Corwin - Farra Wedding

This city was the scene of a pretty home wedding Thursday evening, June 17th, when Miss Pauline Corwin and Thomas H. Farra were united in marriage at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. C. S. Royse. Rev. F. R. Jackson of Wasco officiating.

The charming personality of the bride has won for her a host of friends in this city as well as at Wasco where the family resided before coming to Moro. The bride groom is an enterprising young farmer of Absarokee, Montana, and is a son of Mrs. J. W. Duffin of this city and brother to Mrs. A. H. Barnum of Lone Rock Farm.

Immediately following the ceremony refreshments were served by Mrs. Royse, assisted by the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Luella Lamborn, of Wasco, the only guest from outside this locality.

A wedding reception was given the young couple Sunday afternoon by Mrs. A. H. Barnum at their Lone Rock Farm home, the young people leaving Monday morning for their new home near Absarokee, Montana.

Moro Churches Adopt Resolution

The following resolution was adopted by the Presbyterian and Methodist churches of Moro, Oregon:

Resolved: That inasmuch as the Ellison-White Chautauque Company has billed their usual Chautauque program for the Sunday, July 4th, at DeMoss Springs and are planning to charge their usual admission to the Sunday program, we hereby express our disapproval of the same as commercializing and desecrating the day.

Presbyterian Church,
by F. E. Fagan, Secretary.
Methodist Church,
by R. J. Ginn, Secretary.

Abstracts promptly made by the Sherman County Abstract Co., Moro, Oregon.
