Get Together and Talk it Over.

In view of the present crowded condition in the grade school and the certain increase in high school attendance next year, which will make it impossible for the high school to remain in its present quarters, and taking into consideration several other conditions which are present, it seems advisable to call a meeting of the patrons of Moro school district to discuss what shall be done to accommodate the pupils next year. In view of the above the Board has authorized the calling of a meeting for Saturday, May 13th, at 2:30 p.m. at the school house. Be present if possible and present your views.

All departments of the Moro school is growing rapidly. The high school this year is nearly half larger than last year and will be double that of last year at the next term of school, if facilities for the accommodation of the pupils be provided. Under the high school law, financially, a building would pay for itself in a few years from revenues that, otherwise, would be lost to the district.

J. W. McCulloch for Public Service Commissioner.

The voters at the primaries May 19th should carefully consider the different candidates for Public Service Commissioner before voting and a candidate who is well qualified for the position should be selected.

Great good can be accomplished by the right kind of a commissioner and great harm can be done by a commissioner who is not qualified for the position.

J. W. McCulloch of Malheur county, is endorsed for this position by Judges, Public Officials, Businessmen, Farmers, Stockmen, Local Granges, County Granges, and all classes of citizens.

You can make no mistake by supporting J. W. McCulloch for Public Service Commissioner.

Notes From DeMoss Springs.

The new barn of B. F. Peetz is growing rapidly.

W. A. Norcross was smoothing the streets of DeMoss Monday.

The DeMoss Store is doing nicely. Come in and give us a call.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Hall of Monkland, visited with David Nish and family Sunday.

Ben Hockman has finished the summer fallowing of his big field and has only 70 acres to finish.

Albert Pentacost lost a mare and colt on the 9th. He had a veterinary, but could not save them.

I. P. Hardin returned home on Monday from a two weeks visit with his daughter, Mrs. Ev Sink, at Portland.

Summer fallowing on Sunrise Farm was finished by its owner, John DeMoss, on the 5th plowing all told, better than 250 acres.

Love your neighbor as yourself but if you can't, move to some other part of town.

A man's ignorance is only equalled by his opinionatedness; when he is arguing against you, of course.

Speaking much while knowing little; spending much and saving little and presuming greatly though being worth little; play the mischief with men.

Moro High School Notes.

Edited by Marie Morrison and George Hansen

The 8th-grade examinations have been very unsuccessful.

Neale Freeman has been out a few days because of a bad cold.

The seniors are all busy preparing their parts for Commencement.

J. Lee Stewart has been absent from school this week, on account of sickness.

Bessie Bourhill was absent from school Friday, because the family was moving into their new home.

George Hansen is riding horse back from his home, eight miles north of town, while his father and brothers are away.

The high school base ball team from Wasco, played the Moro high school base ball team at Moro Saturday, May 6th. The score was 8 to 6 in favor of the Wasco team.

The Baccalaureate Sermon will be preached in the Presbyterian church Sunday morning, May 21st.

Rev. H. H. Hubble of Pendleton will occupy the pulpit. All the public is cordially invited to attend.

The Moro high school entertained in honor of the Wasco and Grass Valley high schools last Friday evening. Dancing took up a large part of the evening. Punch was served through out the evening and refreshments consisting of ice cream and wafers, was served at eleven.

The hall was artistically decorated in the colors of the three high schools; red and white, purple and gold, black and orange; the decorations extending across the hall, forming a canopy ceiling and dropping down on the sides. On the stage was a cozy corner, fixed for tired dancers, which seemed to be most popular during the supper hour.

Mr. Ray Hulse, Mr. Dunton, Raymond Henrichs, Lee Stewart and Elmer Barzee; Searl Searcy, Mr. Lambert and Mr. Akers changing off on the cornet; furnished the music, which was enjoyed by all.

Moro high school appreciate very much their having the school board and teachers of Moro school as guests for the evening and the high school pupils of Moro now feel better acquainted with the pupils of the other high schools and wish they could have had more of these "get together" parties the past season.
