Change of Management

I take pleasure in advising my friends and business acquaintances that I have taken over the complete management of the DesChutes Motor Company, its automobile repair and general garage business.

R. S. Goff, formerly manager of the company, retains the sales agency for Ford cars, trucks and tractors, but will not longer be identified with the DesChutes Motor Company.

I take this opportunity to state that any motor repair or other garage business from the public will be appreciated and taken care of efficiently.
