IN MEMORIAM
The many friends of Mrs. J. M. Woods and family of Wasco were shocked to learn of the sudden death on Sunday of Mrs. Woods following an operation in that city the preceding Thursday for gall stones. Mrs. Nellie McPherson Woods was born, raised, and lived in Sherman county. She was a member of one of the earliest of the pioneer families and always had taken an active part in every effort to promote the social and educational life of her particular community as well as of the county as a whole. Mrs. Woods was but 36 years old, just when one enjoys the zest of living most, and had always enjoyed abundant good health that had enabled her to participate so freely in all things for the benefit of the community life. We regret sincerely to chronicle the passing of so estimable a character.

W. A. Rigdon and wife returned Monday from a 1400 mile auto tour of the Willamette valley. They wound their way south through the valley by visiting various mountain resorts on the east and west side to as far south as Eugene. Near Philomath Wes helped a brother-in-law locate and fell a tree that contained 75 pounds of wild honey.
Lightning struck the Roy Axtell barn in two places during the electrical storm Friday afternoon. One bolt went through the roof, splintering the side of the barn and made kindling of large foundation timbers under the manger. Another bolt went through the roof over the loft door, followed down the wall and separated, part continuing to the ground and part following a wire to the opposite side of the manger from the first mentioned where it proceeded to manufacture more kindling. The editor saw the lightning hit the barn and noticed distinctly the resulting smoke and dust. The barn was empty and no other damage resulted.

A Business Maxim

"A man is judged, not alone by the company he keeps, but by the manner in which he pays his bills."

The fellow who produces a roll of bills and peels off the number required to meet an obligation might formerly have created a favorable impression.

Nowadays people are likely to wonder why he isn't progressive enough to keep his money in bank and check it out as needed.

How do you pay your bills?
