R. J. Ginn is back from a business trip to Walla Walla.

Mrs. R. C. Ornduff is visiting with her parents at The Dalles.

Carbolinum, fresh stock, now on sale at The Observer Store.

W. D. Wallan has sold his auto to Wilford Belabe and has bought a new Buick six.

Mrs. Greta Moore Thompson returned to her home at Big Eddy Monday, after a brief visit with friends and relatives at and near Moro.

The Columbia Highway is open through to Portland. There are a number of soft spots near the Cascades and a few snow banks can yet be met with.

Rev. John Robertson pastor of Moro M.E. church, and Miss Ada Grace Dayton were married Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's mother in Salem.

There are nearly fourteen billion dollars in the banks of the country, but that doesn't get you anything unless your security is right.

L. H. Nahouse of Grass Valley has shied his castor into the county political arena and is asking for the republican nomination to the office of county treasurer.

Secret service officers claim that a counterfeit $5 bill is in circulation but this paragraph is only of interest to those who dream of some time having that much money.

The new army bill provides for a regular army and reserve force of one million men. Even that is less than the allies and Germany had in the Verdun fight.

W. H. Meyer, candidate for the republican nomination for sheriff, was attending grand jury sessions this week from Wasco, in the law enforcement movement at that place.

Mrs. H. F. Yarnell is slowly recovering from the shock and injuries sustained when the buggy horse she was driving ran away on the grade west of the Chester Smith farm.

The new Moro Presbyterian church was dedicated Sunday, Rev. Wallace Howe Lee, president of Albany College, and Rev. J. V. Milligan of Portland, assisting in the service.

The finest grade of breakfast bacon, home cured by themselves, is on sale at Lee Hines Wasco Market. It is made from light weight, special selected hogs, and costs less per pound than other breakfast bacon.

Mrs. J. M. Eddy has left at this office a most peculiar shaped hen egg. It is a small, well proportioned product of a Buff Orpington with a close resemblance to a snake, coiled to strike, in the tail attached to one end.

The Dorcas Society will entertain the members and their families Saturday evening at the Presbyterian church in honor of the natal anniversary of Rev. Adams. A short program has been prepared, to be followed by refreshments.

A former resident of this city, Miss Ruth Hornaday, became the bride, last week at Walla Walla, of Dr. A. VonNabem of that city. Tuesday evening, preceding the wedding, Miss Hornaday was the honor guest at a prettily arranged shower party given by members of the Missionary Society of the Walla Walla Christian Church.

H. C. Ward and Harry Moohr representing the Burlington Trust Co. of Burlington, Vt., accompanied by Attorney B. S. Huntington of Portland, are visiting the county, guests of L. Barnum. The Burlington Trust Company has extensive loans placed in the three counties of Wasco, Sherman and Gilliam and the purpose of their visit is to assure themselves of the resources of the county.

The Moro Trading Company, incorporated for $30,000 by E. O. McCoy, L. Barnum, and R. C. Atwood, is a new business institution for Moro that opened its doors to the public for the first time on last Saturday with J. C. Harper as manager. The new company has purchased the stock and good will of the Moro Commercial Co. and will retain the services of G. E. Lewellen while N. P. Hansen will retire from the business. A large stock of new merchandise has been added and more new goods are arriving each day in quantity varied enough to supply every need.

Only one little 35c adv in the Observer sold all of C. A. Todd's hay.

L. V. Moore last week sold two matched draft teams to a buyer for a total of $1000.

Fred R. Messinger, candidate for the republican nomination for sheriff, was a visitor this week.

THE FLAVOR OF "SPEAR HEAD" IS UNIQUE

A Chew That Has Been Famous for a Third of a Century

HAS THE RICH RED BURLEY TASTE

Chewing is the only way to get the rich taste of the tobacco leaf. And the only form of tobacco in which you get the leaf as Nature made it is the plug form.

A chew of Spear Head plug tobacco has a wonderful flavor such as you never did and never will taste in any other tobacco.

That Spear Head flavor is unique, mellow, fruity, everlastingly delicious and satisfying.

Spear Head has been famous for a third of a century as the richest, tastiest of chews.

It's made of sun-ripened, red Burley. And it's produced by the most modern methods, which develop the luscious flavor of the leaf to the supreme degree.

It is safeguarded at every step in its making. The factory is clean and sanitary—the processes are pure-food processes.

When the choice red Burley has been pressed into mellow, sweet Spear Head plugs you have a chew that simply can't be equalled.

Spear Head is the high quality chew of the world.

Try Spear Head—you'll never again be satisfied with any other chew. In 10c cuts, wrapped in wax paper.
