R. J. Ginn left Wednesday on a business visit to Walla Walla.

The youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McVicker came up on Tuesday from Redmond for a visit.

Peter Peters of Kent and Irene Ingalls of Oregon City were married Monday afternoon at the M. E. parsonage, Rev. DeLong officiating.

J. E. Coleman and wife left Tuesday via auto for Portland, expecting to return near the end of the week.

Mrs. V. M. Hennagin and daughter of McMinnville have been visiting in the county during the last few weeks.

Robert Hoskinson, Dell Benson and Jake Douma have been enjoying a fishing trip this week to the Metolious.

Mrs. James Hollenbeck and daughter, from Oakland, California, are visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. P. C. Axtell.

Harvey C. Thompson returned Sunday, being mustered out of the army at Camp Lewis last week after several months service in France.

I am prepared to take care of any city hauling or drayage. Wood or coal delivered promptly. Your patronage will be appreciated. C. L. Montgomery, Moro.

With a big, proud smile W. B. Johnston, now a grandpa, said "it's a boy." Born to Perry Johnston and wife at the home of her parents in Portland on Tuesday, June 3.

Carlton Ross was mustered out of the naval service at Bremerton Friday and is now visiting relatives in the Willamette Valley, expecting to arrive home in Moro this Saturday.

H. R. Panther, of The Dalles, has been chosen by Gov. Olcott as one of the three members of the state board of auto mechanics. M. L. Granning, head of the auto mechanics department of the O. A. C., and E. E. Boggs of Portland are the other members of the board. Every mechanic who tinkers with an auto must stand an examination by this board. As to the merits of the measure, that depends upon the ease with which half-baked mechanics can pass their examination.

A. M. Young has resigned as city marshal to accept a position in the office of the Farmer's Elevator & Supply Co. Ralph Brisbin has been appointed to succeed Mr. Young as city marshal.

A. Provoost has leased the Martin farm lying just west of Moro, buying crop, stock and implements. Mrs. Martin and son E. E. will move to The Dalles, where they expect to build a home.

Ginn, Coleman & Co. have on sale, displayed in their window, a buffet that would adorn any dining room. It is being offered on the popular sale plan of a dollar a day less for each day not sold, beginning May 31, at $35.

Manager Thwing of the Moro Trading Co., is feeling pretty good these days over the completion of the concrete floor put in last month in the company's ware room adjoining the store. It is a big improvement and incidentally has destroyed the breeding place of an army of rats and mice.

Jas. Woods and wife left Wednesday for Walla Walla, Weston and other places in Eastern Oregon, Washington and Idaho, where their sons and daughter reside. Mrs. Woods said they would be away for several weeks if Mr. W. didn't weaken and want to come home too soon.

A 6000 mile guarantee against punctures when you use Marvel Tire Life. A liquid, but not a filler. Marvel Tire Life allows the use of air in tubes. Seals any puncture up to a 20-penny nail hole, while you ride. Absolutely no injury to tubes. DeMoss & Yancy, Wasco, county agts, 1611

Speaking about the Salvation Army appeal for funds for their Home Service campaign managed in Sherman county by the Elks, Ralph Brisbin says that the money of an American soldier in France was always refused by this organization. If they had it they gave it to the men cheerfully and willingly.

Rose Festival week at Portland, June 11 to 13, will be unusually attractive to visitors this year. Seven large army airships will be flying over the city each day, doing many of the stunts carried on during the war. The industrial parade will be held on the 11th, a monster military parade will be the feature of the 12th, and a huge floral parade will feature the 13th. Numerous war vessels will also be in the harbor, open to visitors.

The Presbyterian New Era Movement was not put in action in Moro and Monkland in the early spring at the proper time, but all of the preliminaries have now been finished and five teams for Moro and four for Monkland was set apart in the consecration services last Sunday. The budget covers all items for the year. The total for Moro is $1800 and for Monkland a little over $500. There will be no difficulty in having a victorious drive.

County Agent Calkins, Attorney Bryant, former City Marshal Young and the fruit king of Rufus, L. B. Payne, left Wednesday morning for Metolious river fishing haunts. They took plenty of grub, blankets, etc., for a long stay of three days. Attorney Bryant is accused of taking a good snake-bite antidote in addition to other material items common to such outings. The party had intended to use Mr. Calkins' Ford, but finally thought better of it and took Mr. Payne's Buick truck, it being better adapted for bringing back the many fish they expected to hook.

The Chautauqua dates for this year are June 30 to July 5 inclusive. The place is DeMoss springs. The Observer is in favor of selecting one permanent home in the county for this annual event, where sanitary and other accommodations are convenient for those who attend. Either that or have the owners of the property at DeMoss transfer certain rights to the county and have the county make permanent improvements for the benefit of all. This idea of having a few progressive men eternally fixing up private property for public purposes will become monotonous.

Saturday, at The Dalles, we witnessed the unloading of a car of Chevrolets direct from the factory to the Fields Motor Car Agency, managed by C. L. Strange of that city. The policy for some time of the Chevrolet company has been

The Tractor for Service

The Caterpillar is built to give service, and it is backed by service, of which our annual Caterpillar School, free to owners and operators, is only one of the big features. That the Caterpillar gives exceptional service—day after day, year after year—is testified to by thousands of satisfied Caterpillar owners.

The Caterpillar won't slip, won't mire, won't pack the soil. It does all the work that other tractors do and does it better. Besides, it works in places and under conditions where no other form of tractive power can be used successfully. Caterpillars are at work in Alaska at 40 degrees below zero in the Sierras, hauling ore over rough and rocky roads in swamp lands, where even horses cannot work without bog shoes.

High design and built construction have put into the Caterpillar endurance, long life with low upkeep, the sort of dependability that makes the work run smoothly without annoying and costly delays.

Write for further information about the Caterpillar—the leading tractor in the United States today. The Caterpillar is built in several sizes—a size for every sort of tractive work.

The Call of the Outdoors

BY CLARENCE ANDERSON, GRASS VALLEY.

"The call of the outdoors," he cried in dismay.

"The call of the outdoors is nothing today. With all the indoor pleasures of the day why bother with nature and while your time away?"

You're wrong, ou're wrong, my dear fellow.

You're no scout, but a slacker—and yellow!

The call of the outdoors is the call of nature, Of birds and flowers and every wild creature.

'Tis the call of mountain, lake and stream, Of the trees, fir and pine, all evergreen.

'Tis the call of health, wealth, wisdom and worth;

'Tis the strongest, best call, on all this earth.
