertson officiating.

Dr. Poley was called to attend Arthur Smith, brother to Lester K. and Chester W., who had both bones of his left leg broken at the ankle Tuesday morning about 7 o'clock. He was helping tear down an old building on the farm, east of Wasco, when he lost his balance and fell about 14 feet.

Jockey Ahearn was thrown in one of the races Saturday afternoon and had three ribs broken. Not knowing he was injured he rode the next race. He called upon Dr. Poley about an hour after that and had the ribs set to place, leaving the next day for his home.

Married—At the residence of A. C. Thompson in Monkland Tuesday at 8 p. m., Martin G. Melzer and Edna H. Thompson. None but the immediate relatives of the bride and groom were present. The ceremony, a ring service, was performed by Rev. A. J. Adams.

George Blackburne took a load of passengers to Wasco Saturday evening and upon his return noticed that his auto was not "pulling" as it should. When he drove into the garage he had a bundle of barb wire fastened to his crank handle and trailing along under the car. Anyone losing the wire can get it at the garage as George says he does not need it.

Wm. Oehman, of Rufus, with his auto, and A. H. Bowman, motor cycle rider of Grass Valley, met in a head on collision between Moro and the fair grounds Friday evening. Bowman was going out as the stream of autos and buggies were coming to town; Oehman was trying to pass the delivery wagon of O. B. Messenger which he had overtaken and in doing so struck Bowman. The motorcycle front frame was damaged and Bowman received a rupture on the right side.

Oehman had his tire cut and blown out. Dr. Poley attended the injured man and reports he expects to allow him to leave the Hotel Moro, where he is confined to his room, for his home in Grass Valley the last of this week.

Mrs. M. C. Snider was a Moro visitor at Wasco on Monday.
