Probably a bunch of high-salaried people have done the organizing and most likely the Red Cross could do the work as efficiently.

LOST—In Wasco or Moro, or between the two places, July 4th, some auto tools and tire pump. Reward if returned to O. B. Messinger.

A new fresh stock of Mrs. Price's Compound for canning peas, beans, etc., has been received by the Moro Hardware & Implement Co.

It has been reported that Mrs. James Woods recently suffered a slight paralytic stroke while visiting with her son Anson and his family at Walla Walla.

Sherman county was the first county in the State of Oregon to remit a draft for its full quota in the Salvation Army Home Service Campaign, and not only that, but $800 over; which is another record for Sherman county.

C. H. Howell has bought from G. N. Crosfield a 3½ ton Winther, four-wheel-drive, and last Saturday made the Church hill west of Wasco in second gear with a load of distillate which weighed 8400 pounds.

The city wells at Madras are running low. So low that citizens of that town are talking about bringing ice to the town by train and melting it for use. Lack of tank cars for water makes ice shipments necessary, claim the Madras people.

O. L. Belshee left Tuesday morning on his return trip to Camp Sherman, after a visit of a week in Moro and at the Chautauqua. He took six small pigs back with him, three on each running board of his car, to fatten on the surplus milk at the camp.

All the government property connected with the postoffice at Early has been turned over to Postmaster J. M. Parry of Moro and the office at that place temporarily discontinued until a successor to Mrs. H. S. Wall, who has moved to Wasco is secured.

Moroites who attended the celebration at Grass Valley on the 4th report a fine time, a big crowd and plenty of snap and go to the program of sports. The feature of the day most speak about was the parade in the morning, all agreeing that the decorations and ensemble typified the day most perfectly.

Nickolini, owned by W. E. Newton, one evening last week got her halter rope in a half hitch around her fetlock with the result that she may be injured just seriously enough to be out of the chariot race at the county fair next October. Nickolini has in previous chariot races held up her end all the way around the track.

Farmers who want to thrash with combines and not use sacks should visit Kent to investigate the patent bin invented by W. C. Helyer and installed on his combine and on exhibition at Kent. The bin does away with all use of sacks and can be dumped into wagons without stop by the combine. It has been proved to be an economical success.

An unusual treat is in store for the movie-lovers of Sherman county Saturday, July 19, when "Mickey" will be produced at the Wasco Theater featuring Mabel Normand, the leading film star of the country. This picture has had a most phenomenal successful run over the entire country and you will miss something great if you fail to see it. See advertisement in this issue.

The contract for the new two-story 80x80 school building at Grass Valley has been awarded to Hedges & Huls, who will start work immediately in an effort to complete the building in time for school next fall. When completed the building will have a modern gymnasium, be heated by a low pressure steam heating plant, and by using accordion doors between glass rooms have an auditorium 41x81 feet.

Operators and owners of Holt machinery can always count upon efficient service from the Holt company when needed. They have maintained for several years their free tractor school at Spokane and now to this have placed a practical field man in Sherman county during the harvest season as trouble shooter, if by any possibility he should be needed, for anyone who operates a Holt tractor or combine, regardless of when purchased. Credit should be given G. N. Crosfield, agent for the Holt company in Sherman county, for arranging the service for owners.

Mr. and Mrs. McVicker will leave by car early Monday morning for The Dalles, where they will store the car and take the 9:45 train for Portland. From there Mrs. McVicker will go to Oregon City to visit her mother and sister while Mr. McVicker attends synod at Eugene, then they will go on to Florence to visit their daughter, Mrs. D. M. Kyle, and take an outing on the beach at Hecta Head, returning to Moro August 9th.

The county school superintendent has over 200 applications from teachers and reports that half a dozen or more come in on every train. Teachers in the valley are finding out that Sherman county is a place where the best wages are paid for teachers. Most of the Sherman county schools are paying $100 a month for a teacher who has had successful teaching experience and has had normal school training. All the schools in the county will soon be supplied with teachers for the coming school year.

Wait for Dr. Freeze, if you need eye service. Trips each month to Moro and other towns.

Wasco Theater Stiles & Crowder Proprietors

'Mickey' SATURDAY July 19

At last the people of Sherman county will have a chance to see Mabel Normand in "Mickey," the most talked of picture since the "Birth of a Nation." Stiles & Crowder, proprietors of the Wasco Theater, after no small effort on their part, have at last secured this picture for Saturday, July 19, 1919. There will be a matinee at 2:30 in the afternoon and two shows at night, the first beginning at 8:00 o'clock. Come early and grab a seat, for the movie fans of Sherman county are going to eat this picture up alive.

Wasco Theater, Saturday, July 19, '19
Don't forget, Matinee in afternoon and two shows at night.

The Tractor for Service

The Caterpillar is built to give service, and it is backed by service, of which our annual Caterpillar School, free to owners and operators, is only one of the big features. That the Caterpillar gives exceptional service—day after day, year after year—is testified to by thousands of satisfied Caterpillar owners.

The Caterpillar won't slip, won't mire, won't park the soil. It does all the work that other tractors do and does it better. Besides, it works in places and under conditions where no other form of tractive power can be used successfully. Caterpillars are at work in Alaska at 40 degrees below zero in the winter, and in the tropics.

Serious hauling over rough and rocky roads, in swamp lands, where even horses cannot work without bog down.

Holt design and Holt construction have put the Caterpillar endurance, long life with low upkeep, the sort of dependability that makes the work run smoothly.

Write for further information about the Caterpillar—the leading tractor in the United States today. The Caterpillar is built in several sizes—a size for every sort of tractive work.
