War revenue savings stamps are now on sale at Moro post office. They can be bought in sums from 25c to $4.12. The government pays 4 per cent interest on these, the same as a bond.

There is a collection of milk bottles, fruit jars, plates, deep dishes, cooking utensils, etc., that have been left from time to time at the Dorcas rooms. The society would be pleased to have owners call for their property.

The big spectacular photo play "Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea" a dramatization of Jules Verne's famous novel of that name, will be the attraction at Moro Theatre on Thursday, Dec. 6th. Aided by the marvelous Williamson inventions many of the 900 scenes were taken under the surface of the ocean. More than 2000 actors and 2 years time were employed in the taking of these wonderful pictures.

O. L. Belshee and family were guests on Thanksgiving day at the home of Mr. Belshee's mother at Hood River.

The sickness of their little girl for the past few weeks has delayed the usual visit of Dr. Freeze until Friday, the 15th, at Moro.

There is a number of odd forks, knives, and tea spoons that the Dorcas committee do not know the owners. These are at Mrs. Anna Moore's, waiting to be claimed.

Proceeds realized by the Dorcas society from the bazaar and dinner given last Saturday, including cash donations, totaled $204.40. Of this amount, $69.40 was realized from the dinner.

Mrs. George DeMoss and son Elbert were visitors at Portland Wednesday, in attendance at the Yase concert at the Heilig. Elbert's first teacher on the violin, Louis Persinger, was a student of the celebrated Belgian violinist.

The sale at Judd Hines' Tuesday was one of the best held in Sherman county. More than 300 was served lunch at noon. A feature of the sale was the number of people from Dufur who led the bids and bought most of the horses.

The mysterious disappearing air ship was seen again this week over Sherman county, this time by the freight train crew at Grass Valley. The men say that they considered previous reports to be from imaginative persons confused by bright stars, but they now say bright stars do not have engines.

The children of Moro L.T.L. have sent 2 1/2 dozen hemmed dish towels to the soldiers and are now making the gun wipes, so all the members are requested to be present on Saturday, Dec. 15th, and to please bring scraps of outing flannel and scissors. M.E. church at 2:30 p.m.

The Moro Ladies Aid will hold their annual bazaar on Saturday, Dec. 8th, in the Ginn & Coleman building. They will serve chicken and noodle dinner at noon. Sale begins prompt at 2 p.m. All who have fancy work for the bazaar are requested to leave it with Mrs. A.M. Wright or Mrs. J.F. Belshee.

The young peoples orchestra rendered valuable assistance at the Sunday evening Thanksgiving service at the Presbyterian church as also did the young peoples choir. The morning service was gladdened by a vocal solo by Mrs. Roy L. Kunsman. Mrs. J.C. Harper pleased the evening audience with a vocal selection.

The meeting of the Farmers Union, Saturday last, took up the question of elevator construction with out taking definite action. The secretary was instructed to notify all members that the next regular meeting on Saturday the 8th would be given over to a full discussion of the elevation question and probable construction.

That story every body has read, Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea, will come to the Moro Theatre on Dec. 6th under special arrangement. It is a Universal special production of 8 reels. It is a thrilling portraiture of the ocean depths and there is nothing else like it. More extensive announcement will be made later by Moro Theatre.

Patrons of Moro Theatre will have a historically interesting treat presented to them on Thursday, Dec. 6th, when the film version of Jules Verne's great masterpiece "20,000 Leagues Under the Sea" is shown. It is more than 40 years since the greatest of imaginative writers pictured in novel form the adventures which are now accomplished daily by air craft and submarine.

Constance Crawley and Arthur Maude's story "A Jewel in Pawn" will be reflected on the screen at Moro Theatre this Saturday with Ella Hall as the heroine and with Walter Belasco playing one of the most lovable characters ever shown in moving pictures. Antrim Short will be a newsboy who wins "the jewel" for his own. There will be an excellent company to carry conviction in every episode. Of the numerous photoplays in which Miss Hall has appeared this is the best character she has ever played.
