MORO TRADING CO.

MORO, OREGON

Send your hemstitching to Mrs. L. M. Boothby, The Dalles, Oregon.

Mrs. Wayne Ramsver, of Redmond, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. McVicker.

Remember Mullikin, the harness man, is now at Wasco. Call and see him.

Communion service will be held in connection with the Sunday morning service at the Presbyterian church.

H. J. Warn is suffering from an infection of his left foot, which Dr. Poley opened on Wednesday.

Astratacs promptly made by the Sherman County Abstract Co., Moro, Oregon.

Orville Barnum broke a bone of his right hand and had to have the fracture reduced and a splint applied on Wednesday.

I have taken the Moro agency for the Model Laundry of The Dalles; bundles received and delivered at the section house, near depot, W. H. Barnes

N. P. Hansen and wife, from Portland, are numbered among the out of town visitors to return to their old home town for County Fair week.

J. P. Strahl and wife, from Portland, were visitors this week with their son Leslie, in this city, as well as numerous friends.

620 acres for sale near Rutledge, 350 acres tillable, balance good pasture with plenty of water. Will sell on easy terms. Apply to Sherman County Abstract Co., Moro.

L. W. Ross has sold his city property to A. C. Thompson, retaining possession until March 1st, at which time Mr. Thompson expects to move into town from his farm in the Monkland section.

Dr. Freeze, the eye specialist, will be at Moro Pharmacy Wednesday and Thursday, October 13th and 14th. Grass Valley, October 11th and Wasco October 12th.

H. Bloomer, of the O. W. R. R. & N. Co., severed a blood vessel of his right knee while using a foot adze Wednesday. Dr. Poley was called and closed the wound which is not expected to result seriously.

Any one wanting pasture for stock or horses where there is plenty of water, straw dumps, and about 400 acres of grass land—a total of about 900 acres—call on or write Chas. McKinney, Moro.

A purse has been posted by a number who accepted the invitation to attend the Wasco County Fair at The Dalles last week to be offered as a reward for the discovery of the location of the fair which they had hoped to attend.

The daughter of Lewis Olds, of Grass Valley, injured her elbow last week while playing basket ball. Dr. Poley, who has the injury in charge, says the young lady will need carry her arm fixed in a sling for some time, due to fluid in the joint.

The office rooms in the new Hotel Moro are filling up with occupants. One room is now being used by L. W. Ross as a jewelry store and another is the headquarters for the Sherman Electric Company commissary department. The Moro barber shop will occupy another shortly after the county fair.

Harold Payne, from Rufus school; Glenn Dillinger, from Kent school; Bernice Neal, from Fairview school, and Don O'Leary, from Grass Valley school, were the four children of the county who won the State Fair trip this year.

Mathews & Livingstone, owners of the Moro Confectionery Store, have made a number of changes to the interior of their store this week that will prove of benefit to their patrons and make their place of business even more popular than before the work was undertaken.

An alarm of fire shortly before noon Tuesday brought every available man to the street in response to the ringing of the fire bell. The cause was a leaking gasoline supply pipe on a stove in the kitchen at Dr. Gard's residence in the Webb building, causing the burner to be flooded with gasoline. Damage was confined to the oil stove, altho for a short time it appeared that extensive injury to the building might result.

Industrial Club children from all parts of the county sent work to be exhibited at the State Fair, held at Salem last week. Two second places were won by Sherman county school children—the first by Harold Payne of Rufus on his garden exhibit and the second by Henry Barnum of Moro on his pure bred calf.

Dr. C. L. Poley reports the arrival in the county of the following new citizens during the current week: Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Tomlin, at the family home in Moro on October 5th, a 6½ pound girl; Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Belshee, on October 6th, an 8 pound boy; Mr. and Mrs. W. Anderson, at the Lave Barnett home near Wasco, an 8 pound girl on October 7th.

Chas. Bullard and family left this week for a vacation of several months to be spent in and near Pasadena, California. They make the trip down by auto and expect to return the same way next June altho at that time they intend to spend considerable time camping by the wayside. The farm has been left in charge of Earl Thompson.

Going Wheat Farm For Sale—790 acres, Eastern Oregon, all cultivated, all lies fine, 400 acres summer fallow, good buildings, well, windmill, 30 horses, combine, drills, all other machinery needed. Give possession. Everything for $45 per acre, half cash; might consider $10,000 trade. $10,000 cash, balance easy. This is fine place and bare land is worth the price. Lueddeman Company, 913 Chamber of Commerce, Portland, Ore.

W. K. Johnson, manager of the local branch of the Tumulal Lumber Co., is now occupying the new home built this summer by the company for the convenience of their representative in this city. The building ranks with the best in our city, is provided with all modern conveniences, including full concrete floored basement, and is a fine example of the architectural skill of the Tumulal Lumber Co. designers of homes.

A construction camp near Erskine has been established by Mr. Hoard in charge of work for the Sherman Electric Co., who reports that all post holes have been dug for the line from the DesChutes river to that point and that the crew are now at work digging holes for the line from Erskine to Grass Valley. It is expected that pole setting will be under way next week.

We want every person visiting the County Fair to call and get acquainted and inspect our new garage. Ladies especially are invited to make our ladies' rest rooms their headquarters while in town. DesChutes Motor Company.

Home Dollars turn the Wheels of Home Industry

Make the most of your home dollars by keeping them in your home county where they will help pay taxes, build roads, maintain good schools and generally benefit the community. This can best be done by patronizing home merchants.

Home industry depends upon a home bank for the necessary funds for paying home people wages and salaries, buying raw materials, and meeting necessary expenses.

You can help by depositing your surplus dollars in this strong bank where they will earn interest for you. In helping to turn the wheels of home industry, they add to the prosperity of every man, woman and child in the county.
