MORO TRADING CO.

A full day next Sunday at the Presbyterian church.

Remember Mullikin, the harness man, is now at Wasco. Call and see him.

Dr. C. H. Johns was called to Kent Sunday to treat patients in three different families.

Sixty head of good Shropshire ewes with lambs for sale. T. B. Searcy, phone 23F32, Moro.

Elmer E. McVicker made a flying trip to Pendleton the first of the week juts for an "over night" visit.

J. B. Morrison, who has been seriously ill in Portland is reported as being much better and well on the road to recovery.

Reward for information or the return of a 2½ x 4½ size Eastman kodak, lost about two weeks ago near the school house. Evelyn Ragsdale.

R. P. Brisbine tendered his resignation to the city council at the meeting held Monday evening. Appointment of a successor was held over.

Miss Nellie McKeown has resigned as deputy county clerk, effective June 1st. The vacancy has been filled by appointment of Mrs. Hazel Bartlett.

Dr. and Mrs. Poley, son Robert and daughter Rachel, will leave Saturday via the Columbia Highway and Portland for a month's auto vacation trip to Los Angeles, California, where Mrs. Poley's sister resides. They expect to return about June 20th.

Chester Arnold, 2-months old son of V. V. Rust and grand child of Lot Rust, died Sunday morning at the family home near Shearer. Funeral services were conducted from the Moro M. E. church on Monday, interment being in Moro cemetery.

Mrs. Walter Helms, of Grass Valley, sister to Mr. Widd Barnes, of Moro, is in St. Vincent hospital at Portland under the care of Dr. Poley. She was operated on Tuesday, May 18th, for gall stones and ulcer of the stomach. She is reported in excellent condition.

The 9-year old son of Mrs. Mitchell, of Kent, was killed Wednesday when thrown from his horse as he was crossing a scab patch on the farm. The boy fell on his head, striking a rock, killing him instantly. Word was brought to Moro Thursday when S. P. Brisbine was notified to prepare a casket for the funeral.

Commencement week has been an exceptionally busy time at the Observer office. So much so that no part of the school exercises has been attended by the editor. For that reason we cannot give a first hand account of the closing activities of the school. However, we have been promised a specially prepared resume of the closing days of the current school term for the Observer next week.

L. H. Martin and wife were visiting at the home of his brother W. J., at the old farm home this week. They were enroute by auto from Portland to their home at Heppner, their drive being broken at The Dalles by their opportune arrival at the H. U. Martin home in that city where the stork presented to Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McKinney a 7-pound daughter at 8 o'clock the morning of May 17th.

Work of excavating for the new concrete building to be built for the DesChurtes Motor Company started early Monday. The excess dirt is being used to fill the street for many years blocked by the city fire fighting apparatus. It is interesting to watch the Fordson tractors keep their steady round of hauling scraper loads of dirt, never stopping from morning to noon and noon to night. The work of the Fordsons show that "soft" summer fallow, to them, is a fallacy easily disproven.

Mrs. Olive Solgado, from California, who is visiting with her parents, C. H. Ellsworth and family, lost her purse, containing some money and a diamond ring, last Friday when she left it lying on a table in the front room of the hotel. A stranger who had applied for accommodations was suspected, more because he was not seen again. Sheriff Chrisman was notified and after search located the suspect on a train bound for Portland where he was taken in charge and searched, but no incriminating article was found.

"All we can give for the money; not all we can get for the goods"

Don't be taken in with the idea that the character of our goods means corresponding height in cost. We shall be glad to dispel that idea if you will call and see us. We want you to know a dollar here buys more than elsewhere.
