C. L. Powell was a week-end visitor in Moro from Portland.

Five more wide track header gear wagons left. Crosfield, Wasco.

Send your hemstitching to Mrs. L. M. Boothby, The Dalles, Oregon.

Remember Mullikin, the harness man, is now at Wasco. Call and see him.

Abstracts promptly made by the Sherman County Abstract Co., Moro, Oregon.

Mrs. Jas. Wilkie has been visiting with her mother at Grass Valley the past week.

The new elevator at Erskine was opened this week for storage and shipment of wheat.

Crosfield handles and sells only genuine Holt extras. Do not be misled by inferior parts.

Mail orders for hemstitching given prompt attention. Mrs. L. M. Boothby, The Dalles, Oregon.

The usual Dorcas social for August will be held at the home of Mrs. J. C. McKean next Wednesday.

Mrs. Otto Peetz and son Carl Frederick returned Sunday from a visit at Portland with her parents.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hulse at the home of Dr. Poley in this city on Tuesday, August 3d, a son.

E. A. Cushman and wife spent Sunday at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Irvine Morris at Maupin.

Fresh for canning. String beans, beets, carrots, etc. Cooking apples. Phone 5F12, Mrs. O. B. Messinger, Moro.

Lost. A small gold child's locket. Please return to Little Vivian Hays, Bee Hive Restaurant. Valued as a keepsake.

Mrs. J. J. O'Connell and daughter Marie, from Tulsa, Oklahoma, is visiting with her sister, Mrs. J. C. Freeman.

County Clerk Hoskinson is enjoying a vacation at Corvallis with her daughter Jessie who is attending O.A.C. summer school.

Miss Mary Kunsman is visiting at the home of her brother Roy and incidentally helping with the book keeping work at the Moro Trading Company.

G. E. Mathews, proprietor of Moro Opera House, concluded a deal this week by means of which he also becomes proprietor of the L. W. Ross confectionary.

I am leaving Moro and offer for quick sale all my household goods, my Ford car, and two lots joining each other. A bargain for every one interested. Lloyd Grimes.

"It's a boy and George the Third is it's name," says G. E. Meloy as the result of the visit of the stork at the family home south of Moro at 15 minutes after midnight July 30th.

The mare advertised by Glenn King in the Observer last week belonged to Wiley McDonald. Now, will some good neighbor tell where Wesley Fuller's horse is hiding out from harvest work.

Wait for Dr. Freeze, if you need eye service. Trips each month to Moro and other towns.

Dr. Lloyd Idleman and wife, Mrs. Jenn Stamey and Miss Helen Idleman, all from Pendleton, were visiting at the A. S. Johnson home this week enroute to Crater Lake. Mrs. Idleman and Mrs. Stamey are sisters to Mrs. Johnson.

Among the first reported to have finished threshing in the Fairview district was M. Neal who housed his machine Saturday. A good part of his crop averaged better than 13 sacks per acre.

J. C. McKean was hit on the head with some 16-inch wood as he was opening a car door Monday. Besides some bruises to his face, a wound on his forehead needed two stitches by Dr. Poley.

Road Master Wall was seriously injured Saturday evening at the rock crusher now working at Grass Valley. His foot became tangled in some rope pulling him off the top and causing him to fall seven feet.

G. H. Hansen and Archie Blue accompanied R. S. Goff and his mother this week on a brief visit to Crater Lake. In a continuous drive of 23 hours the party made Klamath the first afternoon from Moro where they visited with Mr. Goff's brother. The next day was spent at Crater Lake. The party arrived back Wednesday.

At the Monday meeting of the city council proceedings were initiated by which the property bought by Moro citizens to be added to the present park system will be accepted and taken over. Gravel is now being hauled for a concrete culvert fourteen feet square, which will be built as soon as necessary legal proceedings are complete.

Grass Valley and Moro was visited Thursday afternoon by a severe dust storm which seem to be more than ordinarily plentiful this year. During the storm two autos parked at the B.F. Peetz farm, one owned by G. A. Meloy and the other by Mr. Peetz, standing close to each other, slightly at right angles, became charged with electricity so that the drivers could not touch them without receiving a severe electrical shock.

Clever Musical Revue Coming

The coming attraction at the Moro Theatre Wednesday, August 11th, will be the "Dancing Kewpie Dolls" a musical revue taken from all the different musical shows of the big eastern cities. The "Dancing Kewpie Dolls" is an original combination of things musical that is very different from any thing ever seen in the musical comedy stage and is a production full with lilting music, plenty of comedy situations and is blessed with pretty, shapely girls that can sing and dance. The splendid cast is headed by a number of stage celebrities such as Mr. Merrill LaVelle, Albert MacDonald, Misses Lillian Leslie and Dorothy DeVere, who have all won fame on the musical stage and are delighting many thousands of theater goers again this season. The "Dancing Kewpie Doll Revue" is flavored with many happy situations and picturesque settings, graceful and dainty girls, with an atmosphere of smartness and good taste about it which all in all makes an entertainment of the worth while sort.

A Business Maxim

"A man is judged, not alone by the company he keeps, but by the manner in which he pays his bills."

The fellow who produces a roll of bills and peels off the number required to meet an obligation might formerly have created a favorable impression.

Nowadays people are likely to wonder why he isn't progressive enough to keep his money in bank and check it out as needed.
