

The Observer.

MORO, OREGON.

Official Paper for Sherman County.

FRIDAY February 15, 1918

Entered as second class matter at the post office at Moro, Oregon, July 25, 1891.

C. L. IRELAND Manager.

W. E. Smith, a progressive farmer living east of Wasco, was a Moro visitor the latter part of last week. His interest in the National Army is an acute one as he has four boys soon to be in active army life. He has one son with the 3d Oregon in France, another in training at Camp Lewis, and two others who are both classed to be called on the next draft. He is not at all sure how he will manage the farm alone, but expects to make it move somehow.

The basket ball game at Kent last Friday evening between the high school teams of Kent and Moro was won by Moro by a score of 20 to 15. This was a remarkably good game, considering that some of the Kent players had not seen a game until their initial playing the week before with Grass Valley. The game put up by Melvin Schadewitz and Roy Barnett for the Kent team helped materially in keeping the winning score to a low level. Another feature of the game was the playing of Ralph Haynes, a former Moro high school pupil. After the game a basket social was held at the school house from which was realized about $130 to be applied towards the Armenian relief work fund being raised in Oregon.

Robert N. Stanfield, candidate for United States Senator on the Republican ticket, is making a good impression among the voters in his tour of western Oregon. The people like his platform and believe he means exactly what he says in it. Many, who have heretofore been indifferent regarding the senatorship, are actively supporting Mr. Stanfield's candidacy.

The Holt Caterpillar bought by the county for work on the roads has arrived and is now waiting for the road making season to begin. The large road grader ordered at the same time arrived several weeks ago and has been in use near Wasco by horse power. The roads in the northern part of the county are always in condition for working before the rest of the county.

Always read the Observer.

Mrs. W. H. Helyer Called by Death

Mrs. Willa Hawley Helyer, who died at The Dalles hospital February 2, was born 14 miles southeast of Cottage Grove January 30, 1875. By her own efforts she became a graduate of the Oregon State Normal and the Oregon Agricultural college. After her graduation she proved herself a successful teacher. In 1889 she came to Sherman county and near Kent, Or., took up a homestead which has proved a valuable wheat ranch, which she still owned.

In January, 1917, she became the wife of W. H. Helyer, a prosperous farmer of the Kent section.

Mrs. Helyer is survived by her husband, mother, five brothers and five sisters. She was buried in the Masons' cemetery at Cottage Grove Wednesday.

The Republic Truck

The O'Meara Supply & Implement Company of Wasco, takes pleasure in announcing that they are Sherman county distributors for the Republic Farm Truck, in sizes from one to five tons.

We have selected the Republic Farm Truck from a large field to choose from. Its sales in Oregon during 1917 was greater than the combined sales of its five nearest competitors. The prices are reasonable, considering the high class of the machine.

Our well known service will go with this truck at all times. O'Meara Supply & Imp. Co., Wasco, Oregon.

Ford roadster just overhauled, newly painted, for sale by the Barnett Auto Co., Wasco.

Mrs. Ellsworth spent the week-end at the Wasco home of her daughter, Mrs. Claud May.

Maxwell touring car, for sale by Barnett Auto Co., Wasco. Starter, lights, and all in good shape.

Friends will be pleased to know that Ben Tomlin is now in the naval radio service at San Diego.

Dodge touring car, just overhauled, is in good mechanical condition. For terms see Barnett Auto Co., Wasco.
