EASTER CARDS—At the Observer Book Store; embossed, silk, and gelatine covered cards at former prices.

If you have a news item, tell it to the Observer. Don't imagine we know it and then wonder why it is not in the paper phone it in.

The Ila Smith Dean millinery store of Hood River will be represented at Moro all day next Saturday, including the evening at Hotel Moro.

Will Moore, grand master of masonry for Oregon, was a guest of Moro Eureka lodge A. F. & A. M. last Thursday.

Mrs. E. H. Moore left Tuesday for Washington, Wash., where her sister, Mrs. C. K. Cochran, is reported to be sick.

J. C. McKean has sold his Ford touring car to J. M. Bradley and is driving a Buick until his new Ford roadster arrives.

A number of the farmers around Moro have had their winter sown wheat killed by the cold winds and are reseeded with $1.75 seed.

Moro is showing its patriotic sentiments this week by displaying the American flag from the tops of the business buildings of the city.

Mrs. Annie Russell was a visitor this week from Grass Valley at the home of H. U. Martin and family. Mrs. Russell is the eldest daughter of Herman Steidl, formerly residing east of Kent. The family recently moved into the county from Sherwood and will farm land near Grass Valley.

Two men in Sherman county were successful in the bargain day subscription contest of the Daily Journal of Portland, each being one of the 100 agents to receive a capital prize. W. E. Tate of Wasco was 16th on the list and L. W. Ross of Moro closed the list with number 100.

The Thursday Pleasure Club met at the home of Mrs. P. C. Axtell last Thursday, the 22d, and a very pleasant afternoon was spent. Mrs. F. Hutchcroft was duly initiated as a member of the club. Dainty refreshments were served. The next meeting of the club will be held April 5th at the home of Mrs. Wm. Burris, Mrs. Howard Conlee acting as assistant hostess.

The rats and mice are so destructive at the George Hennagin farm that they are advertising in the Observer this week for cats, any kind or color. The destructive animals are chewing the harness, eating the grain and cutting the sacks, even to the sacks holding the coal in the fuel shed. George has put his number 10 shoe down and says "cats! cats! my farm for cats!"

A program will be given Saturday night, April 7, to celebrate the standardization of Harmony school, commonly known as Upper Hay Canyon. The program includes a large number of songs and leans strongly toward the patriotic. Supper will be served after the program. We want everyone who can possibly come to help us celebrate. The program will begin promptly at eight. Come early and get a good seat.

News Items From Kent.

Mr. Curfman, Miss Hill and Miss Kelly, the Kent teachers, attended the institute held at Grass Valley last Saturday.

A "hard times party" was given last Friday evening by Ralph Haynes and Wren Hogue at the home of the latter. All who attended reported a fine time.

The W. C. T. U. met at Mrs. J. Herbert Smith's home last Thursday.

Y. and B. met at the church after Christian Endeavor last Sunday evening and organized. The officers elected were Marjorie Haynes, president; Ella Kirby vice-president; Fern Leonard, secretary, and Ralph Haynes, corresponding secretary. They will hold their next meeting at Mrs. J. M. Wilson's home next Wednesday evening.

A business meeting of the Christian Endeavor will be held at the home of Mrs. R. J. Harbin this Friday. All members are asked to be present, as several important questions will be brought before the meeting.

The Kent school has purchased a tennis set and volleyball and expects to have them up soon.

Moro Hardware & Imp. Co.

During the next few days I am going to call on 20 leading farmers

I want to tell you some of the reasons why other progressive farmers find it profitable, week after week, to read

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

Will you see me? It will take very little time. I don't want to argue. I simply want to tell you about this great national farm weekly, make you my offer, and let you decide for yourself.

But, before I show you The Country Gentleman, here's something to think about: It's a modern, up-and-doing paper for the whole farm family. Its articles are written by farmers, farm women and farm experts. They tell how to make more money out of farming—how a farmer's wife can do her work more easily—how the family can get more pleasure out of farm life. It keeps you looking ahead.

I truly believe that you will want The Country Gentleman. It's your kind of a paper. I'll show it to you.
