Ladies' Spring Coats, new arrivals, at Freeman & Co.'s.

Royal Bakery Bread fresh daily at the Moro Trading Co.'s store.

Mt. Hood, Portland, ice cream each day at W. T. McCoy's confectionery.

J. T. Ashby and family were Grass Valley visitors in Moro Wednesday.

Mrs. I. H. Smith returned this week from a visit of several weeks in the Willamette valley.

Freeman & Co. have just received an express shipment of late style Ladies' Spring Coats.

The general condition of Alida Douma is improving since being operated on in Portland several days ago.

If you have a news item, tell it to the Observer. Don't imagine we know it and then wonder why it is not in the paper phone it in.

See the Delco Electric Light system at Hulery Bros., for farm lighting.

Hulery Bros. are agents for the Delco system of electric lighting for farms.

Henry Johnson, who has been very ill with pneumonia for some time is reported by Dr. Poley to be on the road to recovery.

If you are interested in the Delco electric light system Hulery Bros. will demonstrate its practical use right at your own farm.

John DeMoss received a shipment of 200 white leghorn chicks by express Sunday afternoon from Petaluma, Cal. The chicks were a day old when shipped on the 15th and arrived on the 18th with only two dead.

Best fresh bread daily from Oregon Bakery, The Dalles, at Bourhill & Co.'s.

Moro Hardware & Implement Co. are agents for Deering Combine Harvester.

Mrs. C. L. Powell entertained the little folks Tuesday afternoon in honor of her daughter Lucile's ninth birthday. There were about 30 present.

Al. Kirtley got busy Monday and disked and dragged the road from Erskine to the top of the grade, putting it in good shape for travel.

Dr. Freeze the Eye Specialist will make regular trips to Moro each month during 1917. Call Moro Hotel.

I. E. Wilson and W. S. Hall were visitors in Moro Saturday from Kent, traveling by auto. They reported the roads rough but not muddy.

New steel plow shares, guaranteed to fit, in 12- and 14-inch size, for the Canton, John Deere, Syracuse, and Dutchman plows. See Foss & Co., Moro.

Mrs. J. E. Coleman, who has been visiting with Mr. Coleman in Moro the past week, returned Monday to Portland, where the daughter is attending school.

The famous Vulcan plow is the best made and sells readily to discriminating buyers strictly on its merits. We want you to see it. Ginn, Coleman & Co.

Rev. Mr. Robertson left Tuesday morning for Goldendale, Wash., to attend The Dalles district conference of the Methodist church. He expects to return Friday or Saturday.

The many friends of Mrs. Malcolm Neal will be pleased to hear that she will leave the hospital in a few days, but expects to spend several weeks visiting with her sister in Portland before returning home.

J. S. Newcomb, Archie McLennan and Dave McKelvey were in Moro Monday morning on their way to The Dalles by auto from Kent. They intended to file on some land under the new homestead act.

A son of Eugene Amidon was knocked down and stepped on by a horse Monday, sustaining a fracture of both bones of the left leg above the ankle. Dr. Poley was called and soon had the little fellow resting easy.

As a result of the home talent minstrel show at the opera house last Friday evening the local baseball team will start the season with healthy finances. Ticket sales amounted to $112 and the dance after the show netted an additional sum, the amount we do not know.

Moro High School Notes.

Arthur Christianson has again resumed his studies after a long siege of the measles. Glad to see you, Christy.

Seral Searcy must have tried that same brand of cigars for he is now under the covers with a slight attack of the measles. Pretty tough, Stub.

On last Friday a debate was held on the question of "Resolved that the Flea is More Harmful Than the Fly." Willis Buxton and Lee Stewart argued for the affirmative, while Carlton Ross and Collis Moore upheld the negative. Judges were not deemed necessary, which accounts for the fact that no one was victorious.

Prof. Dunton left on last Friday for a short trip to the Willamette valley, returning late Monday evening.

Lois Schaeffer was absent from school on last Monday and Tuesday.

Ten minute talks on questions of general interest are being given by the students of Moro high school. Following are a few subjects which have been chosen: Coal, cocoa, silk, forestry, telephone, postal system and flour.

High school twirlers and slug-gers are making their appearance regularly on the high school diamond. Promises for a strong team are evident. Ask Charlie Hulse.

Abstracts promptly made by the Sherman County Abstract Co., Moro, Oregon.

During the next few days I am going to call on 20 leading farmers

I want to tell you some of the reasons why other progressive farmers find it profitable, week after week, to read

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

Will you see me? It will take very little time. I don't want to argue. I simply want to tell you about this great national farm weekly, make you my offer, and let you decide for yourself.

But, before I show you The Country Gentleman, here's something to think about: It's a modern, up-and-doing paper for the whole farm family. Its articles are written by farmers, farm women and farm experts. They tell how to make more money out of farming—how a farmer's wife can do her work more easily—how the family can get more pleasure out of farm life. It keeps you looking ahead.

I truly believe that you will want The Country Gentleman. It's your kind of a paper. I'll show it to you.
