Mrs. A. S. Johnson is visiting with relatives at Hood River.

Send your hemstitching to Mrs. L. M. Boothby, The Dalles, Oregon.

Mrs. Roy Powell returned Thursday afternoon from a visit at Portland.

Remember Mullikin, the harness man, is now at Wasco. Call and see him.

Mrs. C. H. Johns returned Monday from a visit with relatives at Junction City.

L. V. Moore and family left the first of the week on a huckle berry tour of the Hood River district.

Abstracts promptly made by the Sherman County Abstract Co., Moro, Oregon.

Crossfield handles and sells only genuine Holt extras. Do not be misled by inferior parts.

Mrs. C. H. Ellsworth has had the Ellsworth Hotel dining room renovated and is now busy with the upper story painting and papering.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rebm and daughter Beulah were Moro visitors Tuesday afternoon from their farm near Klondike.

Mrs. T. S. Reese returned Thursday from a brief vacation spent at the Tillamook beaches. Miss Roberta accompanied her mother, remaining at Rockaway beach for a longer visit.

W. H. Ragsdale and family returned Tuesday from a week-end outing at Camp Sherman. Because of the large number who now visit that district, Mr. Ragsdale reports the fishing as very poor.

Miss Mary Hollenbeck and brother Eugene, from Oakland, California, are visiting with their aunt, Mrs. P. C. Axtell. Miss Gladys Teale, a niece from Battle Ground, Wash., is also visiting the family.

Two nephews, Earl James from Eugene, and Harold Teale from Battle Ground, Wash., as well as a brother George James, from Eugene, are part of the harvesting crew at the P. C. Axtell farm.

The Mrs. W. F. and T. E. Hulery are visiting in the Willamette Valley at Salem and at Corvallis. They were accompanied as far as Hood River Thursday morning by W. F. Hulery who turned the car over to the ladies at that place and returned by train to Moro.

Owner wanted for a bay mare, das roached mane, small white spot in forehead, weight about 1200, branded combination EG on left shoulder. Came to my place July 30th. John M. DeMoss, box 397, Wasco.

Chas. McKinney has a new Ford Sedan, purchased from the DesChutes Motor Co. Sedan cars are becoming more popular each month with Sherman county motorists, as they become better acquainted with the weather protection features of the sedan model.

Reward for information or return of a light bay horse; weight about 1200; branded LP on left hip; has knot on left hind leg between hock and ankle. Left about the middle of July. Wesley Fuller, Moro.

Within the next six weeks, so state the highway commission, the new Columbia Highway bridge across the Des Chutes river will be connected with the present road by a detour on the Wasco county side and the toll across the DesChutes which has been exacted for many years will be a memory.

J. F. Foss received word late Saturday that his father had suffered a paralytic stroke at the farm near Terrebonne the previous day. The family left the same night by auto, returning Wednesday with the report that Mr. Foss senior had been working in the orchard without a hat and had suffered a slight sunstroke but was now considered as out of danger.

The state highway commission is reported as intending to slacken up on their proposed road program throughout the state because of the slump in the bond market. If it be true that motorists pay the bills through the increased high auto license, gas tax, etc., and if they be willing to continue to do this, why deprive them of the pleasures of good roads when they need them.

Ned Hickson, Bill Johnson, and Kenny McPherson, the expert disciples of Isaac Walton, were week-end visitors at Shearer Bridge with the result that a splendid catch of red side trout were taken during the time given to the sport. Some friends of the members of the party came by train from Portland, but had not the luck of the Moro men, but so far as their home folks were concerned the Portland men caught practically all the fish because "seeing being believing" they had the goods.

Mrs. J. C. Harper returned Thursday from Helix where she was a guest of honor at the wedding of Miss Letha Albee to Clifford L. Kendall at the home of the bride's parents on Sunday, August 16th. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Harper favored the assembled guests with a vocal solo entitled "I Love You Truly" and as the wedding party took their appointed places presided at the piano, playing the wedding march entitled "Midsummer Night's Dream." Before returning to Moro Mrs. Harper visited with Mrs. C. Z. Randall in Pendleton and with Mrs. L. B. Robinson at The Dalles.

S. S. Hayes is visiting in the county from Portland. Mr. Hayes was one of the first county clerks elected in Sherman county, before that having been identified with the early pioneer farming days of this county. He is still owner of his farm lands and part of the business connected with his visit is to arrange for building a new residence on the farm. Leaving Portland by auto Monday morning he expected to find congenial company by chance meeting along the road, but only succeeded in breaking his single state when he gave a school kid a short lift. For the rest of the 135 miles he traveled like royalty, in state and alone.

F. A. Sayrs and family returned Thursday from the upper Hood River valley with 55 quarts of canned huckle berries to show for their weeks outing. Frank says that the country visited was about the wildest and roughest he had ever seen and that when it came to log climbing a party earned the berries and had plenty of exercise. The party spent two nights at Eagle Creek camp on the highway, visiting the punch bowl and the falls by way of the government trail. They also gave two days to a leisurely tour of the Columbia highway as far as Vista House.

A penalty charge of $10 per day has been authorized by the Interstate Commerce Commission for the detention more than 48 hours of all open top cars and all cars loaded with lumber, coal or coke. The penalty charge will apply on forest materials to which the lumber rates themselves apply, but excepts cars held at ports for trans shipment by vessels. This new charge is in addition to the regular demurrage rate.

Secretary A. M. Young, of Moro I. O. O. F. lodge, has had framed and has presented to the Moro lodge a panoramic view of the members attending and participating in the I. O. O. F. Grand Lodge and parade at Baker, Oregon, May 25th to 27th. The picture was taken on the Baker county court house lawn, showing all of the three thousand delegates to the Grand Lodge who participated in the eleven block long parade, marching four abreast.

Wait for Dr. Freeze, if you need eye service. Trips each month to Moro and other towns.

Conley-Justesen Wedding

Theodore Justesen of Kent, Oregon, and Miss Nell Conley of Tygh Valley, Oregon, were married in Moro Sunday evening, August 15th, 1920, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Brisbane. Harold H. Miles, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, read the Episcopal service and pronounced this happy young couple man and wife.

Only Mr. and Mrs. Brisbane witnessed the ceremony. They left Sunday evening for Kent where they will set up house keeping on a farm near that city. May happiness and prosperity ever be their lot.

I. O. O. F. Grand Master Visits County

Grand Master A. H. Johnson, of the I. O. O. F., paid Moro, Sherman, Grass Valley, and Kent lodges an official visit Monday evening, meeting in the hall at Moro. Grand Master Johnson was very much impressed with Moro and the general surroundings and was very much surprised to see the extent of the improvements now under construction in this city. He was also pleased to see so many members of the order out at this time of the year, as he fully realized what a busy season this is in Sherman county. Mr. Johnson left for Pendleton on the Tuesday train where he meets the Pendleton lodges, after which he meets Columbia lodge No. 5 of The Dalles. The visit of the Grand Master at Moro was the 71st official visit since the meeting of the Grand Lodge at Baker in May, of this year.

A Business Maxim

"A man is judged, not alone by the company he keeps, but by the manner in which he pays his bills."

The fellow who produces a roll of bills and peels off the number required to meet an obligation might formerly have created a favorable impression.

Nowadays people are likely to wonder why he isn't progressive enough to keep his money in bank and check it out as needed.

How do you pay your bills?
