Joe Ashby, Grass Valley rancher, visited The Dalles Tuesday last on business. He was accompanied by Mrs. Ashby and son Boyd.

Rev. Dow DeLong expects to leave Monday morning to attend the M. E. Conference for this district, meeting at Spokane, Wash.

P. L. Schamel of Grass Valley is reported to have sold his wheat last Saturday at a price netting him $2.22 at the Grass Valley warehouse.

Dr. Morgan writes Postmaster Parry from Seaside that he is steadily improving in health and will return to Moro about the first of September.

The Fleck Orchard truck makes regular trips to Moro each Tuesday and Friday. Orders placed the previous day will be filled in rotation on the next trip out.

While unloading a car of wood last Monday C. L. Montgomery had the misfortune to be struck on the back and left leg by falling sticks, which somewhat crippled him for a few days.

Miss Maria Douma lost a camera on the road between the Byers and Hastings places while auto driving last Sunday. It was found next day and returned to its owner by E. W. Mason.

Special values in Ladies' Knit Underwear—summer weights—at the Moro Trading Co. Vests, 90c and $1.00 qualities now 75c; Union Suits, $1.25 and $1.35 qualities now $1.00.

George Hansen, Ginn, Coleman & Co.'s efficient bookkeeper, attended the wedding of a former schoolmate last Sunday in Portland, and from which place he made a short visit to Albany. He returned home yesterday.

E. R. Barzee and wife left Sunday on an auto trip of 3 weeks that will take in Seaside, Alsea Bay and probably Crater Lake. Elmer expects to do some deep sea fishing as well as trying his luck at bagging some deer.

A Spokane market man has presented figures to the Federal authorities showing that the ingredients for a 13 cent loaf of bread, wholesale, cost the bakers only six cents. The same loaf is sold to the consumer at 15 cents.

Oregon State Fair—Salem, September 22-27; splendid agricultural, livestock and industrial exhibits; high class amusements, a superb racing card; bigger and better than ever. A. H. Lea, Secretary, Salem, Ore. a22-5t

Grass Valley will indulge in a Harvest Ball at the Auditorium Friday night, Sept. 5. A 6-piece orchestra will furnish music and lunch will be served. The same night "Hearts of Humanity" will be shown at Liberty Theater. 1*

L. E. Webb was in town Saturday from Grass Valley. He states that school will probably be about two weeks late in starting the fall term at that place because of building construction, but that it will not affect the final averages of the school pupils.

Dr. J. C. Ghormly was called to Moro Friday to attend the 16-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Yarnell. The baby was suffering from stomach convulsions incident to the warm weather and teething, but is now safely out of danger.

Ernest Everett returned last week from France, where he has been a member of The National Marine Corps. Mrs. Everett met her husband at Camas, Wash., on his return after being discharged in the East. For the present they will make their home at the Chas. Bullard farm.

There are mighty few wheat raisers in this part of the country who are not pretty well satisfied with their crops this year. They are short of the bumper crop that there was hope for in the spring, but the yield in general is so far ahead of the prospect that satisfaction is pretty generally felt.

The minerals springs, hotel, dance hall and 20 acres of land comprising what is known as the Blockhouse Mineral Springs, located near Goldendale, Wash., was sold last week for $20,000. The place has long been known as effecting cures of rheumatism and stomach troubles.

The harvest ball at Moro Theater last Friday night was one large success. The music was of the variety that the veriest novice could not help but keep step, and the midnight plate lunch served by Mrs. Ellsworth was above the ordinary. 100 dance tickets were sold and 140 lunches served.

The Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church entertained the Dorcas Society of the Presbyterian church and a score of other friends yesterday at the residence of Mrs. Frank Belshee. Ice cream and cake were served and some seventy odd guests enjoyed the afternoon very pleasantly.

A 6000 mile guarantee against punctures when you use Marvel Tire Life. A liquid, but not a filler. Marvel Tire Life allows the use of air in tubes. Seals any puncture up to a 20-penny nail hole, while you ride. Absolutely no injury to tubes. DeMoss & Yancy, Wasco, county agts. 16ft.

Price on this ranch is $60,000, $15,000 cash, balance good terms. Alex. Hunter, Moro. a29ft

850 acre stock ranch, 250 acres under cultivation, 100 acres of which can be irrigated; fair buildings and good fences, two orchards; plenty of water; a good sized creek runs through the place besides several very large springs. A few thousand acres of pasture land adjoining the place can be rented under long time lease. Price $21,000, part cash, balance long time payments. This price includes the implements on the place and some of the crop. Hurlburt Realty Co. Condon, Ore. 4ta22

But for the timely discovery of a small blaze in a pile of rubbish between the city's distillate tank and several hundred cords of firewood yesterday by J. C. McKean, what might have developed into a costly conflagration was averted by some quick hard work of a few persons, without loss. The origin of the fire is unknown, but the smallest spark is liable to start a large fire during the present dry season.

At the Presbyterian manse a quiet wedding took place on Saturday afternoon, August 16, when Leslie Dewey Peterson and Ninus Marie Eslinger, both of Grass Valley, Ore., were united in holy matrimony. The young people are both well known and will have the best wishes of their many friends. Shortly after the ceremony the young couple left by auto for a brief visit at The Dalles and Portland before making their home on a farm east of Grass Valley.
