At a special meeting of the City Council, held last week, it was voted to sell $5000 of local improvement bonds with which to pay for the city work done this last year and incidentally retire a number of city warrants. The bonds were sold at par to a Portland firm.

Here is the best buy in Sherman county: 720 acres, 690 tillable; 350 seeded to turkey red; good buildings; plenty of good water. I will sell this place for half what others are asking for the same quality of land. Come and let me show you this place. Alex Hunter, Moro.

W. L. Wilson and wife were Rufus visitors in this city Wednesday. He said that the Columbia highway was now open the entire width of north Sherman county and that the gravel crews were working that day on the east part of the highway.

The annual Rod and Gun Club hunt, staged each year by members of the Moro club in December, was pulled off last week, three days being allowed this year. The side captured by Clarence Sparling lost to the side led by Jimmy Kinney by approximately 32,000 points. A banquet is to be served to the winning side, and their wives and lady friends, in case of a bachelor, this Friday evening at Moro Hotel at 8:30 o'clock by the losers. There will be no smoker or picture show.

Worked for One.
In a little settlement upstate a number of the property owners had been talking about incorporating and making a town. So they called a mass meeting for the people to voice their opinions. Only one man opposed it. He said: "Gentlemen, I am not in for making a corporation of this place. My reason is this: I worked for one of them corporations once."—Indianapolis News.

Summons by Publication

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Sherman County
Moro Trading Company, a Corporation, plaintiff

vs
O. E. Baker, defendant.

To O. E. Baker, the above named defendant:
In the name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby required to appear and answer or otherwise plead to the complaint filed against you in the above entitled action within ten days from the date of the service of this summons upon you if served within this County; or if served within any other County; in this State then within twenty days from the date of said service; or if served by publication, then within six weeks from the date of the first publication thereof and if you fail so to appear and plead, plaintiff will take judgment against you for $574.45, with interest thereon at eight per cent per annum, from April 1st, 1920; the further sum of $241.82; for $150 as attorneys fees and the costs and disbursements of the action. Plaintiff will also apply for an order of sale of the property attached in said action in accordance with law and the practice of the court.

This summons is served on you by publication thereof in the Sherman County Observer, for six weeks in pursuance of an order of the above entitled Court, heretofore made and entered on the 4th day of November, A.
