Notice to the Public:

Considering the fact that musicians have doubled their price when playing for dances and that all other expenses connected with giving a dance has also taken the same turn of mind, we find it impossible to promote a dance at the old price of one dollar a couple. On and after this date all dances which are given by the undersigned the dance tickets will be one dollar and fifty cents, war tax making a total of one dollar and sixty five cents.

Mrs. Anna McDonald, mother of Nejl McDonald of Hay Canyon district, died at the home of her son George at Hardman, Oregon, on Saturday, August 21st, from the results of her clothing catching on fire when attempting to build a fire in the kitchen stove the previous Thursday. Funeral services were held at Hardman on August 29th at 10 a.m. Mrs. McDonald was 85 years of age at the time of her death. She was identified with the early history of Sherman county.

Harvest Ball—Moro Opera House Friday evening September 3d—All lovers of good dancing, good music, and a good well kept floor will be made welcome. The decorations for the evening is something on a scale never before attempted. A pleasant evening assured all. Admission dollar and sixty five, including war tax.

C. G. Huls and Dr. C. L. Poley were registered this week at the Hotel Perkins in Portland, where Mr. Huls, under advice of Dr. Poley, consulted with specialists as to the nature of his stomach trouble. It was thought that the teeth was the primary cause, which X-ray diagnosis confirmed, and C. G. accompanied Dr. Poley back to Moro with several less teeth than he had when going down.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. McVicker expect to reach home on September 1st at which time Mr. McVicker will resume his pastoral work, there being services at the Presbyterian church on the first Sunday, morning and evening. He will have some thing of interest to present at both services and will be glad to have all his congregation present.

C. A. Todd and family are visiting in the county from Fresno, California, making the trip overland by auto. They were accompanied as far as Corvallis by a brother of Mrs. Todd's, who returned to California from that place. The return to Fresno will be made by way of Klamath Falls.

Owner wanted for a bay mare, has roached mane, small white spot in forehead, weight about 1200, branded combination EG on left shoulder. Came to my place July 30th. John M. DeMoss, box 397, Wasco.

In an effort to further advance the comfort of their patrons the management of Moro Opera House has just had installed a ladies rest room and lavatory in the rear of the main auditorium. A feature that will be much appreciated by the public.

C. J. Livingston, partner of G. E. Mathews, in the operation of Moro Opera House and the Confectionery Store, is due to arrive in Moro this Saturday to make this city his future home.

Reward for information or return of a light bay horse; weight about 1200; branded LP on left hip; has knot on left hind leg between hock and ankle. Left about the middle of July. Wesley Fuller, Moro.
