MORO, OREGON.

Official Paper for Sherman County.

FRIDAY, April 7, 1916

Entered as second class matter at the post office at Moro, Oregon, July 25, 1891.

C. L. IRELAND, Manager.

If you do not read The Observer, why not?

We would like to have you take it, and we know it would be profitable to you to become a subscriber. We send it two years for $2.50; one year $1.50; 12¢ a month in advance. Try it. Order by postal card, and pay for it when you can. We will not be responsible for the neglect of subscribers to notify us of changes in their address. Nor will the notification of a Postmaster that the subscriber has "Removed" settle the bill of a delinquent.

Church and Society notices FREE, except when for money making purposes. Such notices at regular rates at the option of the publishers.

At any time when requested to do so, the paper will be discontinued. But we expect that all arrears will be paid before such request is made. It is easy to ask us for a statement, which will be cheerfully rendered at any time.

The entertainment at the opera house last Friday evening by Prof. Frank Thomas Chapman and his talented wife, Madame Pauline Miller Chapman, assisted by Miss VanDycke, accompanist, under the auspices of Moro High School was a musical treat of rare merit. Such close attention as was manifested by the audience throughout the entire program was in itself the most sincere appreciation that only true art may have. Several attended from Wasco, and a few from Grass Valley and Kent.

City election day in Moro was a very quiet affair. To keep from going asleep the election board had to go out on the street and urge the voters to attend to their civic duty. The caucus nominees were all elected, with a few scattering votes for others.

L. V. Moore and O. G. Sayers have each recently purchased a 16-inch Flying Dutchman gang plow from the Moro Hardware and Implement Co.

PLUG CHEWING A WHOLESOME HABIT

In No Other Way Can You Get All the Richness and Flavor of the Leaf

"SPEAR HEAD" BEST CHEW

Many prominent physicians declare chewing to be the most wholesome way of enjoying tobacco.

"I began chewing some years ago," said one, "and I soon found that it is the only way to get the benefit of all the rich juices stored up by nature in the tobacco leaf. I refer, of course, to the plug form of tobacco, which is the most natural and the cleanest form."

"Chewing good tobacco like Spear Head makes the salivary glands more active, which in turn has a beneficial effect on the whole system. Add to this the sweet, mellow, delicious flavor of a chew of Spear Head, and you have the highest possible degree of tobacco satisfaction."

"I mention Spear Head because I have found that this brand is exceptionally pure, being made in a factory that's run strictly according to pure-food rules."

Spear Head is made of sun-ripened Burley, which is acknowledged to be the richest, mildest, finest flavored tobacco leaf in the world. And it is produced by the latest processes, which develop the quality and luscious flavor of the choice Burley to the supreme degree.

A chew of Spear Head has a wholesome relish that is not found in any other chewing tobacco. In 10¢ cuts, wrapped in wax paper.

News Notes from Kent.

Edited by Viola Bennett.

Mrs. Hogue visited the school Monday evening.

Rev. Magwood held services in Kent last Sunday, morning and evening.

Eighteen pupils in each room were neither absent nor tardy last month.

Frances Morrow has started to school again, after an absence of several weeks.

Miss Ella Kirby and sister, from Shaniko, were visiting here Saturday and Sunday.

A party was given at the home of Lola Young Saturday evening. All present report a good time.

The pupils of the primary room have been making a small garden on one corner of the school ground.

Those who did not miss any words in the spelling contest week were Adelia and Margaret Gates, Vera Gillmor, Basil Morrow, and Viola Bennett.

The pupils of the primary room have started a bird club, by electing Roy Justeson president; Orma Walton, secretary; and Merritt Wattles, treasurer.

Several people from Kent visited the Wilcox Sunday School last Sunday. A lunch was served by the ladies, after which Rev. Magwood held services.

Those from the primary room who did not miss any words last week were Roy Justeson, Lyle Hogue, Donald Haynes, Willie Young, Merritt Wattles, and Harold Howell.

Messrs. W. H. Ragsdale, G. A. Meloy, and F. A. Sayers, appointed by the county court to appraise the property of the Barton estate, appraised the property in Sherman county last week. To reach Rohr Villa, on the DesChutes river, they had to walk down the old Harris grade, the larger part of which they report to be entirely gone, through neglect and erosion caused by storms.

Abstracts promptly made by the Sherman County Abstract Company, Moro, Oregon.

A News Letter From Wasco.

Fine growing weather, fall wheat doing fine and everybody northeast of Wasco says their wheat is nice this spring, quite a number have started in summer fallowing.

Arnold Buhman has placed his order with G.N. Crosfield for a new 1916 Maxwell. Says he expects to raise some dust soon, as the auto should be here by next Tuesday.

It seems as though the more automobiles, the more interest farmers are putting in on the road work and not letting all the responsibility rest with the supervisor. If all would give a helping hand, we would soon have our roads as they should be, but there are always a few that haven't "got" the time—to work roads.

Bob Richardson, cement contractor of Wasco, is putting in the cement work for the new bridge in China hollow, two miles north of Wasco. This is some very much needed work and will be much appreciated by all who travel over that place hereafter. It has been a disgrace to that district to allow such a mud hole to exist so long.

Several new culverts will be put in the bad crossings on the Scott canyon road, in district one, this week or as soon as possible. Road Supervisor Mathieson has ordered the lumber hauled. One culvert will be put in at A. Buhman's, two at H. Hill's and one below where the spring crosses the road. After these are in, we will have a pretty good piece of road in Scott canyon.

Clinton Brock, the 8-year old son of S. J. Brock of near Rufus, fell off his pony one day last week and broke his right arm above the elbow. Slim MacNab took him in his car to Wasco where Dr. Morse took care of him. The accident happened a half mile from home, but he got up and walked home. When he got in the house he told his mother that he had broken his arm, and not until then did he start to cry.

Last Sunday a number of friends and neighbors of Mrs. J. G. Medler tendered her a surprise birthday dinner party. Those present were S. J. Brock and family, J. S. Brock and wife of Crook, Wash., J. K. Mersinger and family, Slim MacNab and family, Frank Medler and family, Art Smith and family, Arnold Buhman and family, E. A. Medler and wife, Grandpa Medler, C. M. Brock, Mrs. M. Booth, Mrs. Anna Medler and son, Jas. Brady, Miss Rose Melzer, Miss McGregor, Mrs. Lamborn of Wasco, Mrs. B. F. Medler, Ross Guilford; in all there were 58.

The dinner was surely a nice one and was enjoyed by all. The only regret being that J. G. Medler took down with the gripe the evening before and was a pretty sick man at the time and was not able to be out and enjoy the affair with the rest.

Base Ball Items.

The second game of the season resulted just as disastrously for Moro as did the first. Moro traveled to Grass Valley with all the confidence in the world and then some, and it might be said this over-load of confidence was their own undoing.

Moro began to hit and field in topnotch order and after they had taken their turn at bat in the 4th inning the score was six to one, ordinarily a lead-pipe cinch, but when Grass town had finished their turn; or, more properly, their turn and a half; Moro's five run lead was overcome and the boys in the new suits were four to the good. From hereon Moro was outplayed to a finish of fifteen to eight.

Moro appreciates Grass Valley's calibre, but our boys declare that when they once hit their stride the edge of the season's play will be brought home, no more to roam.

The next game will be Sunday on the home lot, with that scrappy Dufur bunch. Two years ago these same two teams played a hotly contested seven inning tie, being interrupted by a hail storm. Last Sunday Dufur beat The Dalles by a score of six to eight.

If you have a news item, tell it to the Observer. Don't imagine we know it and then wonder why it is not in the paper 'phone it in.

Local Church Announcements for Sunday, April 9.

Methodist church:
Sunday School at 10:00 a. m.
Preaching service in Spaulding at 12 (noon) and in Moro at 7:30 p. m.
All are heartily invited.
John Robertson, pastor.

Presbyterian church:
Sabbath School at 10 a. m.
Services morning and evening.
Let us worship God by families as far as possible, each family occupying the same seat. This was the old time way of worshipping God and is most pleasing to Him. Let us try it at both services on next Lords Day. Father, mother children, every body come.
A. J. Adams, Pastor.

At the annual meeting of the membership of the Presbyterian church, held after morning service last Sunday, the out-going officers were re-elected. The officers of the church and members of the Dorcas society were each given a vote of thanks in appreciation of their efforts during the year. The congregation and Dorcas society raised more than $3000 the past year. During the same time seven were added to the membership on profession of faith and four by certificate, the total membership is 82. The enrollment of the Sunday School is 107; the average attendance for the year, 77; contributions for the year, $117.
