

HERE is an economy wave over the land. American people are beginning to realize that they are living too fast, beyond their means. It has been the rule that the man with $20,000 a year as well as the man with $2,000 a year lives up to every penny of his income. Slowly but surely this order of things is changing. The era of extravagance and waste in business and personal expenses is nearing an end. Efficiency and economy is the order of the day. Bank deposits are growing.

It is up to every one to economize. The best and surest way to do so is to place your surplus in the bank. If you already have a bank account make it a point from today on to increase it. Add to it weekly, daily if possible.

IF YOU HAVEN'T A BANK ACCOUNT DECIDE TO OPEN ONE TODAY.

Miss Una Davies, from Portland, is visiting with her school mate, Miss Grace Muir.

Mrs. O. L. Belshe and children are visiting an uncle near Chehalis, Wash., and incidentally picking and canning wild blackberries.

H. W. Strong was first to deliver 1918 wheat at a Moro warehouse, on Tuesday of this week, with R. P. Hulse a close second the next day.

Mrs. Harry Key entertained on Tuesday at their farm home west of Moro in honor of Mrs. O. P. King's birthday anniversary. The guests present were Mr. and Mrs. O. P. King, their two daughters and Mrs. King's nephew.

Nominating petitions, circulated by friends of R. J. Ginn, are being freely signed in all sections of the county for his nomination to the office of county commissioner on the republican ticket to succeed E. D. McKee. Mr. Ginn is now acting county commissioner, being appointed by the county court to succeed Mr. McKee.

Eugene Amidon, wife and two younger children have returned from a seven weeks' visit to their old home in northern Michigan, their first visit to the place in 13 years. Mrs. Amidon says that the past winter has killed many of the famous Michigan peach orchards and that peach growers of that state in many instances, are digging up the stumps and using the ground for other crops. Upon the way home the party made a short visit at the Illinois home of Mrs. Amidon's sister.

The state highway commission has just begun to gravel the stretch of new grade between Hood River and Cascade.

I. E. Kunsman and wife were visitors this week from Heppner, coming over for a short visit with his brother Roy, home on naval furlough from the Atlantic coast.

D. E. Stephens and C. E. Hill of the Sherman county Experiment station, are attending a conference of experiment station workers held at Corvallis on the 18th, 19th and 20th of this month.

Messrs. Stewart and Pittman, of the Utah experiment station, and C. C. Ruth of the Portland office of the Department of Agriculture Bureau of Markets, were visitors at the Experiment Station on the 13th and 14th.

Roy Kunsman left Tuesday on his return trip for duty with his naval ship on the Atlantic coast. The vessel had been laid up for the last 18 days in dry dock being repaired from the effects of a collision at sea when chasing one of the German submarines loafing off the American coast.

Attorney W. C. Bryant and Assessor Otto Peetz were business visitors last week in the Buckley neighborhood, southwest of Grass Valley. Upon their return they had a narrow escape from being "gassed" by a feline animal called a skunk that turned up its tail when shot at by Mr. Bryant.

Mrs. Frantz is a visitor from The Dalles at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. M. Benson. She says that her son George, known to many in this section, recently suffered an injury to his eye while working in a saw mill at Friend. At first it was thought the eyesight might be affected, but it is now very much better.

The relaxation of the nervous tension under which Mrs. Carl Peetz has labored for the past two years in nursing Mr. Peetz during his long illness, resulted in a nervous collapse from which Mrs. Peetz is now reported to be slowly recovering. To assist in the more rapid recovery she has been moved to the home of her son Otto where a change of local environment might be secured.

E. B. Penland and wife were visiting this week in Sherman county from Halsey, Oregon. Mr. Penland first came to what is now Sherman county 35 years ago, leaving ten years later. At that time he could not sell his 1480 acres of number one farm land for $5 an acre. Now he is enjoying his wealth and health by leisurely trips by auto in the Pacific coast states, having just returned from an extended visit in California.

The German army high command, in orders to their troops recently captured, complain because the captured Germans are too talkative and that the captured American troops either know nothing of importance or have a way of being able to convince their captors that they are ignorant of military secrets. The captured Germans talk because they secretly wish and expect their country to be defeated. The Americans are not talkative because they will not do anything to help the German cause. A big difference in personnel.

The 450-acre bean crop planted by Harry Key on the C. L. Powell farm is now showing a most thrifty growth. This crop is being grown on land plowed this spring for summer fallow, the beans being planted about June 1st and to date has had two cultivations, and now has a root growth of an average 15 inches within the five weeks since being planted. Mr. Key has just finished his second cultivation of the plants, using three four row cultivators pulled by two horses. A third going over with the cultivators will be done later in the season.
