Community Club Entertains

A very enjoyable evening was spent at the Fairview school house Friday evening, March 14, when the Fairview-Gorman Community Club met to have their regular bi weekly program.

The club members were delighted to be honored with the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Ireland, County Superintendent Curfman and Mrs. Curfman, of Moro, also several visitors from outside districts.

The room was very tastefully decorated with shamrocks and Oregon grape. Following the program delicious refreshments consisting of sandwiches, salad, cake and coffee were served to almost one hundred people.

The audience was astonished at the talent displayed in a play entitled "Pat Dolan's Wedding," which was very cleverly presented by the ladies of the Fairview community.

Much credit is due Mrs. Conlee, the club president, for the management of the evening of social diversion and Mrs. R. A. Fleming, the editor of "Neighborhood News," which spared no one. Like the Queen's page, who was sent out to look for the beautiful things, we did not realize there were so many humorous happenings about us every day.

In addition to the above communication the editor of the Observer wishes to add that the evening was most thoroughly enjoyed by those present from Moro, more particularly because of the opportunity of meeting so many of our friends in that section of the county. The ladies of the Community Club are entitled to much credit for the program so successfully presented without assistance from the men folks, consisting of songs, recitations, etc., appropriate to St. Patrick's Day.

If you wish to sell or exchange any of your real property, farm or city, list it with the Realty Department of the Sherman County Abstract Company, Otto Peetz, Manager, Moro, Ore.

Kent Items

Frank Brown and wife left for Walla Walla Monday morning.

J. J. Wiley of Grass Valley was a business visitor in Kent Sunday.

Mrs. B. A. Hogue purchased a Dodge car Sunday from J. K. Irby.

There have been several new cases of scarletina in Kent the past week.

Matt Simon has bought Frank Brown's interest in Wm. Kohler's place.

Several men from Kent attended the road meeting at Moro last Friday.

Walter Givens was a passenger for Pendleton Monday morning on business.

Several of the church members gave a gathering at the home of L. W. Amick in honor of Mr. Amick's 41st birthday.

Guy L. Hoskinson went for a joy ride last Saturday and broke his car near Monkland. He brought it home the last of this week.

Miss Jessie Hill, primary teacher, left Saturday for Culver to vote, leaving her room in charge of two high school girls. Miss Hill returned Tuesday evening.

The Christian Endeavor has begun a new contest, with Rosa Amick and Glenna Dellinger as captains. In this contest, instead of certain things counting points they will count degrees, which will be registered on large thermometers, each side having one. The object is to see which side can raise their's the highest in the given time, six weeks. The one succeeding wins.

In Memoriam

Hall of Eureka Lodge No. 121, A. F. & A. M.
Again death has entered our lodge and we have assembled among the habitations of the dead to perform the last sad tribute of our affection.

Brother Henry Johnson having been called from Labors to that everlasting refreshment in that haven of rest, in that peaceful home where sorrow and pain are unknown, there we can confidently leave him.

But, within the tyled recesses of our lodge there is a vacant chair; we shall miss him; therefore in token of our sorrow be it resolved that the charter of the lodge be draped in mourning for a period of 30 days.

To the mother and sister of our dear brother we can only extend our heartfelt sympathy, words are inadequate; we can only say their and our loss is his great gain.

The above was adopted at a stated communication held March 6th, and ordered that same be entered in the records, one copy mailed to the mother and sister and one given to the Sherman County Observer for publication in issue of March 21, 1919.

Robt. Urquhart, W. M.
Attest:
J. M. Parry, Secretary.
