Jim Wilson called in at the Observer office on Monday while in town from Kent.

Mrs. A. K. Fuller and daughter Carrie are visiting in the county from Castle Rock, Wash.

If you have a news item, tell it to the Observer. Don't imagine we know it and then wonder why it is not in the paper phone it in.

Luther Davis was in town from Kent on Monday. He reported three inches of snow that morning and a thaw sending it into the wet ground.

Train service was so poor that a night auto drive had to be made Sunday by J. C. Hoekman to meet his son Ben, at Rufus, home on a naval furlough.

John M. DeMoss and family left by train Saturday last for a ten day visit with relatives in Oregon City and Milwaukie, Oregon, and she will visit with her parents.

Mr. Belshee expects to join with his wife, after New Years, in a visit of several weeks at different places in the valley.

Simon Elcock made Moro a visit during the holidays. He was one of the first farmers to engage in cultivating the soil of Sherman county and for years was a reliable threshing machine engineer. His home is now at Portland.

This next Wednesday is of particular interest to all members of the Dorcas society. A business meeting, including annual election of officers, and considerable work to be done. Payment of dues for 1918 will be received at that time.

Special services start at the M.E. church with the watch night meeting New Years Eve. Rev. W. L.
Dillinger will assist the pastor, as will Rev. W. B. Lamb of Wasco.
Later, Rev. H. F. Pemberton, of The Dalles, district superintendent will also assist at the meetings.
